SPEEDER GETS AWAY

Patrolman Swerves Auto To Miss Deer, Hits Tree

Two highway patrolmen were shaken up early today when one of them, driving a patrol car in pursuit of a speeder, swerved to miss a deer.

The patrol car hit a tree, and the speeder got away. So did the deer.

Patrolman Morris Russell Doty, 38, of 28 Hacienda court, San Rafael, was being treated at San Rafael General Hospital today for injuries to his right hip and rib cage.

Patrolman Joseph Holman Kendricks, 35, of Woodacre, driver of the vehicle, complained of neck and shoulder pains, was treated and released.

The car hit a tree a half-mile north of the Mission avenue offramp on Highway 101 at San Rafael at 4:20 a.m.

At 5:10 a.m. the CHP central dispatching office received a call that a deer had been killed in traffic on Highway 101 at Spencer avenue, Sausalito, but the driver of the vehicle was unknown.

Kendricks and Doty were cruising south on Highway 101, and at the northerly side of Puerto Suello Hill, a speeder passed them.

Kendricks said he put the patrol car up to about 85 miles an hour at the top of the hill but still could not gain on the speeder. He slowed to 70 miles an hour at the curve near Linden lane, and as they rounded the curve a deer ran onto the highway. He hit the brakes to miss the animal, spun, hit a tree and spun again.

The speeding car was about 1,000 feet ahead and didn't attempt to stop.

The patrolmen were taken to the hospital by San Rafael police.

Sanitary Board Votes To Annex Paradise Cay

Corte Madera Body Withstands Critics, Acts Unanimously

Directors of Corte Madera Sanitary District withstood a barrage of criticism and probing questions last night before deciding to annex Paradise Cay, 200-lot Tiburon Peninsula subdivision.

The unanimous action followed an acrimonious public hearing attended by 44 persons in the Corte Madera Town Council chambers. The session was punctuated by frequent angry exchanges between directors and members of the audience.

MOST OPPOSITION

Most opposition came from members of the Paradise Drive Property Owners Assn. rather than from a 15-man Corte Madera citizens committee which last week expressed bitter opposition to the annexation.

Harold A. Snyder, board chairman, said directors concluded after careful study that annexation of Paradise Cay will be "an asset to our district."

"I believe," said Snyder, "that we owe it to a contiguous area which requests this as a cooperative thing and a public service which we are best prepared to give."

BROADEN TAX BASE

Snyder and his fellow board members stressed that the annexation will broaden the district's tax base, adding some two and one-half million dollars of assessed valuation.

Spokesmen for the Paradise drive group said William Desmond, county sanitation director, indicated properties within 200 feet of the enlarged district boundaries would be forced to join the district. This, they said, would disenfranchise owners of property above and below the drive, near Paradise Cay, by stripping them of the power to choose between the Corte Madera and Richardson Bay Sanitary Districts.

CAN ABATE MENACE

Philip Assaf, district legal consultant, said the properties could not be forced into the district without the owners' consent. But he added that the county health department can require abatement of a public health menace on the properties if it finds one is created by their septic tanks.

"Why don't you form your own sanitary district if you feel so strongly about it?" Director Ben K. Rippe asked the Paradise drive group.

Arguments similar to those voiced last week by the Corte Madera citizens committee were made last night by Walter S. Long, town councilman, who

Amateur Botanist Held For Raising Marijuana

MARIJUANA 'NURSERY' OUT OF BUSINEESS — This flourishing crop of 17 potted marijuana plans was nipped in the bud with arrest of Donald B. James, 25, of Mill Valley. Officer Dan Terzich of Mill Valley, Inspector Richard V. Argento of sheriff's office and Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich examine tender plants, which could reach 18 feet if well cultivated. They had a good start under care of amateur botanist James. (Independent-Journal photo)

17 Plants In Pots On Porch

An amateur Mill Valley botanist, who claims he was just interested in seeing how marijuana plants grow, was picked up yesterday along with 17 potted marijuana plants sunning themselves on the back porch of his home.

Donald Phillip James, 25, of 59 Crown court, Mill Valley, was to be arraigned this afternoon on a charge of unlawful marijuana possession.

Mill Valley Police Officer Dan Terzich got a tip on the flourishing plants and arrested James yesterday in San Francisco, where he works as a clerk for a surgical supply company. Inspector Richard Argento, chief of the sheriff's narcotics division, worked with Terzich in the investigation and arrest.

APPEAL TO PUBLIC

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich today jointly appealed to the public to help stamp out the narcotics problem in the county.

They promised that informants' identities will be kept confidential.

"Some citizens may feel embarrassed that what they suspect to be marijuana may turn out to be something else," Sheriff Mountanos said. "But we would be pleased to get the information even if the report turns out to be negative."

THREE FEET HIGH

The tip on the Mill Valley "nursery" disclosed a flourishing crop of well-cultivated plants, some about three feet high. They were mingled among other potted plants which James said he nurtured to satisfy his interest in the "botanical, medical effects and legal significance" of the plants.

James told Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino he bought a package of rough marijuana in Los Angeles several months ago for his own use and carried it under the seat of his car.

He took some of the seeds and grew them in his hothouse, then transplanted them into pots. Officers reported that the plants could be seen from the street.

READ ABOUT DRUG

James said he read botany books on marijuana when he worked in a library in Los Angeles, and decided to experiment.

Saturday morning, San Francisco police picked him up on Larkin street on suspicion of carrying marijuana under the seat of his car. Yesterday afternoon, officers raided James' home and confiscated 17 potted plants.

District Attorney Weissich plans to have the plants taken to a deputy sheriff's home to be cultivated until the time of trial. They will be used as evidence.

James was in county jail today in lieu of $2,500 bail.

Senate Unit Votes Fund For Aqueduct

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — One million dollars for continued studies and purchase of rights of way for the North Bay Aqueduct, which would carry water to Marin County, won approval of the Senate Finance Committee last night.

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy sharply reduced his request for funds from nine to one million dollars. He said he had been informed by the Department of Water Resources that "it would be impossible to spend" the nine million dollars in the next fiscal year.

GOVERNOR APPROVES

McCarthy said the idea of purchasing rights of way now "has the approval of the governor," although funds for it are not in the budget at present.

He told the committee, however, that if the governor's $1,750,000,000 water bond program is passed, he would drop this proposal. The $30,000,000 North Bay Aqueduct is included in the governor's long range program.

PENDS BUDGET

The committee gave a "do pass" recommendation to the project, but it must await passage of the state budget before it can be considered by the full Senate and move on to the Assembly.

The aqueduct, which would carry water to Marin, Sonoma, Napa and Solano Counties, would start at Lindsay Slough of the Sacramento River near Rio Vista, and wind 60 miles to a reservoir near Novato.

Senate Passes Bill Hiking Judges' Pay

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A bill giving salary raises of $4,500 per year to Marin superior court judges and $5,000 more per year to Marin municipal court judges sneaked through the state Senate yesterday.

Marin superior court judges would get a raise from $16,500 to $21,000. Municipal court judges, including the one yet to be appointed for Marin's new third municipal court, would get $18,500 instead of $13,500.

The measure (SB 679) would equalize salaries of all superior court judges in the state at $21,000 and do the same for all municipal court judges at $18,500. Previously the salaries have been set according to classes of courts, with lower salaries going to smaller counties. State supreme and appellate court justices would get a $4,000 raise.

Senator George Miller (D-Martinez), author of the bill, maintained that a judge in a smaller county needs just as much training and is just as busy with exactly the same duties as a judge in a larger community. Therefore, he reasoned, the salaries should be the same.

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, who had been on the subcommittee which considered the bill earlier, took the floor to urge passage. He pointed out that the bill has the support of both the League of California Cities and the County Supervisors Assn.

But opponents of the bill fought bitterly on the grounds

Park May Be Named For Mrs. Livermore

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A resolution which would name one of Marin's state parks or an appropriate area within such parks for Mrs. Caroline E. Livermore of Ross was introduced in the state Senate yesterday.

The resolution, which was referred to the Senate Rules Committee, requested the state Parks Commission "to select an appropriate area within the state parks of Marin County and name this area in honor of Mrs. Caroline E. Livermore."

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, who introduced the resolution, said "it would be nice if the parks commission would make the name Angel Island-Livermore State Park, or something like that."

The resolution noted that "the preservation of natural beauty of Marin County is a vital need if the county is to continue to be known as Marvelous Marin."

Mrs. Livermore, it went on, "has for 25 years waged a continuing and successful campaign to retain outstanding portions of the county's natural wild areas from being lost to cluttered suburbia."

There now exists in Marin "outstanding public areas" such as Mt. Tamalpais, Samuel P. Taylor, Tomales Bay and Stinson Beach State Parks, plus the new bird sanctuary on Richardson Bay. These are "due in a large measure to her untiring efforts," the resolution declared.

McCarthy said he expects no opposition to the "highly deserved" recognition for Mrs. Livermore.

Incorporation Petitioners Short Of Goal

More than 1,600 property owners have signed petitions urging an incorporation election for Novato, but they represent ownership of less than half the required assessed valuation.

Members of the Novato Home Rule Committee last night learned the petitions so far represent only about $600,000. Needed are signatures representing $1,300,000—one-quarter of the total assessed valuation within the proposed city's boundaries.

San Rafael School Budgets Approved, Exceed $2 Million

Budgets for San Rafael High School and Elementary School Districts were approved last night by the San Rafael Board of Education.

Both budgets for the 1959-60 school year are in excess of one million dollars.

The high school's general operating budget was approved at $1,263,050, compared with the current year's budget of $1,177,015. The increase includes nine additional teachers to instruct 260 more students, and higher teacher salaries, said Supt. Frank L. Lucas.

The high school district general tax rate will be $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation plus 21 cents for bond retirement.

The San Rafael Elementary School District operating budget was approved at $1,448,126, compared with the current year's budget of $1,376,187. The district will have 180 more children next year and five additional teachers, said Lucas. About $72,000 of the increase will go into teacher salary raises.

The basic elementary district tax rate will be $1.50, plus six cents for restricted funds and 48 cents for bond retirement.

Mrs. Truman Leaves Hospital

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Mrs. Harry S. Truman was released at 11:30 a.m. today from Research Hospital, where she underwent surgery for a benign tumor May 18.

She rode to her home in nearby Independence in an automobile, accompanied by the former President and a driver whom hospital attendants did not identify.

A hospital spokesman said Mrs. Truman's condition was "excellent."

Ike Sees No Progress Yet In Geneva Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today there has been no detectible progress at the Geneva talks that would justify a summit conference.

Eisenhower called at a news conference for Russia to show some willingness to reach at least preliminary agreement at the foreign ministers sessions.

The President suggested that the Soviet Union ought to make, for example, a clear commitment that Western rights in Berlin will not be impeded pending reunification of Germany.

Eisenhower said there also are other good faith approaches which the Soviet Union could take.

He added that some recent statements by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev have not been calculated to ease East-West tensions.

The President spoke out against the background of his call a week ago for a measure of progress at Geneva if Russia really wants a summit conference.

WEST PUSHES FOR SHOWDOWN IN BERLIN CRISIS

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers were reported to have pressed the Soviet Union hard today for early East-West decisions to end the Berlin crisis.

The Big Four met in secret session for 2½ hours after the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France decided the time had arrived to try for a showdown in the negotiations.

But there was no indication of any concessions on either side toward a compromise understanding.

Liquor License Suspended 10 Days

State Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission officers announced today that the liquor license of the Flamingo Inn, 2007 Bridgeway, Sausalito, was suspended yesterday for 10 days, for selling liquor to minors eight or nine months ago.

Operations of the Flamingo's restaurant are not affected.

The suspension is not connected with pending charges against the place in connection with harboring homosexuals, agents said.

U. S. Satellite Carries Aloft 4 'Space Mice'

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—A Discoverer satellite shot aloft today carrying four black supermice space pioneers.

The Air Force hopes to eject them over the Pacific tomorrow and catch them as they parachute—first living things to return alive from orbit.

The rodents, as perfect specimens of mousedom as America's Mercury astronauts are of humankind, crouched in tiny individual cages in a capsule in the nose cone of Discoverer III.

The 160-pound plastic capsule, shaped like an ice cream cone with the tip rounded off, contains everything the mice need to survive in space for several days.

The 78-foot-rocket—a Thor first stage and Bell-Hustler second stage—rose vertically from its pad at ocean's edge and nosed over gradually toward the south.

Like earlier Discoverers, it was aimed for orbit around the poles. Discoverer III's goal: An orbit every 94 minutes, with high point of 480 miles and low of 140, at a speed of 18,000 miles.

Old Waterfront Row Pops Up In Sausalito

What probably classifies as the granddaddy of all the Sausalito arks and barges disputes popped up again at the Sausalito City Council meeting last night when Mr. and Mrs. Byron Edwards, owners of two structures that once were barges, asked for permission to connect to sewers and to continue encroachment on a city street.

According to files read by Mayor Howard Sievers, the controversy between the city and the Edwardses has been simmering since 1952.

The Edwards' structures are apartments located at the intersection of Humboldt and Pine streets — both of which are mere lines on a map at that point, well under water.

Tenants of the Edwards' "barges" have been summoned into court by Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich as violators of the sanitary code.

Mrs. Edwards, clad in a mink stole, appeared along with her tenants and suggested that Weissich sue her as the owner of the property, rather than the tenants.

Last night, Edwards complained bitterly that even with a 1956 court order requiring certain structural changes in the property, "I find I'm always in a squeeze." The city, he complained, won't issue him a building permit.

Building Inspector William Hynes was quoted as saying he cannot issue a building permit since the barges encroach on a city street.

Edwards termed the city's action "continuing persecution."

City Atty. John B. Ehlen retorted: "I've been wading in this sewer business up to my hips for months. . . . This place should be vacated and these people forced to comply with the health and safety code."

Edwards, claiming to have spent $16,000 for fill and construction of supporting concrete beams, offered to put up a performance bond for all improvements and changes required by the city.

Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. suggested formation of a subcommittee to inspect the property.

Mayor Sievers appointed Ehrlich, Councilman John E. Koenig Jr. and Building Inspector Hynes to make the inspection.

Cement Masons Agree On 3-Year Contract

The Northern California building industry last night reached agreement with cement masons on a three-year wage contract, but construction teamsters in the North State area and Bay Area carpenters remained outside the fold.

The cement masons, numbering about 3,000 men in 46 counties, including Marin, accepted a contract calling for increases totaling 61 cents over the three-year period—a formula similar to that recently accepted by carpenters in 42 counties.

Carpenters in Marin, San Francisco, Alameda and San Mateo Counties have not yet accepted a contract to replace the current agreement, which expires June 15.

Bruce McKenzie of San Rafael, secretary-manager of the Central and Northern California Chapter, Associated General Contractors, said further negotiations with the Bay Area carpenters were in progress today.

Meanwhile, construction teamsters were given an ultimatum to accept a contract similar to that signed by the cement masons by noon today or lose about $140,000 in retroactive pay. Negotiations until today have been conducted on the basis of making new pay rates retroactive to May 19, but McKenzie said this offer will not be made after today.

The cement mason contract calls for a 20-cent hourly boost retroactive to May 19, bringing the hourly rate to $3.57. On May 1, 1960, the rate will go to $3.77 and a year later it will rise to $3.97. An additional one cent will be added for health and welfare next Jan. 1.

Meeting Set On Coleman School Issue

Representatives of Coleman School parents who want the school expanded at its present site have been invited to meet with the San Rafael Board of Education at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the board room, 215 Mission avenue, San Rafael.

The alternate under study by the board is an upper grade "annex" across from San Rafael High School.

Mrs. Charles Strom, Edwin Bruck and Richard Bettini have been named as Coleman School representatives on a committee to study the expansion problem. Other committee members are board of education members C. Paul Bettini, Roderick P. Martinelli and Willard E. Vernon; Supt. Frank Lucas, and Mrs. Sydney Dorn of the E Street School Parent-Teacher Assn.

The San Rafael Board of Education set up the Coleman discussion meeting last night. It also:

1. Decided to re-advertise for bids to expand Santa Venetia School and convert it to a seventh and eighth grade school. Bids opened last week were much higher than anticipated.

2. Granted salary raises of $300 a year to two school nurses, an art consultant and a speech therapist.

3-R School Sets Test Schedule

Students registering for the summer sessions at the Three-R School of San Rafael will be given individual tests to determine their grade level, according to James Kirchanski, director of the school.

The tests will be given at the school office, 508-A Fourth street, this Saturday at 9 a.m. for primary and high school pupils and June 13 at 9 p.m. for upper elementary and intermediate students. Late registrants in all grades may be tested June 20.

The first of two five-week sessions begins June 22, and the second session on July 27. Registration may be made for both sessions now.

Home Market To Observe Anniversary

The Home Market at 407 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo, will observe its 34th anniversary with a storewide sale tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

The store was founded in 1925 by Gabriel Franchini, who is still active in its management at the age of 82. He was joined early in the store's existence by his son Roy, and a few years later by a second son, William. A third son, Robert, joined the market about 10 years ago.

The three sons remain active in operating the store. William Franchini is a San Anselmo city councilman.

Three butchers at the market have been there for more than two decades each—Joe Milani, 25 years; George Brugaletta, 24 years; and Louis Crottogini, 21 years. A relative newcomer is butcher Fred Ruggeri, who has been with Home Market for five years.

The founder, Gabriel Franchini, is currently on a tour of Europe. His sons will be in charge of the anniversary celebration, which, they promise, will carry out the store's long-time tradition of offering only first - quality merchandise at competitive prices.

A method has been devised for fusing 22-carat gold into the surface of ceramic panels. It is said the cost is such as to make them practical for building exteriors.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — A moderate stock market recovery lost some ground late this afternoon in quiet trading.

Volume for the day was estimated at three million shares compared with 3,120,000 yesterday.

Leading issues held gains running from fractions to about two points. There were scattered losses.

Electronics made some wider gains, amounting to about five for Litton Industries, better than four for Zenith for three-plus for Motorola.

A two-point gain by Lorillard apparently inspired Liggett and Myers and American Tobacco which made similar advances.

United Aircraft dropped around two points and Merck around a point. Small losses were shown by Du Pont, Union Carbide, Pfizer and Consolidated Natural Gas.

J. I. Case advanced more than a point on higher earnings. Gains of around a point were scored by Caterpillar, Raytheon, Air Reduction and United Air Lines.

Kennecott was ahead more than two and Kaiser Aluminum well over a point. Anaconda and International Nickel were fractional gainers.

Two Acquire Mill Valley Auto Outlet

A new name in Marin's automotive field appeared yesterday as Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. acquired the Chevrolet agency in Mill Valley from Herbert H. Shapiro, operator of Herb's Chevrolet in Southern Marin for 20 years.

Shapiro sold the business to devote his time to other interests, but retained the building and land, which he is leasing to the new firm.

The new owners come from Los Gatos, where partner Grant R. Bishop has operated the town's Chevrolet agency. The second partner, Merrill Campbell, has been sales manager for Bishop and will make his headquarters at the Mill Valley location.

It is expected that Winn Bruner will continue as sales manager.

Fairfax Pavilion Repainting Sought

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission last night decided to ask the city council to have Fairfax Pavilion repainted. Commission members are obtaining cost estimates of the project to submit at the council's June 8 meeting.

The recreation commission also will ask that a wiring inspection of the pavilion be made, reported Mrs. Marian Kelley, secretary.

Senate Approves Gate Commission

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A Golden Gate Commission, assigned the two-year duties of studying consolidated operation of the Bay Area's bridges, airports and seaports, won unanimous approval of the state Senate yesterday. The vote was 31 to 0.

The commission, all that is left of the much-debated Golden Gate Authority proposed by Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, would be a seven-man board appointed by the governor and including the director of public works.

Also provided for is a 14-man advisory council representing the cities and counties of the Bay Area and the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

COMMISSION'S PURPOSE

Purpose of the advisory commission is to involve the governmental agencies in the study and to "come out with a solution which can generally be supported by everyone," McCarthy said.

Funds for operation of the commission will be inserted in the state budget, McCarthy indicated. He estimated $250,000 would be needed for the project.

Only senator besides McCarthy to take the floor to discuss the proposal was Sen. Randolph Collier (R-Yreka). He opposed organization of an authority.

"The idea has now been resolved into a study and the people of the area will have an opportunity of becoming thoroughly informed of the proposal," Collier said. "I hope that in two years they will have a bill on which we can all agree."

GOVERNOR'S LETTER

McCarthy had a letter from Gov. Edmund G. Brown which permitted consideration of the project before passage of the budget even though expenditures were necessary.

The Marin senator hailed the Senate's action as "a position of progress which will allow the people of the nine counties to fully understand the purposes of an authority type operation. It will also allow the airport and seaport operators more time to consider the advantages of operating for unity of the entire Bay Area in the transportation field."

The bill now goes to the Assembly.

Appointive School Supt. Plan Rejected

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—The state Senate yesterday defeated a measure (SCA 25) which would have permitted a county superintendent of schools to be appointed, rather than elected.

Proponents of the constitutional amendment said it would prevent deadlocked situations where the elected county board of education and the elected schools superintendent take opposite positions. They said the education board should establish policy and the superintendent act as its administrative officer. Therefore the board should have a say in his appointment.

Opponents prevailed by declaring such a system would "eliminate one more elective officer."

SAILORS GIVE BLOOD FOR HER

Susan Giardina, 12-year-old New York City girl who suffers from anemia and must have frequent blood transfusions to stay alive, poses with sailor's hat at her home. The 200 crewmen of the aircraft carrier Lake Champlain were donating blood en masse today when the vessel arrived in Norfolk, Va. Susan needs transfusions of blood every six weeks to live, and already has had more than 200. Norfolk Red Cross blood center received a request last week for donations and when Lake Champlain crew members heard of it they immediately volunteered.

Excess Costs Of AF Planes Disclosed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Comptroller General Joseph Campbell told Congress today his auditors have unearthed $30,800,000 in "excessive costs" used in fixing prices of Air Force planes.

Campbell, financial "watchdog" for Congress, said most cases of "unreasonably high" prices on contracts and subcontracts stemmed from faulty procedures by the Air Force and its contractors.

He said the Air Force has acted to improve these procedures but he called for more action to "further strengthen" controls over pricing of contracts, as well as subcontracts.

Campbell's report summarized the findings of 14 studies by his auditors of contracts and subcontracts for planes, which have been submitted to Congress during the past 12 months. It was prepared by his staff for presentation to a House armed services subcommittee.

He said that some of the 14 cases showed that estimated costs used in fixing prices were excessive by about 17 million dollars.

In other cases, Campbell said, prices were negotiated without enough consideration of cost information which was available. He said that in these cases the selling prices totaled $58,700,000, about $13,800,000, or 30 per cent, above costs.

Divinity School To Graduate Church Assistant

Murray Trelease, assistant to Rev. Joseph S. Doron of Christ Church, Sausalito, will be graduated tomorrow from Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley.

He will be ordained at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Wilmington, Del., where his brother, Rev. Richard Trelease, is rector. After attending a 10-day conference in Greenwich, Conn., Trelease will visit his home in Kansas City.

His first assignment will be at Fort Yukon, Alaska, where he will do missionary work in Yukon Valley villages reached by airplane. Being a "circuit flier" should prove no novelty since Trelease was a Navy flier for four years.

A cassock and cincture belt was presented to Trelease on Sunday by St. Brigid's Guild of the Sausalito Episcopal church where he has served as assistant for two years.

Meeting Postponed

Confusion over the meeting date of the Bolinas Public Utility District Board by two newly elected members caused postponements of this week's meeting until next Monday.

GREAT THING, THIS MODERN PSYCHIATRY

LONDON (UPI)—Terry Tamplin's father said a psychiatrist advised him to let his 26-year-old son "do as he pleases."

The younger Tamplin was put on probation yesterday for possession of burglary tools and attempted breaking and entering.

"A wonderful piece of psychiatric advise," Judge H. J. Hamblen told his father.

House Must Decide On Missile Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House confused by conflicting claims must decide today where to throw its support in the Pentagon's battle for missile money.

Nearing a showdown vote on a $38,843,339,000 defense appropriation bill for 1960, it faced a choice between the Army and the Air Force in the current row over which service has the better air defense missile.

If the House follows the recommendations of its Appropriations Committee, it will sustain a deep cut in Bomarc missile funds and a substantial hike in Nike-Zeus money.

The Bomarc is the Air Force antiaircraft missile whose effectiveness and availability have been the subject of debate both in and out of Congress. The Nike-Zeus is an Army missile designed to seek out and destroy enemy missiles.

The committee cut $162,700,000 from the Bomarc program and shifted some of the extra money to the Nike-Zeus project. Some committee members contend the committee went too far, others say it didn't go far enough.

Rep. William E. Minshall (R-Ohio) has offered an amendment to cut out all the 200 million dollars remaining for Bomarc production but to allow $84,600,000 for continued tests and evaluation.

Club To Hear Tape On GI Prisoners

A tape recording concerning Americans who were prisoners during the Korean War will be heard at the meeting of Toastmasters Club 890 Monday at 7:15 p.m. at the Woodlands Restaurant in Kentfield.

Eric Lane, president, said that the tape, prepared by an Army psychiatrist, deals with the weaknesses of American soldiers held prisoner by the Red Chinese. It is presented through the courtesy of Sanford McLaughlin, district plant manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

COOL THINKING MOVES STORE; COMIC STRIP WAS INSPIRATON

SANTA MARIA (AP)—Cool thinking by contractors Duane Carter and Leslie Leach helped them move a large feed store.

They needed 20 jacks to support the structure while they removed large beams from the underside before dropping the store on a new foundation. They didn't have enough jacks.

So they bought 14 100-pound chunks of ice, put the ice on the concrete slab foundation, lowered the structure on the ice and removed the beams. The ice melted yesterday and the structure settled precisely in place.

Where did they get the idea for the ice? Carter explained: "My wife told me she saw it done in an old comic strip."

JOSEPH F. PEARCE
The robbery was a hoax

Bank Teller Accused Of Faking Holdup

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Joseph F. Pearce faced a charge today of faking a holdup at a bank where he worked as a teller and opening an account with half the loot reported missing.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents said Pearce, 25, admitted the holdup he reported March 31 was a hoax, but he denied he had taken the $2,050 missing from his cage.

Pearce was fired from the job he held for two years and arraigned yesterday on a federal complaint charging him with filing false information and withholding material facts from the FBI.

A spokesman for the U. S. attorney's office said agents worked for weeks on the assumption Pearce had been robbed of 20 hundred-dollar bills by a well-dressed man in his late 40s. However, they became suspicious when none of the 25 persons in the bank at the time of the alleged holdup remembered seeing a man fitting the description given by the teller.

When it was found that Pearce had quietly opened an account depositing $1,000, agents questioned his story.

At his arraignment, Pearce steadfastly denied taking the money. He said he had been saving money in a fruit jar at home and decided to put it into the bank.

Courthouse Evacuated In Test Drill

Employees of the Marin County courthouse got a compulsory "coffee break" yesterday afternoon when a mock air raid evacuation sent them streaming outside in orderly fashion.

County Fire Chief Charles Reilley, who supervised the "disaster" evacuation, announced everything went as planned with no hitch as far as he can see.

The only departments that conducted business as usual during the alarm were the courts. Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos had his men go through the motions of evacuation, but did not evacuate the prisoners from jail.

This was the first test drill of the buzzer alarm system installed in the courthouse about three months ago. Department heads had been notified that a test evacuation would be held yesterday, but the exact time was not known.

At 2 p.m., Lenore Montague and Viola Terzia, telephone switchboard operators, pushed the panic button that set off the alarm. Part of the courthouse occupants poured out to the west parking lot, and the others went to Macy's parking area during the 10-minute drill.

Pigeon Wins Race At 45 M.P.H.

A pigeon entered by John Tognetti of San Rafael won the Memorial Day 500-mile pigeon race from Kent, Ore., to Marin Saturday, averaging over 43 miles per hour. Another Tognetti pigeon placed third.

Next race sponsored by the Tamalpais Homing Pigeon Club will be flown Sunday from Klamath Fall, Ore., a distance of about 300 air miles.

Kindergarteners May Register

Sausalito children of kindergarten or first grade age who have not previously registered in Sausalito schools may now do so, according to Supt. Marcus F. Davis.

Final date for registration is June 19, he said.

Registration may be made at Central or Marin City Schools from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 2:30 p.m. on weekdays, Davis said.

State Smog Board Proposal Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to establish a state air pollution board was approved by the Assembly Government Organization Committee yesterday.

Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles) said the board would act as a collecting agency for all available information regarding air pollution and would assist local agencies with smog problems.

The board also would coordinate air pollution control research activities of various state agencies and would cooperate with the Department of Public Health regarding standards to be established by the department director.

Councilman, Wife Have Second Son

A potential future Sausalito city councilman was announced at the city council meeting last night.

Mayor Howard Sievers explained the absence of Councilman John E .Koenig Jr. by noting the arrival of a new son for the Koenigs Sunday night.

The new arrival, James Howard, is the second son for Councilman Koenig and his wife, Patricia. The baby's brother is Mark Reese, 2.

The baby's maternal grandmother is Mrs. Carl Finn, acting Sausalito postmaster.

Conflict Of Interest Measure Rejected

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill prohibiting certain conflict of interest activities by legislators and their employees was refused passage yesterday by an Assembly committee.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman Frank Lanterman (R-La Canada), was sent to an interim committee for a two-year study.

HOW MARIJUANA LOOKS — If you recognize "weeds" that look like these, the sheriff and the district attorney would appreciate a call to either office. Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Dist. Atty. W. O. The mounted specimens, owned by the district attorney, are pictured along with a sheriff's badge to show the relative size of the full grown plants. South Marin Firemen Rush To Rescue 2

Southern Marin firemen went to the rescue yesterday of a boy marooned on the side of a cliff and a fisherman who fell into the bay.

Six-year-old Kenny Badger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford K. Badger of 626 Northern avenue, Tamalpais Valley, tried to climb a cliff at 347 Marin avenue. Part way up, he found he could go neither up nor down.

Tam Valley Fire Chief Herbert (Bud) Owen and Asst. Chief Herman Koolhoven responded to a call at 2:45 p.m. They lowered a rope from above and returned Kenny safely to level ground.

A short time later, Tiburon Fire Chief Jack Ishmael was called to the railroad ferry slip where a fisherman had fallen into the bay. Just as Ishmael arrived with resuscitator and rescue equipment, fisherman Walter Watson of San Francisco emerged from the chilly waters, where he had been clinging to a piling for half an hour.

Watson disappeared in a hurry when Ishmael pointed out that he had been fishing from property closed to fishing.

that the raises were completely out of proportion to proposed 5 per cent increases for state employees and possibly no increase at all for old-age pensioners. They also said that with emphasis on economy, this is no time to grant such increases.

After heavy debate, the vote stood 20 to 16 for passage, with 21 votes needed. Final decision was held up while two absent senators were located and brought into the Senate chambers. Both voted for the bill, giving it 22 votes and passage. It must now be considered by the Assembly, where it faces rough going.

Vendor Jailed As Suspect In Morals Case

San Francisco vegetable vendor John Garvin Hicks, 62, who has a record of morals crimes, was jailed yesterday on suspicion of molesting two 10-year-old girls in his produce bus in Marinwood on May 19.

Hicks was in Marin County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bail. He denies the charges. Inspector Bowen Bridges of the sheriff's office took Hicks to San Francisco this morning for a lie detector test. The results were not known immediately.

Hicks is also accused of perjury when he applied for the vending permit in Marin last Feb. 16. The complaint alleges he denied he had been convicted before when he got the permit. Police records show he is an ex-convict with two prior convictions.

A native of Dickinson, N.D., Veigel had been in military service for 26 years. He was scheduled to leave next month for assignment at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii.

Before coming to Hamilton in July, 1957, he was commander of the 1360th Air Force Hospital at Orlando Air Force Base, Fla.

Colonel Veigel received his medical degree from Northwestern University. He also held a degree in hospital administration from the same university.

During World War II, he served in the European theater. He was holder of the Bronze Star and the Army Commendation Ribbon with oak leaf cluster.

Kayo Court Appearance Rescheduled

Terence (Kayo) Hallinan, 22, of Ross did not appear in court yesterday on a felonious assault charge because his attorney could not be present.

But Hallinan said he would appear this afternoon before Judge Richard M. Sims with San Francisco lawyer Richard Werthimer for arraignment. Kayo, a pre-legal student and light heavyweight boxing champion at University of California, is accused of breaking the jaw of James W. Thalhamer Jr., 18, of Fairfax.

Thalhamer said he and friends were at the Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley Friday night when Hallinan hit him without provocation.

SILENCE ADVISED

Kayo at his Ross home this morning, indicated he would like to tell his side of the story but had been advised by his attorney not to discuss the case until the court appearance.

Angered parents of several youths descended on the district attorney this week for action to halt gang beatings which have allegedly occurred since May 22 at the bowling alley and Marin Catholic High School grounds.

Police Chief Howard Clark of Larkspur and Inspector Donald E. Midyett of the sheriff's office said they are having difficulty investigating the other incidents because victims are reluctant to talk.

SINGLE COMPLAINT

The only complaint filed thus far is against Kayo. Police have information that his brother, Mathew (Dynamite), hit 16-year-old Robert Whelan of San Anselmo on May 23 at Marin Catholic High. This case is still under investigation.

Kayo is the second son of Ross attorney and the Independent Progressive Party's former presidential candidate Vincent Hallinan. Patrick (Butch) 24, and Michael (Tuffy) 20, are touring Europe with their parents.

Butch was middleweight boxing champion at U.C. until his graduation this year. He plans to attend Hastings Law School in September. Kayo, also in pre-law, is in the midst of final examinations. Tuffy is a sophomore at U.C. where he is the light middleweight boxing champion.

Novato's Ernest Vogel Suffers Heart Attack

Ernest R. Vogel, "mayor of Novato," was in fair condition today at San Rafael General Hospital, where he was taken after a heart attack Monday.

Vogel, 78, collapsed in front of his "fix-it" shop on Grant avenue in Novato.

spoke "as a taxpayer of Corte Madera."

He cited overloading of Corte Madera sewers and asked directors to consider the annexation's impact on the town, "from whence cometh a lot of opposition."

BOND DEFEATS

Long also noted that directors have failed to negotiate a contract with Ross Valley Sanitary District on expansion of its Greenbrae plant, which serves Corte Madera. He pointedly reminded the board of two recent defeats of bond proposals for construction of a Corte Madera treatment plant.

Rippe objected to Long's presentation, only to have shouts of "Courtesy!" hurled at him from the audience.

Long charged the sanitary board would be guilty "of misconduct if you do not do something about the recommendation of your engineers (Brown and Caldwell of San Francisco) to negotiate with District 1 (Ross Valley)."

The board, said Snyder, "will have an agreement of some kind (with Ross Valley) before sewage starts flowing in our direction" from Paradise Cay.

IRKED BY CRITICISM

Pounding his fist on the table, the chairman, obviously rankled by the critical attack, told Long: "If you want to get your bunch together and recall us individually or collectively, that's okay with me! We have given this our honest and conscientious attention. We are trying to run a good, efficient sanitary district on a shoestring. . . .

"If anyone can do better . . . with some cockeyed money-saving scheme, let 'em come and do it!"

Retorted Long: "You should try and solve our own problems before going out and trying to play philanthropist for someone else (Paradise Cay)."

Tim Moseley, spokesman for the Paradise Cay developers, said it is more feasible to annex to the Corte Madera district than to Richardson Bay because of the distances involved in pumping sewage from the waterfront development. To join Corte Madera's system, he said, would require 50 feet of pumping, as opposed to 135 feet to join Richardson Bay's system.

'VICIOUS GROUPS'

John Adlard, chairman of the Corte Madera Planning Commission, blasted what he described as criticism of "vicious minority groups."

"The fact that this will broaden the tax base of sanitary District 2 is important . . . and I think it would be highly improper for this board not to take advantage of that opportunity," Adlard said.

He said he personally is willing to meet with Long and other critics "in public" because "I have quite a few things to say about the night riders of Corte Madera."

"Mr. Chairman," said Long, "I'd like to take him up on that."

At the end of the four-hour meeting, the board set for next Monday at 7:30 p.m. an adjourned meeting to discuss, in Snyder's words, "what we might or might not do about re-negotiating an agreement" with the Ross Valley district.

Larkspur May Seek New School Bond Vote

Larkspur School District voters may be asked again next fall to approve a bond issue to qualify the district for state aid toward purchase of a 10-acre school site in Mariner's Cove subdivision.

This was indicated last night by Jack L. Mengel, chairman of the district board, in a conversation with James M. Smith, partner in the San Francisco contracting firm of Eaton and Smith. The firm is building streets and other improvements in Mariner's Cove.

A special meeting of the school board, requested by Smith, was canceled last night because of lack of a quorum. But Mengel assured Smith the board still is interested in acquiring the Mariner's Cove site for a fourth elementary school.

District voters last month rejected by 63 votes a $267,000 bond issue sought in connection with the proposed new school. The Mariner's Cove property, east of Highway 101, is designated for a future school site in the Corte Madera general plan.

Water Facilities May Cost Builders More

Future builders in certain sections of Sausalito may face additional costs for installation of water supply facilities, the city council was told last night.

The areas listed are south of Marion avenue, east of Hecht avenue, between Spring and Rodeo streets, between Spring street and Toyon lane, and between Spencer avenue and Santa Rosa avenue.

Several months ago, Fire Chief Mathew J. (Matts) Perry called the council's attention to dangers in these areas because of the age of the water facilities and increase in population.

Asked to study the problem, the planning commission last night recommended to the council that an ordinance be enacted requiring adequate water mains must be provided before any further development would be permitted in the areas.

City Atty. John B. Ehlen was instructed to determine to what extent the matter is covered by building codes.

With Councilmen John E. Koenig Jr., and George E. Keeney absent, the Sausalito council also:

1. Passed a resolution setting up a uniform purchasing plan.
2. Adopted an ordinance empowering police to impound any vehicles parked more than five days on city streets.
3. Set June 11 and 17 as dates for public hearings on the proposed 1959-60 budget.
4. Received a letter signed by 20 residents in the area of the Third street playground protesting a recommendation of the recreation commission that it be closed because of lack of use. The matter was referred back to the recreation commission for further study.
5. Instructed Ehlen to make a formal protest to the county on a demand for $359.86 in taxes for the Christ Church playground, owned by the church but rented to the city for a public playground.
6. Approved payment of warrants totaling $20,459.11.
7. Instructed Ehlen to make a recommendation on the city's status in connection with demands from the county for taxes on land recently purchased for parking areas and firehouse expansion.
8. Postponed action on a contract covering installation of parking facilities on city-owned property.
9. Adopted in principle a recommendation by the League of California Cities which opposes formation of a "super agency" for area-wide problems.
10. Reappointed Willard A. Hall to the recreation commission but postponed action on filling the post of Robert C. LaFontaine.

Councilman Long Confirms He Won't Run Again

Town Councilman Walter S. Long of Corte Madera last night confirmed a report that he will not seek re-election next April.

Mayor Roger F. Morse disclosed at Monday's council meeting that he will not be a candidate next year and indicated Long, who was absent, also planned to retire from the council.

"That's right," Long told the Independent-Journal last night. He gave as his reason "the pressure of other business." He is an insurance broker.

Long, a former mayor, is serving the final year of his first four-year council term.

Restaurant Owner In Serious Condition

Eugene B. Grilli, 43, was reported in serious condition today at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken Sunday after he suffered a severe heart attack.

Grilli, who lives at 316 Chapman drive in Corte Madera, is owner of the Golden Creme Do-Nut Shop on B street in San Rafael.

Redwood Empire Assn. Board Meets Saturday

Plans aimed at stimulating even more tourist travel through the Redwood Empire of northwest California and southwest Oregon will be discussed Saturday when the executive board of the Redwood Empire Assn. meets at Ukiah.

Don Emerson, Redwood Empire Assn. president, said many important matters will be up for discussion at the meeting of the executive board. These include steps to be taken to assure additional publicity and advertising financing to meet the mounting competition in the national tourist markets.

Novato Trustees Start Cutting Budget Down

Trustees of the Novato Unified School District last night took a preliminary look at at a proposed budget of $1,654,188, trimmed it by $8,000, and indicated more cuts will be made.

Supt. William J. J. Smith, and Eugene DeBrecht, business manager, reported another $16,000 can still be lopped off without omitting anything but "low priority" items.

Most of the cuts last night resulted in elimination of instructional supplies.

Trustees will meet again next Tuesday in regular session to continue study on the budget. Only three of the 10 sections in the proposed budget were reviewed last night.

Also held over until next Tuesday's meeting was any decision on salary raises for administrators.

Supt. Smith, in a memorandum to the board, suggested general increases for elementary school principals and vice principals, the instructional coordinator and guidance consultant. The proposed salaries would range from $7,105 to $10,360. The present range is from $6,300 to $9,000.

Trustees agreed, however, that the high school principal should be included in any such salary schedule.

The board decided to request that the proposed purchase of the 10-acre Connell site off South Novato boulevard be put back on the agenda of the Marin County Planning Commission, as soon as possible. The planners have opposed district purchase of the site in view of county plans to extend Hill avenue through the property.

Mrs. Lilly is a 15-year resident of Marin and with her husband operated the Novato Garden and Pet Shop from 1950 to 1957. She has recently been employed by the Accent florist shop in Kentfield.

George C. Andrews of 160 Summit avenue, Mill Valley, has been elected vice president of the Northern California Chapter of the National Industrial Advertisers Assn. Clifford Badger of 626 Northern avenue, Mill Valley, was outgoing secretary-treasurer.

Four Convicts Saw Way Out Of Prison

FORT MADISON, Iowa (AP)—Four long-term prisoners held a guard and a cellblock captain at knifepoint and sawed their way out of the Iowa State Penitentiary early today.

The four, one serving a life term for killing a policeman, sawed two bars from a window located in an outside cell of the prison after having sawed their way from their individual cells.

Warden John Bennett identified the four as Lloyd Woodson, 38, Quincy, Ill.; Albert M. Boerger, 26, Kansas City, Mo.; Elon Girdler, 23, Peoria, Ill., and Robert Janes, 24, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Pilot Halfway In Record Attempt

NEW YORK (AP)—Max Conrad flew over Trinidad, British West Indies, at 8:48 a.m. today on a flight from Casablanca, Morocco, to El Paso, Tex., or beyond in a try for a light plane distance record.

Passing Trinidad put the San Franciscan more than halfway to his goal. He had covered 3,739 miles, with 3,220 more to go to El Paso.

Completion of the 6,959 mile solo flight would crack the record of 6,856 miles set by M. L. Boling on a flight from Manila to Oregon last year.

6 Major Events Set For Kiwanis Rodeo

Six major rodeo events will be presented at the Kiwanis Club Rodeo at the Circle V ranch in Fairfax Saturday at 1 p.m.

The events which will see cowboys competing for points for the 1959 championships include saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, Brahma bull riding, calf roping, team roping and bulldogging.

Championship points are won by cowboys in each of 30 or more rodeos held throughout Northern California during the year.

The individual events are scored in this manner: In the saddle bronc, bareback and bull riding events, each rider is scored between one and 20 points for the manner in which he rides, and the animal is scored between 65 and 85 points for the manner in which it bucks. Two judges score each ride, and the rider with the highest total is declared the winner.

The roping and bulldogging events are held against time. The animals are released from a chute, and time is started when they have crossed the starting line, usually 10 to 12 feet in front of the chutes.

The roper or dogger starts from behind a barrier after the animal has crossed the deadline and time is stopped when the animal is roped or thrown. The fastest elapsed times determines the winner.

Crash-Hurt Boy Still Unconscious

Scott Fortner, 9-year-old Marshall boy, was still unconscious today at Hillcrest Hospital in Petaluma where he was taken after a motorcycle accident Monday night.

The boy suffered a skull fracture, a broken leg, and internal injuries. Hospital attendants reported he was "holding his own."

Danny Douglas Wyatt, the boy's uncle and driver of the motorcycle when it collided with a truck on the Marshall-Petaluma road, was still hospitalized with a fractured leg and cuts and bruises.

Young Fortner was thrown into a ditch in the head-on collision. Troy Fortner, the boy's father, was on his way to Marshall to make a telephone call, when he came upon the scene of the crash.

Fred Bruhn, driver of the truck, was not injured, according to the California Highway Patrol.

More Invaders Reported Bound For Nicaragua

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — President Luis Somoza marshaled his forces today to meet three boatloads of invaders reported en route from Cuba to join in Latin America's latest vestpocket revolt.

Somoza ordered his ambassador in Washington, Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa, to ask the Organization of American States for an investigation of the threat to his regime, one of Latin America's last three dictatorships.

LEAVE FROM CUBA

The Foreign Ministry said last night it had learned that three schooners carrying revolutionaries and arms set out from Cuba for Nicaragua to support 75 or more rebels who landed by plane from Costa Rica over the weekend. The government claimed it had that group on the run.

Cuban Prime Ministed Fidel Castro, asked in Havana about the report of invasion from his country, said he was too busy to answer "baseless charges."

DENIES AID

Once a fiery advocate of aid to rebels against dictatorship, Castro has been denying he is aiding such movements since a Cuban-based invasion of Panama backfired in April while the Cuban leader was trying to make friends in the United States.

Managua is calm, but troops on guard everywhere lend a tense atmosphere to the capital.

The government claims the situation is under control. Unconfirmed rumors circulated, however, of clashes in the provinces with the rebels who flew in from Costa Rica Sunday and Monday.

PLANE DESTROYED

The government announced destruction of one of the rebel planes and capture of arms and ammunition but denied the reports of clashes. There has been no announcement of casualties.

The government put on display 15 rifles, a machine gun and about 4,000 rounds of ammunition it said had been captured near the destroyed plane.

Nicaraguan exiles in San Jose, Costa Rica, claimed four rebel groups had seized impregnable mountain positions between Santo Tomas, east of Lake Nicaragua, and Mu Muy, about 85 air miles northeast of the capital.

FIGURES DIFFER

The government estimated the initial striking force at about 75; a rebel radio broadcast said it totaled 421.

Nicaraguan exile sources in San Jose reported all the invasion leaders had landed successfully by air and were directing operations. Among them was listed Pedro Joaquin Chamorro, managing editor of the Managua newspaper La Prensa.

Latin To Stay As A 'Must' At Oxford

OXFORD, England (AP)—The dons of Oxford University changed their minds last night about burying Latin as a dead language.

By 301 votes to 282, they decided students must have a basic knowledge of Latin to enroll at the university.

The senior members of the teaching faculty reversed their decision a month ago to make knowledge of Caesar's language an optional entrance requirement, as Greek, German and Russian are.

The dons—senior members of the teaching faculty—packed into Oxford's 17th Century Sheldonian Theater for the debate. A woman fellow of St. Hilda's College, Helen Gardner, probably won the day for Latin.

"The decline of Latin schools here, and its virtual disappearance in America, is one cause of a growing incompetence in the writing of English," she said.

She urged that Oxford wait and see what happens at Cambridge, which voted out Latin two weeks ago.

Latin will continue to be compulsory, at least until a committee considering the whole matter of entrance requirements reports. That probably will not be until next year.

Drunk Driver Gets Jail Term, $250 Fine

Elmer Otis Deal, 39, of 45 Plymouth avenue, Mill Valley, drew five days in county jail and a $250 fine for his second drunken driving offense this year.

He was sentenced Monday by Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court. Deal was arrested by Mill Valley police at Lagoma and Sycamore avenues last May 25. He had a prior conviction in February.

'FOR PROTECTION'

Texas Judge Commits Louisiana Governor

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A judge committed ailing Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana to a hospital yesterday "for his protection and that of others." He acted at the request of Mrs. Long.

Mrs. Long's petition said the governor "is exhausted, overworked and ill both mentally and physically" and requires observation and treatment in a mental hospital for 90 days.

Dr. Arthur Long of Baton Rouge, La., a cousin, also signed the petition filed with Probate Court Judge Hugh Gibson.

Dr. Titus Harris, chief psychiatrist at John Sealy Hospital, where Long, 65, has been a patient since Saturday, told the judge the governor is mentally ill and likely to cause injury to himself and others.

Long came here after a tantrum on the floor of the Louisiana Legislature last week.

Physicians said he entered the hospital voluntarily but has refused to answer psychiatrists' questions.

Texas law permits a doctor to hold a patient 96 hours after the patient demands release.

Judge Gibson's order will be in effect until a formal hearing to determine if Long is mentally ill and if he should be hospitalized.

The law permits Long to attend the hearing with his own attorneys and ask for a jury trial.

Deputy Sheriff Garland Leslie, who served the custody papers, said Long mistook him for a Texas Ranger.

He quoted him: "Well, I'll be damned. Here is a Texas Ranger. At least I know the law is on my side. Sit down and let me talk to you, Ranger."

A warm air heating, ventilating and air-conditioning contractor's license wil be issued to James I. Meinzer of J. M. Heating, 105 Hawthorne way.

A general building contractor's license will be issued to Donald C. Myers, 341 N. San Pedro road.

55,000 New Cases Of Cancer In 1960 Predicted

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A state Public Health Department analyst today predicted 55,000 new cancer cases will turn up in California next year.

The estimate came from the state's Central Tumor Registry, a fact-gathering agency run by George Linden.

He told a Western Branch, American Public Health Assn., meeting that 18,000 of these will be reported in 1960 to the 38 private and general hospitals which send detailed cancer information to the registry at the department's Berkeley headquarters.

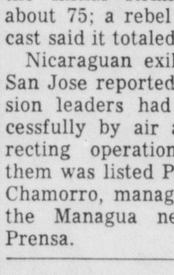
Those 38 include one-third of the general hospitals with more than 50 beds in the state. That one-third has been used frequently for checking and projecting other data on cancer and has consistently proved accurate, he said.

Real Estate Views And Values

We had nearly completed a listing on Al's house. "How much are you asking for your house?" I asked.

"Let's start the price plenty high," Al answered. "We can always come down if it doesn't sell."

"Al, I've heard that remark a thousand times in this business. But I want you to know that it often doesn't work out that way."



Arthur Hoffman

"What do you mean?" Al inquired.

"Owners usually assume that a buyer will inspect the property and make an offer even though the asking price is out of line.

"Often the reverse is true. The buyer won't even get out of the car to look at it. Instead, he'll probably say, " 'That fellow doesnt want to sell. Drive on'."

"On the other hand, if your price is fair to start with, he'll be interested in sizing it up for his needs. The average buyer will pay a fair price without a lot of useless haggling."

"That sounds reasonable," Al said. "Let's set a fair price right from the first."

GORILLAS CAN'T DRIVE CARS IN THIS TOWN

DUARTE (AP)—Making like a gorilla is scowled on hereabouts, as Charles Larocca found out.

Sheriff's deputies stopped him in his late model convertible sports car yesterday. They said other motorists were veering off the road in astonishment when they saw Larocca, 33, driving in a black gorilla costume.

He's making a movie called "Dark Africa." He decided to drive into town from location without changing clothes.

He was cited for wearing a disguise without a permit.

The picnic, to which all parents and friends of the school are invited, will start at noon, Dougan said, and will include a barbecue and games.

Air Force Academy Graduates 1st Cadets

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI)—Two-thirds of the first class ever to study and train at the new U. S. Air Force Academy received diplomas today.

Four years of intensive training and study ended for 207 young men who were part of the 306-man class that entered the interim academy at Lowry Air Base in Denver on July 11, 1955. The academy was moved to this still incomplete 17,900-acre campus in the foothills north of Colorado Springs last summer.

Thus, the first-classmen were able to finish their training at the oft-criticized glass and aluminum complex, which has cost 138 million dollars so far. Yet to be built are an air strip, chapel, hospital, stadium and golf course.

At West Point, 494 cadets received their diplomas today.

At Annapolis, 797 midshipmen were graduated.

Only two of the 207 Air Force graduates did not receive commissions as second lieutenants in the Air Force today. One cadet—R. E. Lowe of Auburn, Mass.—chose a career in the Marines. Another returned to civilian life, physically unfit for military duty.

Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas delivered the commencement address and passed out the bachelor of science degrees to each cadet.

Jetties Going In At Halfmoon Bay

HALF MOON BAY (AP)—Work began here Monday on construction of two breakwaters to provide shelter for an estimated 1,000 fishing boats and other small craft.

The federal government will spend four and one-half million dollars on building the jetties. Private interests are expected to spend an additional $500,000 on erecting berthing facilities.

The new harbor will be finished in September, 1960, or 1961, depending on how fast Congress appropriates the money.

Housing For Aged Meets Obstacle

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation to help California's elderly folks obtain low-cost housing appeared doomed today for at least two years.

The Senate Finance Committee last night sent two measures which would have provided state loans for housing projects for elderly persons to a two-year interim study.

The action came at the request of the author, Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno).

"There are a lot of kinks that still have to be worked out," Burns said.

He added he would make a similar motion when Assembly bills for the same purpose reached the Senate.

BEGINNING OF ANNE FRANK VILLAGE

Rev. Dominique Pire, Belgian priest who was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize this year, performed symbolic brick-laying Sunday to start work on "Anne Frank Village," a community for displaced Europeans near Wuppertal, West Germany. Present for the ceremony was Otto Frank (left), father of the Jewish girl who died in a Nazi concentration camp after writing the diary which became a best-seller in its postwar publication, and which has since been used as the basis for a play and a movie. School Trustee Speaker Cites Value Of Math

There is a need to stress the importance of arithmetic in school instruction, particularly basic arithmetic.

This was the message of Dr. Dan T. Dawson, executive secretary of the California Elementary Administrators Assn., at the annual institute of Marin County school trustees and the annual meeting of the Marin County School Boards Assn. last week at Ignacio.

At the same time, Dawson warned against too much emphasis on any specialty. He illustrated this point by pointing out the danger of too much concentration on science.

STRESSES MATH

He said he would not want to diminish the teaching of science, but would not want it to dominate the school program at the expense of social studies and languages. Dawson said that to have a quality instruction program there should be emphasis in all areas. And he stressed arithmetic.

He added it is also important to stress counseling in order to direct a student's studies into a field where he has more capabilities. Dawson said the school should provide more stimulating courses to spur the students' self-motivation.

Other speakers were Carl H. Wennerberg, superintendent of Berkeley City Unified Schools, on board relationships; James R. Tormey, superintendent of San Mateo County Schools, on new experiences for trustees, and Dr. Wallace W. Hall, associate state superintendent of public instruction, on legislation and the schools.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Erwin Farley of the Reed School District board was elected vice president of the Marin County School Boards Assn.

Others elected were Robert W. Corlett, San Anselmo, vice president; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, College of Marin, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Brown, Dixie, treasurer. They are also board members.

Also elected to the board, under the new constitution that provides for nine board members instead of four, were George E. Jennings, Novato; George D. Hart, Ross; Lyman B. McBride, county board; Mrs. Minnie Sievers, Sausalito, and Rex T. Silvernale, San Rafael. Silvernale was outgoing president.

Commissioner Can Also Be Fireman

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners decided last night, by 4-1 vote, that a volunteer fireman can also be a commissioner.

The issue had been twice tabled before coming to a showdown in a lengthy meeting last night which was punctuated by questions from a 12-member audience. It was raised when newly elected commissioner Fred C. Hannahs was placed on inactive status with the volunteer fire department by Chief Jack Ishmael, pending a ruling on whether he might serve in the dual roles of commissioner and fireman.

LONG DISCUSSION

The Volunteer Firemen's Assn. protested Ishmael's action in a letter which precipitated a long discussion last night.

Contended Commissioner Howard I. McGill: "A man cannot be an employer and employee simultaneously . . . It is not good government."

Retorted firemen Randolph Esplin Jr. and Charles W. Pruett: Volunteers are not employees.

McGill moved that a commissioner not be permitted to serve as an employee of the district. But his motion died for want of a second.

TWO ABSTAIN

Then Commissioner Paul C. Hantzsche moved that a commissioner be permitted to serve as a volunteer fireman. Hantzsche and Kelly J. Wheeler voted "aye"; McGill, "no." Commissioners Jon F. Stanton and Hannahs abstained.

After further discussion, Stanton and Hannahs voted "aye" to pass the motion by 4-1.

A request by Fred G. Zelinsky that he receive "public recognition" for his gift deed of the old firehouse building when the commission purchased the Tiburon boulevard land was tabled until the next meeting. On motion of McGill, commissioners decided to publicly reveal the three appraisal figures and the land purchase price at that meeting.

Zelinsky's request for recognition had been included in the original purchase contract but according to his letter had not been performed by the commissioners "in a satisfactory manner."

ANNEXATION PASSES

A resolution to annex the Paradise Cay subdivision at Ring Point into the fire district was passed unanimously. There were no protestants at the hearing.

Transit Tube Measure Gets Rapid Approval

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A proposal for the state to build an underwater tube from San Francisco to Oakland for rapid transit flashed through two committees of the state Senate yesterday.

Once ruled dead in the Senate Transportation Committee, the bill (SB 519) was revived yesterday morning by its author, Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy. It moved through that committee so fast McCarthy did not even get a chance to make a supporting statement he had prepared.

Last night it came before the Senate Finance Committee, and did nearly as well. McCarthy made several small amendments, answered a question or two, and the bill was voted out to the Senate floor with a "do pass" recommendation.

It now goes to the full Senate. Then it must be considered by the Assembly in the closing days of the session.

The tube is the key link in the proposal of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. If the state does not agree to build it, financing it out of tolls of the Bay Bridge, the district will have to increase its proposed bond issue to pay for it.

The bill provides that the Division of Bay Toll Crossings would construct the 115-million-dollar tube and its approaches and lease them to the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. The district would use part of fares on its proposed five-county transit system to repay the state for construction costs.

Tax Rate Cut Hoped For By NMWD Board

Directors of the North Marin Water District last night agreed to apply $20,000 from the district's general fund toward bond retirement payments next year, which would insure against any tax increase.

Directors expressed hope the present 37-cent tax rate might even drop by from one to three cents, depending on the district's assessed valuation.

The board accepted the low bid of $55,843 by the E. T. Haas Co. of Belmont for construction of a mile-long, 16-inch transmission main along Center road between Wilson and Tamalpais avenues. The bid was the lowest of seven submitted, which ranged to a high of $97,532 by the Peletz Construction Co. of Santa Rosa. The engineer's estimate had been $60,000.

The contract calls for the new line to be installed by Aug. 15. It is expected to increase the water transmission mainly to South Novato, but will benefit other areas as well, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager.

Kennels, Director's Home Being Built At Guide Dogs, Inc.

A $56,000 construction program, including a new three-bedroom, two-bath home for executive director William Johns, is under way at the Guide Dogs for the Blind center north of San Rafael.

Also included in the building program is addition of 36 kennels for guide dogs.

The residence is expected to be completed by mid-June. Ground is being leveled for the kennel addition. The contractor is R. Antonioli of San Rafael.

Measles, Strep Cases Continue

Measles and streptococcic infection continued to run 1-2 in new disease cases reported to the Marin County Health Department last week.

Influenza cases ordinarily are not reported to the department.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, today said 30 new cases of measles were reported last week. Fourteen were in San Rafael, eight in San Anselmo, four in Fairfax, two in Novato, and one each in Larkspur and a rural area.

Eighteen "strep" cases were reported — six in San Rafael, four in rural areas, three in Mill Valley, two in Larkspur and one each in Belvedere, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

X15's First Flight Meets With Delay

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The gliding flight of the X15 experimental rocket plane, scheduled today, has been postponed until tomorrow.

North American Aviation said the plane, with pilot Scott Crossfield at the controls, will be dropped over Edwards Air Force Base from a B52 at 38,000 feet tomorrow morning, if all equipment is functioning properly.

The X15, designed for altitudes of at least 100 miles and speeds to 4,000 miles an hour, has had four captive flights locked under the wing of a B52.

Larkspur Signs Up Kindergarteners

Larkspur School District has registered 164 children to start kindergarten next fall at three elementary schools.

The total is 19 fewer than the number who entered kindergarten last September, but Supt. Carl Tivel said he expects many more signups before the new school year begins.

So far, Tivel said, 73 youngsters have been registered for Neil Cummins School, 59 for Larkspur-Corte Madera School and 32 for the new Larkspur school, now under construction. Last fall, Neil Cummins started with 113 kindergarten pupils and Larkspur-Corte Madera with 70.

Man Accused Of Hitting Girl

Sheriff's deputies are looking for car washer Joseph Nettles, 24, of Building A-19, door 146, Marin City, for allegedly hitting a 16-year-old expectant mother Sunday night.

Mrs. Joy Yvonne Fuller of House 226, Marin City, said she accosted Nettles at the end of Richardson avenue to ask him to return some of her clothes which he has been holding since they stopped going together.

Nettles was with his wife at the time. Mrs. Fuller charges that Nettles twisted her arm and knocked her down at the urging of Mrs. Nettles.

Assessment Roll May Be Ready June 29

The 1959-60 county assessment roll may be ready for public inspection June 29, County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel told the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

"It will be on or about that date," he said.

That would put his office's opinion of property values on public view a week before the board is scheduled to start its hearings as a board of equalization. The first meeting is set for July 6.

Broemmel said the rolls will be turned over to County Clerk George S. Jones for purposes of getting them on display as required by law.

Purpose of displaying the rolls is to allow a property owner to draw up an application for adjustment if he thinks the assessment of his property is unjustified.

"There already have been two complaints," Jones told the board.

"I told them they couldn't complain yet because the roll has not been finished, but they said they knew what the assessment would be and they were complaining anyway."

The supervisors also:

1. Decided to send one among them to Sacramento to add emphasis to the board's plea of $98,500 in state funds to be used in ground fill work at the county fairgrounds site at Santa Venetia. No date was set.
2. Set 4 p.m. next Tuesday to hear a request from the City of San Anselmo for funds to improve a portion of Sir Francis Drake boulevard.
3. Received a request from the Redwood Empire Assn. supervisors unit for a $6,650 appropriation. A total of $4,000 has already been set up in the 1959-60 proposed budget.
4. Continued to 10 a.m., July 7, a hearing on the proposed annexation of Northbridge No. 1 and No. 2 to the Santa Venetia Lighting District, because petitioners have indicated they may change their minds.
5. Received a report from the county administrator that approximately $786 a year would be saved if the county established a central stores paper warehouse instead of using the present system of deliveries of paper to county departments by local retailers.
6. Appointed James W. Martin a typist clerk in the county clerk's offcie at $281 monthly, Philip H. Chapman a fire warden at $325, and Donald E. J. Giusti deputy sheriff at $376.
7. Promoted John Gibb from assistant tabulating supervisor in the data processing bureau to supervisor at $644 a month replacing Arleigh Sewell, who resigned and went to Alaska.
8. Accepted the bid of Brown-Ely Co. of $9,096, the lowest among five bids, for a plant-mix overlay on Muir Woods road from the entrance of Muir Woods National Monument to Panoramic highway.
9. Voted to meet at 9 a.m. next Monday on revisions to the county salary ordinance. Most revisions concern vacation times.
10. Passed a resolution making the fees for vaccination of dogs against rabies $1.75.
11. Approved a suggestion by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen that the county counsel prepare a lease for two years for two rooms in the Herzog Building for district attorney's office investigators, to cost $130 a month.

Hospital Board Canvasses Votes

Directors of Marin County Hospital District met briefly Monday night to canvass ballots cast in last Tuesday's election on exclusion of the Novato area from the district.

The board passed a resolution declaring 750 voters favored secession and 410 were opposed. The totals include three absentee ballots. There were 5,138 persons eligible to vote.

A resolution declaring the Novato area officially excluded from the hospital district is expected to be adopted at the board's next regular meeting, June 23 at 8 p.m.

Boundaries of the excluded area coincide with those of the 75-square-mile Novato Fire District.

Directors William H. Thomas and Marion C. Ibach were absent last night.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Berlin Honors Dulles

BERLIN (UPI)—The West Berlin city government yesterday approved a proposal that the "Zelten Allee" near the East-West Berlin border be renamed "Dulles Allee" in honor of the late U.S. Secretary of State.

Turnpikes Safer?

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Bridge, Tunnel and Turnpike Assn. said yesterday no Memorial Day weekend deaths were reported on 16 major turnpikes across the nation.

The turnpikes included Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Richmond-Petersburg, Texas, West Virginia, Garden State Parkway (N.J.) and Westchester County Parkways (N.Y.).

Hitler Records Banned

BONN, Germany (AP) — The West German government has banned the sale of records of Hitler's speeches.

The records, imported recently by a branch of a British firm, apparently were made for the American market.

FBI Gets Its Man

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo. (AP)—A cowboy on an isolated cattle ranch, arrested yesterday while he ate, has admitted his identity as one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men.

Richard Allen Hunt, 27, was sought on charges of kidnaping an Oregon policeman and wounding another last March.

"He seemed glad it was all over," Sheriff Eddie Todorovich said after he and Undersheriff David Schott surprised Hunt at a ranch 35 miles west of Thermopolis. "He said he'd be glad to get back to Oregon."

Todorovich said he and Schott were at the ranch and had recognized the fugitive from an FBI poster picture.

10 Killed In Ambush

MANILA (AP)—A band of armed men yesterday ambushed and killed 10 bus passengers traveling on a secluded road outside of Bongabon town, in central Mindoro province. The ambush apparently stemmed from trouble on a local estate.

Food From China Fatal

BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin's Berliner Zeitung said today 100 East Germans have died recently from dysentery caused by food imported from Red China. East Germany's Communist press has made no mention of the epidemic.

Commits Hara-Kiri

TOKYO (AP) — A Buddhist priest committed hara-kiri today in front of Prime Minister Nobosuke Kishi's official residence to protest against Japan's rearmament.

Big Ben 100 Years Old

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and other British leaders took part today in a ceremony marking the 100th anniversary of the great Westminister clock and its bell, Big Ben.

W. S. Morrison, speaker of the House of Commons, handed Hugh Molson, minister of works, a wooden replica of an inscription noting the centenary, which will be carved on the north face of the clock tower.

The clock actually went into operation on May 31, 1859, and Big Ben on July 11, 1859. In fixing the date of the centenary the minister of works arbitrarily picked the anniversary date as June 3.

Sorry—No Frog Tests

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Prospective mothers here can't be sure they're expecting until it warms up in Minnesota — or their heirs become apparent, St. Louis Maternity Hospital doctors said.

The supply of frogs for tests determining pregnancy has been cut off by an unseasonable northern cold snap.

Blind—And Likes It

WOONSOCKET, R.I. (AP) — Blind William E. Powers, an associate justice of the Rhode Island Supreme Court, says he wouldn't want his sight restored even if it were possible for medical science to do so.

He told an audience last night that he is happy and satisfied with life.

"I wouldn't want to learn over again the faces of my wife, children, grandchildren, neighbors and associates," said Judge Powers, who has been blind since 1927.

SINGER AILING — Singer Billie Holiday was reported in critical condition today at Metropolitan Hospital in New York City. The hospital refused to disclose the nature of the illness of the 49-year-old singer, who has been in trouble several times because of narcotics addiction. (AP Wirephoto)

Spanking Approved

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—A bill to give North Carolina school teachers the right to spank unruly pupils was passed by the House last night and sent to the Senate.

Texas Towns Flooding

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — High wind and heavy rains poured out of a thunderstorm line over West Texas early today, forcing families from their homes in Snyder and flooding stores in Lubbock.

An unidentified man was reported injured in Snyder when high winds blew a trailer over on him.

Fire Chief B. A. Porter said Snyder fire and police units and Civil Defense workers were evacuating families from low-lying areas in the West Texas oil city.

In Lubbock, at least a dozen downtown stores reportedly suffered damage from water that poured in after an estimated two inches of rain fell.

Family Stays Home

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Southern Methodist University Coliseum seats only 8,500, so Joe McElroy Jr. decided not to bring his whole family to graduation exercises yesterday.

His wife, Lillian, watched as the 34-year-old man from suburban Grand Prairie got his law degree.

McElroy said the rest of the family was absent because:

"We couldn't take three of the kids without taking five, and if we had taken five, the other two would have wanted to come. And seven children are too many, even for the Coliseum."

Negro Girl Wins Title

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — An 18-year-old Negro beauty will represent San Diego for the state title leading to this year's Miss Universe beauty pageant.

Janet Galloway (34-24-36) was chosen Sunday night over five white contestants. Miss Galloway is a freshman at San Diego State College.

Actress Asks Divorce

SANTA MONICA (UPI)—Swedish actress Gita Hall says her 10-month marriage to actor Barry Sullivan caused a severe shock to her nervous system.

The shock, Miss Hall charged in filing a divorce suit against Sullivan yesterday, came about from "grievous mental suffering" inflicted on her during their brief marriage.

The actress, Sullivan's second wife, declined alimony but said they had reached an out of court property settlement of undisclosed terms. Sullivan was previously married for 20 years to Mrs. Marie M. Sullivan who divorced him in 1957.

Author To Speak At Library

Lillian Pohlmann of Mill Valley, author of children's books, will speak at the Mill Valley Public Library Saturday at 10:30 a.m., according to Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, librarian.

"She will be glad to answer questions about her Myrtle Albertina books or about the delights and difficulties of writing books for children," Mrs. Thomas said.

The talk is being scheduled as a part of "Focus on Marin Writers" week, according to Mrs. Thomas.

HE WOULDN'T SALUTE—Army Recruit Lou A. Lennear, 20, of Oakland, wouldn't salute his superior officers because, he said, it conflicted with tenets of Jehovah's Witnesses, of which he is a member. His explanation failed to satisfy a court-martial yesterday at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex. Lennear was sentenced to a bad conduct discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances and confinement for one year.

Many Issues Figure In Strauss Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Political issues ranging from civil rights to public power appear likely to influence the Senate's decision on the Lewis L. Strauss nomination.

Although these issues have scarcely been mentioned in the bitter daily arguments over President Eisenhower's nominee for secretary of commerce, they are credited with a part in shifting the lineup of support and opposition to the appointment.

NEED DEMO VOTES

Republican backers believe they have a two or three-vote margin to confirm Strauss when the showdown comes, probably next week. But they must have the votes of about 17 Democrats, and they are having difficulty finding them.

Strauss' principal opponent, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) said that if Strauss is approved "he will have to get every doubtful vote and I don't think he can do it."

One of the factors hurting Strauss' chances is the political debt some Southern senators feel they owe Anderson.

SOFTENED BILL

He sponsored amendments which softened the tough civil rights bill the House passed in 1957, and some of the Southerners think they might need his help on civil rights legislation later this year.

With his expected Dixie support being chipped away, Strauss faces an almost solid wall of opposition from public power advocates among the Democrats of the West.

As chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, Strauss fought for private, rather than government, development of atomic power.

RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE

Rep. Steven B. Derounian (R-N.Y.), himself a Presbyterian, said in a statement yesterday "it is being impressed upon me constantly that the opposition to Acting Secretary Lewis L. Strauss, in reality, is based on religious prejudice. If that is true, it revolts me as an American citizen."

But Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said it was hokum and bunkum to suggest Strauss is being opposed because he is a Jew.

Morse himself is strongly opposing the nomination, but said Strauss should be judged on his record and his competency and not on his race or religion.

Bill Would Lift Ban Of Ferries

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Dreams for return of a San Francisco Bay ferryboat clouded yesterday.

The Senate Transportation Committee took under advisement a bill by Sen. John Thompson (R-San Jose) that would lift the ban on new ferry service.

It was instituted when the San Francisco - Oakland Bay Bridge was being built, to assure prospective financiers that there would be no competing service.

Since Southern Pacific discontinued its colorful ferries, none has sailed the bay.

Although the committee did not reject Thompson's bill, members indicated that lifting the ban might be unconstitutional.

WONDER WHY HE CHOSE THAT LINE OF WORK?

IPSWICH, England (UPI)—John Davies was fined $14 and barred from driving for one month yesterday on conviction of careless driving, his sixth traffic conviction.

"But for your job we would have disqualified you from driving for a long time," the judge told him.

Davies is a driving instructor.

State Crime Rate Drops This Year

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's crime rate dropped sharply in the first part of 1959, Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk said yesterday.

As compared with the first three months of 1958—a year in which the crime rate increased about 3 per cent — the rate in the opening quarter of 1959 took a pronounced fall, Mosk said in a statement.

From January through March of this year, Mosk said, statewide felony crime reports to the state's sample index were down about 10 per cent from last year. San Francisco headed the list with a more than 20 per cent drop.

Homicide and robbery showed the greatest rate decrease over the state—more than 20 per cent. The only offense showing an increase was assault, up 8 per cent.

Statewide arrest rates dropped 12 per cent, with San Francisco showing the only increase.

Mosk said crime is generally at its highest during the first three months of a year.

Belvedere Asks Land Company For Park Property

A plot of land known as the Belvedere Common and commonly thought of as a city park is in fact a property of the Belvedere Land Co.

But the city council Monday night decided to ask Harry Allen, company owner, if he would give the land to the city.

The Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission recommended acquisition of the land as a means of keeping it forever green.

Mayor Ralph Y. Meyers suggested that since maintenance of the area was costing the company upward of $50 a month, the company might be happy to get rid of it. The company three years ago offered the land to the city but no action was taken.

Councilmen voted unanimously to ask City Manager Britton Rey to see how land company officials would feel about the proposition now.

License Ordinance Up For Discussion

Further consideration of Mill Valley's proposed new business license ordinance is scheduled to be top item at tonight's city council meeting, set for 8 o'clock in the city hall.

Basic changes in the suggested ordinance have been suggested by chamber of commerce directors for consideration at tonight's session.

Also on the agenda are a call for bids on the major drainage project at East Blithedale avenue and Camino Alto, and consideration of salary increases for city employees.

Two Kids Caught Stealing At Market

A tough-talking 12-year-old girl and a 9-year-old accomplice were caught stealing cookies, cupcakes and pies from Brice Brothers Market in Novato Monday night.

Donald J. Dalpino, manager of the market, held the girls and called the sheriff at 5:15 p.m. Dalpino told Deputy Gerald Fries that the older girl had become abusive when caught, and told him she hoped the market would blow up.

Suddenly, Life Has Become So Simple

By AMBER EUSTUS

It would be very easy to take a big freezer compartment for granted. After years of deprivation, we are still in that prayerful state where we say a little blessing on the machinery—and, indeed, all civilization—as we reach for the portion of already-cooked rice or a sandwich for today's lunch.

Ah, the luxury of buying with quantity no object. And the delight of being able to defer a savory serving of stew which, epicurean as it was, becomes merely a leftover the next day. A week later, the same dish is a remembered delicacy—and a precious time-saver.

Already, we are experimenting with shortcuts to relieve a crammed schedule. It is very simple one night a week to get dinner and be ready to leave the house within an hour. But scrambled eggs one night a week is sufficient, and hamburger has a way of spoiling before you know it. Likewise the kitty's liver.

Naturally, the freezer compartment is no perennial horn of plenty. It yields only as it is stocked. And stocking, too, has limits—and limitations.

The trick is to shop with both the freezer's capacity and your own needs in mind. Chickens frozen hard as a rock are scarcely a boon, since they will cook to the consistency of leather unless thawed quite slowly. Very well, then, the weekend special on split fryers is perfect for Thursday, when there is time to tend a broiler. Put them in the freezer at once, remove to a corner of the refrigerator Tuesday evening.

There is, however, no reason why you can't broil two or three at the same time. It takes much less forethought to warm a ready-cooked bird. Nor is there any reason why you can't stew a fryer. In the old days, the stewing chickens were much cheaper (and tougher), but they were the old-fashioned, flavorful reds. The youngsters were likely to be somewhat wanting in flavor.

Today, the situation is reversed. The fryers are raised for flavor. The stewing birds are usually retired layers—generally white leghorns.

So long as the broiler or stew pot is going (and when chickens are cheap, there is nothing cheaper), cook up more than one. Cube some of the meat in broth for chicken a la king or curry, pack some of it for chicken salad, and chop some fine for sandwich filling.

Latest discovery: cube breasts of chicken (broiled, braised or boiled), toss with finely minced parsley and chives and anoint with sour cream dressing. Pack into a firm roll and wrap in foil.

Simply slice off a section, put in a plastic container on a bed of chopped celery or greens, and all will be chill and crisp come noon. A very neat dodge for the calorie counter who carries lunches.

Of course, a small plastic container of water frozen in advance will keep any lunch chill until noon.

A roast or tongue bought on special and roasted should be frozen forthwith. Warning: slice it first if you plan on using it by degrees for quick reheating or sandwiches. It takes a power saw to cut through the frozen block.

The freezer comes in very handy for pet food, particularly if your animal is set on fresh horsemeat, liver, kidneys and the like. Keep half of the week's supply at refrigerator temperature, freeze the other half until mid-week.

If you forget to thaw it until needed, simply warm in a gentle (!) oven. There may be a few protests from the pet department at the delay, but the critter will be happier with the fresh meat. Cats are extremely particular.

Certain commodities are much easier to handle if frozen first. Brains, for instance, are so easy to dice in a block and they thaw quickly in the pan.

These are a few of the offbeat uses for that blessing of our mechanized world. It would be a waste of paper to exclaim over the benefits of a roster of fresh-frozen vegetables and a selection of juices. Incidentally, no need to mix a whole pitcherful of orange juice at once. You can spoon out the frozen concentrate for each glassful.

Two essential aids to full freezer enjoyment are plastic and foil. Without proper wrapping, the food will very shortly dry out.

If you don't think you are extremely dependent on refrigeration, just pull the plug on the box some time, and stock it with old fashioned ice from one of those roadside kiosks. Just see how long things keep!

Real Hollandaise For Artichokes

A real, genuine butter-and-egg Hollandaise Sauce to do honors to the artichoke (or what have you).

ARTICHOKES WITH HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 egg yolk, ¼ cup (4 tablespoons) butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 large artichokes (cooked and drained).

Method: Put the egg yolk in a small deep heat-resistant glass mixing bowl. Have butter cut in four pieces and add. Fill a small iron skillet half full with water; bring water to a boil; turn heat low so water is just below simmering point. Do no allow water to boil or even simmer.

Put the bowl with the egg yolk and butter in it in the skillet; stir with a small French whisk until egg yolk and butter are combined and mixture is about as thick as mayonnaise.

Remove from water at once. Whisk in lemon juice. Turn into 2 small containers and serve with hot drained artichokes. (Small Oriental - type teacups—without handles—are nice for individual portions of Hollandaise Sauce.)

Makes 2 servings.

A Freezer Comes To The Aid Of Party Who Packs Lunches

If you have lunches to pack for your family, the freezer compartment of your refrigerator can be your greatest work saver.

The trick is to prepare quantities of luncheon foods in advance—then wrap them in aluminum foil and freeze until needed. The list of freezable food items includes sandwiches, cake, pie, and cookies. Such foods can be taken directly from the freezer for luncheon packaging. They will thaw out fresh and edible.

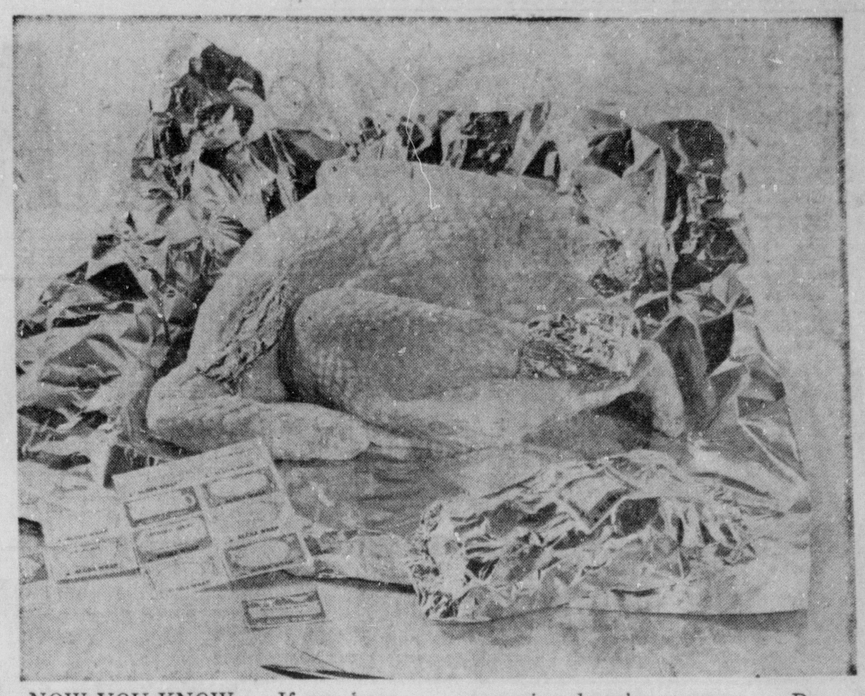
One time-saving technique involves storing cake. Your favorite cake recipe, or a ready-mix cake, can be baked and sliced; and each slice wrapped in aluminum foil. These unit-packaged slices are then frozen for doling out as needed for lunches. Small packets of oven-fresh cookies, or slices of pie, also can be kept fresh in this fashion.

LABELS, PLEASE

With aluminum foil, certified by university tests as the ideal wrapping material, it is important to identify the contents of each package. This is easily accomplished with new gummed marking labels, now available in packages of Alcoa Wrap aluminum foil. The labels use a specially developed adhesive, designed to hold fast in sub-zero temperatures.

As refrigerator freezer compartments continue to grow in size, and home freezing units gain in popularity, proper freezing technique is becoming important to everyone. Actually, food freezing techniques are relatively simple, but some hard and fast rules must be followed.

LUNCHBOX READY — Cake stays oven-fresh and frosting moist if frozen in advance. If the icing is gooey, freeze before wrapping. Label each piece, so you know what you're getting from the freezer.



NOW YOU KNOW — If you have cursed those little nobs and bones which poke holes in your careful wrapping, here's your answer. Pre-wrap them in foil to save the outer wrapping. Label or weight and date.

YOUR FREEZER ABC's

Ever Remove Frozen Roast To Find It Shrunken In Size?

Did you ever remove a cut of meat from your freezer, only to find it dehydrated and shrunken in size?

If so, it means you haven't learned some of the ABC's of freezing foods. The importance of undertanding freezer technique is daily becoming more necessary as refrigerator-freezer compartments grow in size. A freezer chest, properly used, can be a boon to every housewife or a disappointment if not used properly.

A vital first step is proper wrapping of meats. The average freezer chest probably is used more for meat than any other foodstuff. Yet, few people pay attention to the fact that frozen meat can deteriorate rapidly, if not correctly wrapped in aluminum foil.

Meats should be properly marked, too. Otherwise, a housewife, after opening a foil package, cannot re-seal securely enough to prevent damaging air from contacting the meat. The marking job today has been made easier than ever before with gummed marking labels, now enclosed in packages of household aluminum foil.

When wrapping meats, use these steps to insure maximum protection:

Freezer or heavy duty foil in either 12 or 18-inch widths is best for freezing. However, double thicknesses of regular household foil also may be used.

1. Place food in center of sheet of foil. If sheet is not large enough, fold two lengths together, using a double fold.

2. When freezing hamburgers, or other meats for storage in more than one layer, place a piece of foil between each layer.

3. Place small folded pieces of foil over sharp corners of bones, if necessary. Bring the two torn edges together above food; fold, then fold again (drug store wrap), pressing foil down close to food. Fold ends over and over, pressing close to food.

If you'd like a handy booklet, which outlines all the important points in freezing foods properly, write to Food Editor, Independent-Journal, P. O. Box 330, San Rafael.

Chocolate Raisin Drop Cookies

Ingredients: 1¼ cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate (melted), ⅓ cup milk, 1½ cups seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained), ½ cup chopped walnuts.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla; beat in egg thoroughly. Blend in chocolate. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and milk until smooth. Stir in raisins and nuts. Drop generous teaspoonfuls onto buttered baking sheet, a couple of inches apart, bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until baked through. Cool on wire rack. Store in tightly covered container. Makes about 6 dozen cookies.

Lace the Ribs on a Spit; Lace With a Fiery Sauce

Barbecued ribs on a spit give your outdoor cookery an unmatched flavor.

Lace ribs, accordion style, on the spit. Let them rotate over slow coals one hour or until the meat is well done (no pink snipped between bones). The last 15 minutes, toss damp hickory on the coals and basting the meat well with:

REVVED-UP RIB SAUCE

1 cup extra-hot catsup
½ cup water
½ cup molasses
¼ cup vinegar
3 tablespoons Worcestershire
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
2 cloves garlic, minced

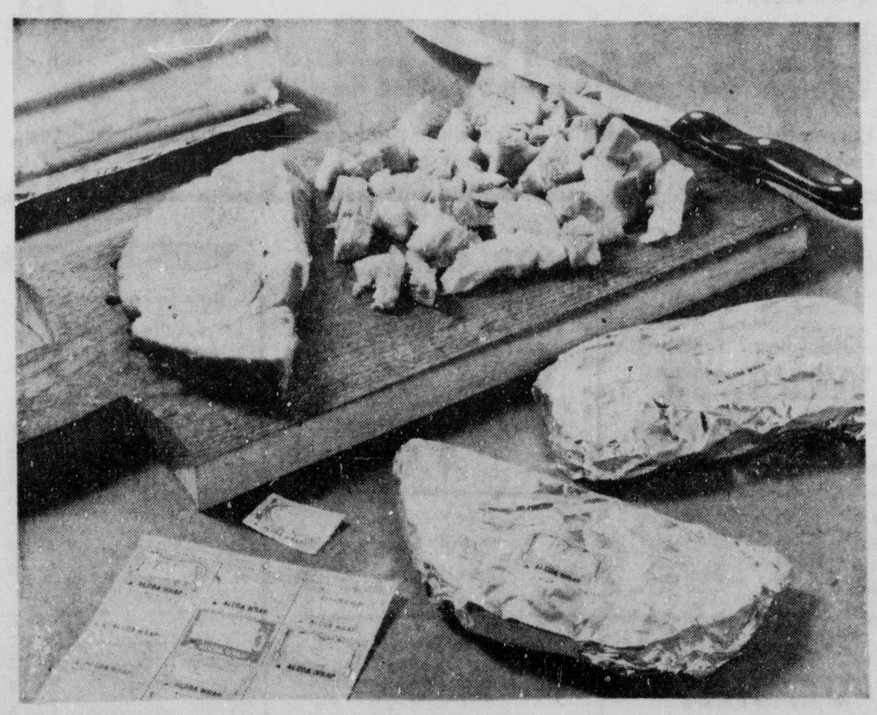
Mix ingredients well and let stand to mellow at least a few hours.

Salad Andaluz

A salad idea from Spain: combine thinly-sliced oranges and thinly-sliced onion, marinate in a dressing of 3 tablespoons Spanish olive oil, 1 tablespoon wine vinegar, a pinch of cumin or curry powder and salt to taste. Serve on lettuce.

Scarlet Cooler

For a bright . . . tasty . . . sparkling . . . refreshing . . . summer drink, pour mixed vegetable juice over frozen lemonade cubes in tall, tall glasses.



FORESIGHT — When you "buy big," keep the freezer in mind. And when loading the freezer, keep ultimate use in mind. A few slices off a whole ham make dinner another day. Cube some for superb Sunday omelet.

Peas—To Can Or Freeze 'Em? (Plus Strawberry-Rhubarb Jam)

Use peas in porridge hot, peas in porridge cold, but DON'T use them nine days old! In other words, whether they are to be canned or frozen, use peas when they are young, green throughout and garden fresh. If you choose to freeze peas, they must be blanched (scalded) and then chilled and drained before being placed in an airtight container. If, as do the majority of homemakers, you prefer to can them, you may use either the hot or the raw pack method. The raw pack saves a little time, but the hot pack usually utilizes the jar space to a better advantage. Processing is the same for both methods. Some recipes for canning peas call for 1 teaspoon each salt and sugar to the quart, and some for salt only. There is no reason other than flavor, for adding either salt or sugar. It is most important to examine jars, adjust caps and test seal according to the manufacturers' instructions.

TO CAN PEAS

HOT PACK: Shell, sore, rinse and drain peas. Cover with hot water and boil 2 or 3 minutes. Pour hot, into hot jars leaving about 1 inch head space. Add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart and boiling water, if needed, to cover peas. Process both pints and quarts 40 minutes at 10 pounds steam pressure. If peas are extra large, process 10 minutes longer.

Raw Pack: Shell, sort, rinse and drain peas. Pour peas into hot jars leaving about 1 inch head space. Add 1 teaspoon salt to quart and fill jars to within ½ inch of top with boiling water. "Knife out" air bubbles. process both pints and quarts 40 minutes at 10 pounds steam pressure.

TO FREEZE PEAS

Wash, shell, sort, rinse, drain and scald peas (not more than 2 quarts at a time) 2 or 3 minutes in boiling water. Then put them into ice cold water long enough to chill. Drain peas and pour them into tapered jars. Screw cap tight and place in coldest part of freezer.

STRAWBERRY-RHUBARB JAM

This jam is easy to make. The color is lovely. The flavor delightful. This is what goes into the jam:

- 2 cups thinly sliced rhubarb
- 2 cups sliced or chopped strawberries
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 2½ ounce box powdered pectin
- 5½ cups sugar
- Red food color

And this is how to mix, cook and can:

Put measured fruit, salt, lemon juice and pectin in large (4 to 6 quart) saucepan. Stir mixture until it reaches a fast boil, then add sugar. Stir well and add a few drops of color—jam may fade in a short time unless color is added. Bring mixture to fast boil—you can't stop a fast boil by stirring. Let boil exactly 1 minute.

Remove pan from heat, skim foam from jam and quickly pour boiling hot jam to within ¼ inch of top of half pint tapered jar. Place home canning lid on jar, screw band tight and invert jar. When all jars are filled and sealed, stand them upright to cool. Check jars after they have cooled for about 30 minutes. If the fruit has risen to top, gently shake jar to mix fruit and syrup. After jars have stood about 12 hours, remove bands and test the seal.

Note: Sometimes, this jam turns out to be a "slow setter." If in a hurry for it, better use ⅓ cup orange juice and ⅔ cup water instead of the full cup of orange juice.

STRAWBERRY PRESERVES

Try this one if you are out for a blue ribbon. But to win, you must start with firm-ripe, medium sized, fine textured berries.

- 2 quarts prepared berries
- 6½ cups sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons lemon juice

You will need a large kettle of boiling water, so put water on to boil before preparing berries. (You have to wash, drain, hull (cap) and measure them. Each quart of berries should be full but not heaped—the cups of sugar should be level measure.) Put berries in colander or square of cheesecloth and dunk into the boiling water for exactly 2 minutes—be sure every berry is under water. Drain berries and put them and 4 cups of sugar, salt and lemon juice in a saucepan.

Gently mix sugar and berries. Bring to boil and boil 3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Add the other 2½ cups of sugar and boil 9 minutes. Shake pan to prevent berries sticking. Turn preserves into shallow glass or enamelware pan and let stand in cool place 18 to 24 hours—shake pan every now and then.

Pack the preserves into tapered half pint or pint jars. Put lid on jar, screw band tight and process at simmering (almost but not quite boiling) for 20 minutes.

P.S. There is no law against adding a drop or two of red food color to strawberry preserves. It will help them to look younger when they reach middle-age. No point in bothering about it if preserves won't last that long around your house.

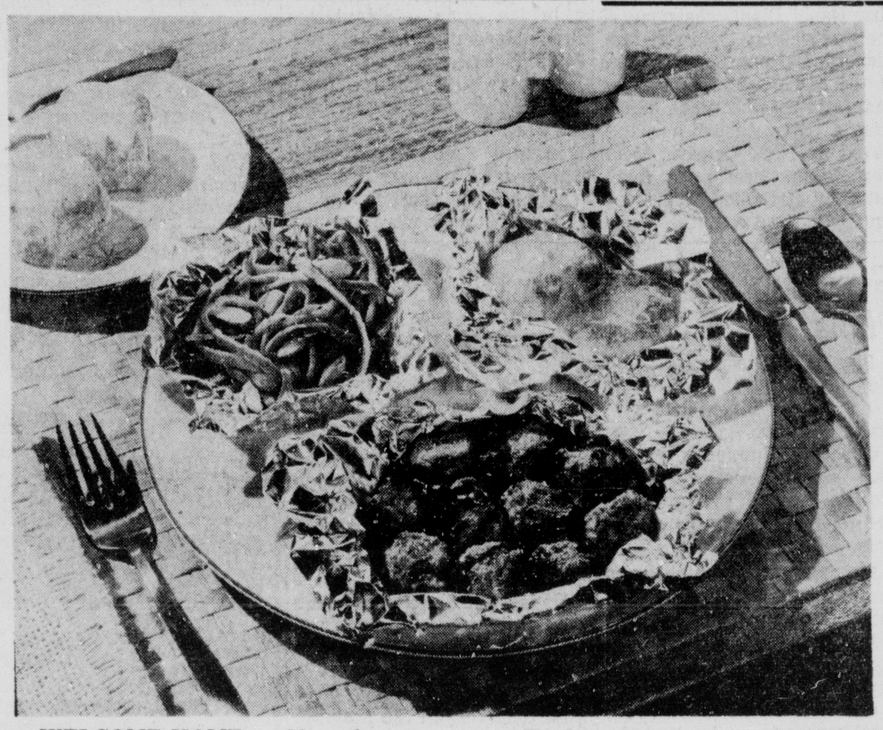
WHO BRINGS THE BACON?

"Bringing home the bacon" is an old cliche. To date, Independent-Journal carriers are not considered providers of this sort of substance, but things are changing.

A prominent manufacturer of above-mentioned symbolic product—Morrell by name—puts the paper boy in just such a function by offering a coupon worth 15 cents toward the purchase of a package of you-know-what brand.

Your interest in this offer will no doubt to compounded by the additional offer of three more coupons. All you have to do is send the from panel of the carton of bacon (which you bought for 15 cents under regular price) to the company, which will send you three more coupons worth a total of 45 cents.

In this roundabout way, your I-J carrier brings a free pound of bacon.



WELCOME HOME — Your favorite barbecued meat balls, greenbeans with almonds and broiled peaches greet the weary vacationers. Each portion is wrapped with foil and waiting to be popped into the oven. P.S.—No pans for mother to wash. Good idea any time of year.

NEW ANSWERS — Nothing ordinary about this picnic, even though it takes off from some old favorite. There's a dash of spice in the salad, which combines potato, lima beans and frankfurters. Rolls have special filling. Three-decker squares are filled with cream cheese and jelly.

Pack Gourmet Kind Of Picnic (The Budget Will Never Know)

Warm weather calls for still more picnics, and the question of what to take may need some new answers by now.

For economy—and good eating—try this menu: frankfurter rolls with a savory fish-'n-egg salad filling, three-decker cream cheese and jelly sandwich squares, a salad combining lima beans, potatoes and frankfurters—and, of course, a welcome supply of bottled carbonated beverages. It's a hearty, nutritious combination, yet the cost is low.

FISH-'N-EGG ROLLS
(6-8 sandwiches)

- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 eggs, hard cooked
- ½ cup canned mackerel, drained
- ¼ cup minced green pepper
- ½ cup chopped celery
- 6-8 frankfurter rolls

SALAD GREENS

Blend mayonnaise, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice; stir in mashed hard cooked egg yolks and minced egg whites; add mackerel, green pepper and celery. Line frankfurter rolls with salad greens and fill with mixture. (Makes about 1½ cups filling). Chill filled rolls; then wrap individually for carrying.

MAINDISH PICNIC SALAD
(serves 6-8)

- 6 medium size potatoes
- 5 frankfurters
- 1 box frozen lima beans
- ⅔ cup diced celery
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ⅛ teaspoon thyme
- ⅛ teaspoon marjoram
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pepper, dash
- ⅓ cup cola carbonated beverage
- Salad greens

Cook potatoes in jackets; cool, peel and dice. Parboil frankfurters; cool and slice. Cook lima beans according to directions on package; cool. Combine potatoes, frankfurters, lima beans, celery and onion. Blend into mayonnaise the vinegar, spices and cola, and fold into salad mixture.

Chill well before packing in refrigerator storage box for easy carrying and serving. Makes 2 quarts salad.

Chinese Twist A Chinese Twist

Ingredients: 1 small compact green cabbage (1⅛ pounds), 3 to 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup water, ½ to 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 to 2 teaspoons soy sauce, salt, pepper.

Method: Use outer very green leaves of cabbage. Wash and dry cabbage, cut in half. Cut with a knife into shreds several inches long and ¼ to ½ inch wide. There should be about 7 cups.

Melt butter in 12-inch skillet; add shredded cabbage; toss cabbage well to coat with melted butter; cook several minutes over low heat. Sprinkle cabbage with water; cover tightly.

Cook as quickly as possible without scorching until cabbage is just tender-crisp — 5 to 8 minutes. Season with sugar and soy sauce, mixing well. Makes 6 servings.

Marin Unit Of Junior League Hostesses Play Day Monday

The Marin Unit of the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc., played hostess Monday to members of the league from San Francisco, San Mateo and Palo Alto for a Play Day.

The spacious gardens of the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker provided the background for members, usually engrossed in volunteer activities, to enjoy a relaxing day complete with luncheon, swimming and bridge.

Seen checking in the guests were Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and Mrs. Clarence Amontte Jr., both sporting fancy sun hats, indicative of the spirit of the day. Mrs. Pomeroy telling of her plans to take her two boys on a trip to New York and Washington in the middle of June. Mrs. John Gardiner Jr. joining the group, to tell of her plans for a vacation in La Jolla.

Greeting the guests were Mrs. David Plant, chairman of the annual Play Day, and Mrs. Richard Hartshorne, chairman of the Marin Unit. Mrs. Plant had returned the night before from a trip with her husband, Dave, to New Orleans. Mrs. Hartshorne, wearing a fancy butterfly trimmed hat, was equally excited over the recent purchase of a new house in San Anselmo, and the forthcoming trip of her son, Dickie, to accompany his grandfather, Judge Richard Hartshorne of New Jersey, to his 50th reunion at Princeton.

SUMMER PLANS

Mesdames Walter Busse, Donald Barbour, George Cunningham Jr., and Robert Danielson were hearing the enviable plans of Mrs. Richard Erskine who leaves shortly, with her three children, to meet her husband, Dick, in Rome, where they will make headquarters for the coming year. Also completing the group as a guest of Mrs. G. Stanleigh Arnold, was Miss Suzanne Saunders, niece of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, of Ross, who is a transfer from Mexico City. Suzanne told of her recent camping trip in the Carmel Valley and her plans to join the Career Group in San Francisco.

Another group, absorbed in a bridge game — Mesdames Brace Hayden, Harry Johnson, John Menzies and Raymond Hornby. Still another foursome, Mesdames Eugene Kern Jr., J. R. B. Ellis, William Milliken and Frank Barsocchini, who donned a flowered hat to match her print bathing suit.

Summer plans were also the topic of conversation for a Belvedere group. Mrs. Paul Ramey and Mrs. William Johnstone plan a trip to Carmel. Mrs. Christopher Rivers Jr. told Mrs. Tim Harris of her week's trip to the Dardenelles, in Sonora Pass. Mrs. Robert Gros, recent enthusiastic Lagoon dweller, told that both she and her husband, Bob, plan taking sailing lessons over the summer.

Mrs. Harold Rooks intrigued Mrs. Alfred P. Otto Jr. and Mrs. Lawrence Symmes Jr. with her plans of a proposed trip to Seattle with her children, to visit her family; to be followed by a three-week stay on Guemes Island, part of the San Juan group, for sun and salmon fishing.

FROM CITY

Over from San Francisco were Mrs. Carl Livingson Jr., League president, Mrs. Hayden Shooey and Mrs. Harry Likas (Ann Jessup). Mrs. Richard Newell amused this group with animated tales of her family's recent tour of Disneyland. Mrs. Victor Burner Jr. also compared notes on her recent trip south.

Also seen were Mesdames William Niccolls and William Bricca who were discussing future tennis dates.

All members returned home late in the afternoon having had a marvelous day for catching up on bridge, hearing summer plans of friends, and adding "relieving of sunburn" to the next day's agenda.

Pohlis Return From Trip To The Orient

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pohli returned to Mill Valley Saturday from a trip to the Orient, where they visited their younger son, Lt. R. R. Pohli, USN, his wife, Jean, and son, Bobbie, at Sasebo, Japan.

The Pohlis left April 5 on the President Wilson for a tour which took them to Honolulu, Yokohama, Manila and Hong Kong before they flew to Tokyo and Sasebo. Lt. Pohli is stationed there as commander of the minesweeper "Vireo."

They then flew to Tokyo again and had been in the hotel only half an hour when Cmdr. Roy A. Ibach, USN (Ret.) and Mrs. Ibach of Mill Valley called and joined them for dinner that evening. The Ibachs are also on a tour of the Orient and are expected home soon.

On the return trip the Pohlis stopped again at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu while they visisted Mrs. Pohli's sister, Mrs. K. H. Blackshear.

When they returned to Mill Valley, they were welcomed home Saturday evening at a dinner in their home attended by their son, Capt. Emil Pohli Jr., U.S. Air Force (Ret.) and his wife and daughter, Anne of Oakland, and Mrs. Maybelle Seltzer of Mill Valley.

'House Beautiful' Party Editor To Speak At Center, June 10

The art of giving parties that are both different and exciting will be explained by Virginia Stanton, party editor of "House Beautiful" magazine, at 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 10, at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

PARTY EDITOR of "House Beautiful" magazine, Virginia Stanton, will be the speaker at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, June 10 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Sponsors of the talk are the Northgate Group and the Decorations Guild.

Mrs. Stanton approaches party giving with two precepts in mind: that a party should be exotic and informal, and that the hostess herself should be well enough prepared so that she can relax and enjoy herself.

In her demonstration, which she calls "Entertaining with a Flair," Mrs. Stanton chooses different themes, such as a national dish or a kind of food. A menu featuring bouillabaisse for instance, would be coordinated with unusual accessories carrying out the sea food motif: flowers might be arranged in a shell, place mats would have a maritime background, and even the dishes would be suggestive of the sea.

Mrs. Stanton's menus stress gourmet food that can be prepared ahead for ease of service.

The wife of nationally famous architect Robert Stanton of Carmel Valley, the "House Beautiful" editor has recently been touring the Far East, and is expected to enliven her discussion with new ideas picked up during her travels.

The Northgate Group, which has Mrs. John Buresh of San Rafael as coordinator for the event, and the Decorations Guild, with Mrs. Victor Guilder of San Anselmo, are jointly cosponsoring the demonstration to benefit the Center's building fund.

Assisting with arrangements for Mrs. Stanton's appearance, her first in Marin in a number of years, are Mesdames Robert Tuckey, Kentfield, and Guilder, table decorations; L. D. Gaisford, Greenbare, tickets; Martin Gordon, Mill Valley, telephone; John Gaidano, San Anselmo, tea; Marion Ludlow, San Rafael; and Victor Larsen, San Anselmo, Teasel Room workshop chairman.

Scene of the affair will be the charming Northgate outdoor area at the Center and a tea will follow Mrs. Stanton's demonstration. Pouring at the tea table will be Mrs. Peter Schubert, Greenbrae, and Mrs. H. E. Picard, Kentfield.

The public is cordially invited to attend the demonstration, and tickets are available either from the Center, a committee member, or may be purchased at the door.

Leader Entertains Happy Blue Birds

Mrs. Laurence M. Scott concluded her second year as leader of the Happy Blue Birds of Sleepy Hollow with a barbecue-swimming party recently at her home, 870 Butterfield road. Mrs. Scott organized the group and continuously directed its activities. Her assistant this term was Mrs. Robert S. Herman.

The swimming party, which also celebrated completion of the Scott's pool, preceded a dinner barbecued by the girls.

Members of the group, all third graders at Sleepy Hollow school, are Kristin Anderson, Barbara Ackerman, Jill Asher, Beverly Baker, Debbie Forrest, Judi Gurall, Vicki Herman, Martha Hetzner, Bridget Holland, Holly Mensing, Carolyn Molica, Donna Dee Politi, Ann Scott and Anne Sperling.

Mary Lyn Nelson Will Be Counselor Trainee

Mary Lyn Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nelson of San Anselmo, is leaving on June 20 for St. Albans Girl Scout Camp at Allyn, Washington, where she will be a counselor-in-training for the session. She and her family had formerly lived in Tacoma, Wash., and she attended the camp for five years. Before returning home, Mary will visit relatives and friends in Washington.

Mary, a sophomore at Sir Francis Drake High School, is an accomplished ice skater and has passed her preliminary tests for the National Figure Skating Association.

The Art Of Travel Is Discussed At Outdoor Art Club Guest Day

"How to be Lovable Though Rich and Vulgar" was the entertaining review presented by Dr. Graham Wilson of the two-and-one-half billion dollar tourist industry created by the American Tourist, as the program for the final guest day of the Outdoor Art Club.

A professor of English at San Jose State College, Dr. Wilson has traveled extensively and returned recently from nine months of research in Italy, France and England.

How to be "Lovable" he described as an art of eliminating some common mistakes made by the 2,000,000 Americans who roam the world. According to Dr. Wilson the average traveler finds himself in a state of "cultural shock" when familiar cues for behavior are missing and language difficulties occur.

BEING CHEATED

The results, he said, are excessive fear of being cheated, robbed and embarrassed; exaggerated concern over minor skin ailments; and constant praise of self, accompanied by criticism of others.

As for the language difficulties, learning even a dozen or so common phrases in the languages of the countries to be visisted will ease the traveler's path, the speaker suggested.

In defense of the traveling American, Dr. Wilson pointed out that Americans are victims of the tendency of foreigners to see them according to what they expect or have been told, and that thinking of one's own culture as the best is true of many nationalities.

Travel, Dr. Wilson concluded, is an experience involving people and cultures much more than geography and monuments.

Presiding at the business meeting in place of president Mrs. Frank Duhme Jr., who is in Florida, was vice president Mrs. Wayne Bingham. She announced that the garden section had received an award from the California Garden Clubs. Mrs. Rodney B. Hartman, president elect, gave her report on the recent convention of the Golden Gate District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the final meeting of the club on June 11, officers will be installed, and there will be a fashion show following the 12:30 p.m. luncheon. Mrs. Mills Calahan will be general chairman. Reservations should be made with Mrs. William Yockey or Mrs. Gerald Nowell.

Guests and members were greeted by Mesdames John Shortridge, William H. Bentley and Harry Smith, and tea tables were hostessed by Mesdames William Pleasants, John Sullivan, Albert Von Der Werth and Elvira Becker.

Mrs. Charles Bassett, tea chairman, was assisted by Mesdames M. A. Leonis, Joseph Taylor, Samuel Seifert, Pieter Van Dalen, John Hellman and J. C. Osborn.

Presbyterian Church's Women Have Business Meet, Program

Louise Reichardt (1778-1825) the composer's Hoffnung or "When the Roses Bloom" might well have been the theme of the Women's Society of the San Rafael Presbyterian Church for the May meeting.

However, for the publicity chairman, Gertrude Stein's "A Rose is a rose . . . is a rose . . ." seemed equally apropos as the meeting was an unusually lengthy one—much business to transact and quite a program as well.

Roses were everywhere—in garlands with ivy on the long tables, placed in white pottery bowls as a centerpiece for each table, and in a long plaque over the piano. Corsages of roses were additional favors for the honored guests.

Farewells were said to the church secretary, Mrs. Thomas W. McNeil, who resigned as of June 30 to go to St. Andrew's in Scotland where her husband has been awarded a scholarship to work for his Doctor's degree. An new secretary may be named by the Session June 8.

MAY GROUP SERVES

Mrs. John Bagshaw and Mrs. Kenneth Walkmeister supervised the serving of a salad luncheon with orange and banana nut bread and a hot beverage. On their committee were Mesdames H. H. Cleaves, S. H. Diehl, Fred Cebalo, A. H. Chiaroni, James Cowie, Herbert Hickman, T. J. Kelly, Kendall (Evelyn) Mabie, Lulu Maranello, Ralph Oliver, A. E. Straub, Violet Turner and W. W. Howe.

A letter of regret was read from Mrs. Ray Shaver whose husband has been seriously ill and she, too, confined at her home at 211 D St.

A most interesting letter was read from Miss Chu-Hsiang Kao, guest artist at the April Society meeting. Miss Kao, Seminary student from Japan U. will teach organ in Formosa following a courtesy course at Princeton made possible by Seminary students. She is scheduled to give an organ recital soon. Miss Kao sang Oriental folk songs at the recent Women's Society meeting to the piano accompaniment of John Thomas. She attended school at Doshisha in Kyoto, Japan. At the Seminary she was known as "Susanne."

A letter of appreciation was read for support of the International Christian University in Tokyo, Japan. This project was explained at the April meeting.

TALK ON POTRERO

Guest speaker was Mrs. Oliver McLean, who has served as president of the board of directors of Potrero Hills Neighborhood House in San Francisco, since 1950. This house is made possible by the Presbyterian Churches of Marin in cooperation with the Olivet Church working closely with the Presbytery.

It is highly regarded in San Francisco, one of the few necessary Protestant working agencies. Mrs. McLean followed Mrs. Julie Frazier and Mrs. O. C. Hansen as president.

Potrero has a working staff of full time social workers augmented by part time help from San Francisco State College. Volunteer aid is needed.

Mrs. S. D. Archibald, president of the San Rafael Women's Society, is chairman of the Kindergarten Committee at Potrero, and is Religious Education chairman.

All nationalities are served at the center, which dates back to 1921.

June 15 marks the start of the Christian Education Summer Classes at Potrero to be followed by Day Camps. All nationalities and creeds will be served.

On September 5 and 6, an Estonian celebration will feature West Coast Days.

Potrero sponsors many projects and clubs. Patrick Henry Debs, Dakota Misses, Girls' Basketball, Blue Birds, A-H Club, Junior Debs, 3 C Club, Everett Owls, Stars, Royal Molets, besides a Drop-In Club for all who care to drop in between 3 and 4 on Fridays.

Special guests with Mrs. McLean, all members of the Calvary Presbyterian Church in San Francisco, were Mesdames W. S. Hanna, Robert E. Ellis, V. C. Coolidge and H. D. Stephens. Mrs. Hanna is related to Mrs. Raymond Thayer.

MRS. KIMBALL PIANIST

A delightful musical interlude was provided by Mrs. Cloyd Kimball, outstanding pianist. With forceful technique Mrs. Kimball played from memory a varied trio of selections. She opened with Debussy's "The Sunken Cathedral" adapted from the folk lore of Brittany. "Fur Follete," Phillipe's "Fireflies," was a brilliant number. As an encore, Mrs. Kimball played a whimiscal selection from the Children's Suite which represented a Swiss music box.

REPORTS, COMING EVENTS

Announcements were made as follows: Meeting in Petaluma May 25, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Officers and Executives Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Rowena Dunn, director of education, urged attendance. Mrs. John Bagshaw's home service group served at a reception for 50 new members of the church.

Mrs. Alan Hicks reported for the overseas and national sewing group.

Junior Hi Evening Group will welcome pots and pans for their service.

Discarded hosiery is still being sent overseas for re-weaving said Mrs. Emerson Yates.

BAZAAR WORKSHOP

Sewing circles are held in the church sewing room the fourth Thursday of each month from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Attendants are asked to bring sandwiches, hot drinks will be served. (Last year this group realized $400 for the Fall Bazaar, Mrs. James Haynes reported.) Materials are requested as donations at the June meeting.

HONORS FOR CANOLES'

A reception honoring Dr. and Mrs. John Jefferson Canoles, retired, will be held June 7, including "Testimonials" following the 11 o'clock services. The list of speakers includes church dignitaries. Women's Society will serve punch and cookies.

The elders and officers of the church are in charge of arrangements.

Good wishes for the future years of the Canoles' will be expressed. Welcome news is the report that the beloved couple, who served the church for 31 years, will retire in Marin County. A new home is be readied in Novato with the church friends contributing generously.

June 7 reception marks the actual 31st anniversary of Dr. Canoles in the pulpit. June also is the birthday month of Mrs. Canoles and the wedding anniversary of the beloved couple who were married in 1917.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. Charles Olson was introduced and congratulated at the May meeting upon the occasion of her 60th wedding anniversary May 10. (Mrs. Olson was most attractive in the beautiful blue ensemble with white orchids she had worn at a family observance earlier at Kent Woodlands). Asked to what she attributed her happy marital state she exclaimed "work." The Olsons are the parents of four, their daughter, Mrs. Williams Patching living nearby on Tamal Vista Drive in San Rafael.

Mrs. Detrick Vossbrink, house mother was missed due an injured hip incurred at a home accident.

Mrs. Fedora Ross has been obliged to return to the Kaiser Hospital in Vallejo for treatment.

JUNE MEETING

June 11th meeting of the Women's Society will be the final meeting before the summer recess. This will be in the home of the president, Mrs. Samuel D. Archibald, in Del Mesa when the Executive Board will assist as hostesses.

The Archibald gardens are especially beautiful this time of year so it is expected the luncheon will be served al fresco.

Press reports of united church meeting in Indianapolis were watched with great intrest by the congregation and friends of the Marin County Presbyterian Churches.

YWCA Swimming, Tennis Classes Begin June 9

Classes in tennis and swimming start on Tuesday, June 9, under the auspices of the YWCA of Marin County.

Swimming lessons for adults are scheduled at the Country Club Olympic Pool in San Rafael from 11 to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesdays or Thursdays, with classes limited to 20 people.

Fundamentals of elementary backstroke, safety skills, breathing, coordination of arms and legs in front crawl, will be included in the course. Students will have the opportunity to come for a practice period at 10:30 a.m.

Tiny tots have their time in the pool too this summer. Accompanied by a parent, the child learns at an early age (pre-school) to enjoy the water. The class will be held at the same location as the adult classes on Tuesdays or Thursdays at 10 to 10:30 a.m.

Tennis for adult women will be offered by the YWCA at the Mill Valley Tennis Club, with pro Hal Wagner instructing beginners at 1 and 1:30 p.m., intermediates at 2 and 2:30 p.m. These classes meet twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays for four weeks.

All the above classes require YWCA membership and an annual medical check-up. For further information call the YWCA Office in San Rafael.

MRS. BETTY DIEHL of Novato announced the marriage of her daughter, Carolyn Virginia, to Kenneth Charles Gabriel of San Rafael at a recent reception at her Novato home. The young couple was married in January at St. Thomas Acquinas Cathedral in Reno. Both are students at College of Marin. They are residing in San Rafael.

Dorcas Holds Successful Bazaar-Lunch

The Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Congregational Community Church had a successful bazaar and luncheon recently.

The tables for the bazaar were set up in the social hall of the church. The sewing booth was well filled and brought in a substantial amount of money. Mrs. C. A. Benson, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Charles B. Brooks. Mrs. Louis R. Dallara had charge of the greeting cards. Mrs. Albert Terkelson, assisted by Mrs. Thomas M. Murphy, sold plants. Mrs. L. B. Curtis, assisted by Mrs. C. C. Miller, had four tables filled with white elephants which sold rapidly. The Women's Fellowship members sold home baked foods. Selling at that table were Mesdames Raymond Dahl, William H. Spargur, Linton Pratt and J. C. Uhte.

The luncheon was served starting at 12 M. Mrs. A. P. Kilpatrick sold the tickets. The many kinds of food had been donated by members of the Society. The kitchen committee had plenty to do, setting and decorating the tables, preparing the hot beverages, and serving about 90 luncheon guests. Mrs. W. J. Bennis, chairman of the committee, was assisted by Mesdames A. F. Adams, Clarence Bergstrom, Austin Boulter, Robert S. Baurrell, C. F. Campbell, Julius Delluchi, G. W. Hiltabrand, Robert Roy and Thomas Teare. Many of the guests played cards during the afternoon.

Next Tuesday will be the celebration of the birthdays of members whose natal anniversaries occurred in April, May and June. It will also be a Silver Tea in conjunction with the showing of porcelain ware which Mrs. August Rasmussen brought from Denmark on her recent European trip.

Sigma Kappa Juniors Will Meet June 9

The new officers of the San Francisco Junior Alumnae of Sigma Kappa will preside at the final meeting of the season at the home of Miss Rena Maltby, 1935 Clay street, Apt. 104, San Francisco on Tuesday, June 9 at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses are Miss Jane Bell and Mrs. M. C. Witchner.

Newly-elected president is Miss Joan Arnold of San Francisco. Serving with Miss Arnold from Marin County is Mrs. Arthur Jollymour Jr., second vice president, of Belvedere-Tiburon.

Plans for the coming year, along with suggestions for a fund raising project for the local philanthropy, the Northern California Chapter of Hemophilia Foundation, will be discussed. Proceeds from the successful "Spring Swing" dinner party held at the Southern Marin Recreation Center in Tiburon, May 16, went to the Foundation.

Action Needed To Make Marin Safe For All

Marin citizens have been aroused by two types of youthful activities which have become a danger to our residents.

One is use of the public street and highways as race tracks.

The other is hooliganism, unprovoked, unnecessary attacks on people or property.

In other Bay Area communities, Marin does not have a good reputation. Deserved or not, this county has become known as a place where hooligangs roam looking for a party to crash or a teenager to smash.

We who live here know that the reputation is undeserved. Yet we have had pointed out to us by recent events that the stories about Marin were not cut from whole cloth.

It is important that we in the county take a careful look at the situation and decide what action, if any, needs to be taken.

A speeding youth rockets along a Greenbrae street, loses control of his car and crashes into a parked vehicle. It might just as easily have been a child or a mother and baby. But it was a parked car.

Investigating officers tell spectators that the real trouble is with the courts, that they aren't tough enough, that youthful offenders should "have the book thrown at them."

A Marin teen-ager has his jaw broken by one of a gang of youths, apparently without provocation.

The attack brings out reports of other, previous attacks. The district attorney says some youths and parents are so fearful of retaliation, they won't sign complaints against the offenders.

Both of these are serious situations. In both, the law enforcement agencies imply they can not do their jobs because someone else isn't doing his.

Such implications concern us greatly. Efficient law enforcement is a basic requirement for a peaceful community. Going with it, of course, must be citizen cooperation and judicial understanding of the basic goals of the police. We think these things can be achieved, but certainly not by buck-passing or recriminations.

"Throwing the book" at some particular individual won't stop others from reckless speeding.

What will stop them is if they know that speeding means arrest, and arrest means a certain punishment, one that increases in severity as the number of citations builds up.

What will stop hooligangs is the knowledge that after they strike, the law will not let up until they have been apprehended. And when they land before the judge, they will face a stern justice, based on their own irresponsible acts.

Such a situation can be brought about in Marin County. We are growing and now face policing problems which have not involved us before.

We need a concentrated and cooperative effort by the city police departments, the county sheriff's office, the state highway patrol, and the district attorney's office to enforce our laws.

We need an understanding of the over-all problem and a determination on the part of all to help stamp out these growing evils.

And we need the cooperation of all in the apprehension of the guilty ones and in giving backing to our peace officers and courts when they take their firm stand.

Then, again, will we be known as Marvelous Marin.

A.E.C. Would Do Anything To Test

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the Independent-Journal of May 27, I noted an article by columnist Roscoe Drummond commenting on the Geneva conference which is now in session seeking a ban on nuclear bomb testing. Drummond suggests that perhaps the president's concessions have gone too far.

Drummond says, "The United States is at a dangerous point in the negotiations to end tests."

It seems to me that Drummond has become one of the atomic energy, military, big business, cohorts and as such is doing everything possible to sabotage the President's efforts to stop bomb tests.

Drummond uses the old argument that we are likely to be drawn into an agreement to stop tests without a dependable method of inspection. This is a fallacy. Such men as Dr. Hans Bethe, the President's advisor on scientific matters, and a highly regarded scientist, has made the point to numerous Senate and House Committees (and this is a matter of record) that testing can be monitored and that we can find out whether the Russians have tested a bomb, not only on the surface of the earth, but in the stratosphere and below ground. His statements are agreed upon by nearly every authority in the world with the exception of those hired by the A.E.C.

Drummond goes on to use A.E.C. propaganda to bring into question the verdict of the scientists who set up the monitoring system. He mentions the underground tests last year in Nevada, and says that these tests proved the fallibility of the methods of detection which had previously been accepted. The claims made by the A.E.C. in regard to these tests were later proven false, and to be just another of this organizations fabrications.

It should be clear to any thinking person that the A.E.C. motives for continued testing which have really no connection with national defense. The U. S. has developed enough bombs to enable it to wipe humanity off the face of the earth. The U. S. has bombs ranging from the size of a hand grenade on up to those large enough to wipe out New York or any other major city. This country has tested more bombs by twice than the Russians and spokesmen for the army have stated that should testing be stopped right now, we would have an advantage over the Russians since we have tested more diverse types than they have.

The reason for the A.E.C.'s desires for continued testing then must lie elsewhere and it's not hard to locate. Testing is a big business! Millions of dollars go to many manufacturing organizations and these concerns don't want it to stop. More millions go to A.E.C. personnel and these people don't want it stopped. They are willing to do anything to maintain this situation, and buying columnists is one of their least expensive methods.

A Defense Of Beatniks: They Just Want To Be Left Alone

By ED CREAGH
For Hal Boyle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Why do people keep beating up on beatniks?

They're harmless — don't hurt anybody except occasionally each other.

They write, paint, publish, talk and don't care whether anybody looks or listens. Or if they do they won't admit it.

Male beatniks may wear beards. So did George Bernard Shaw, and so does Santa Claus.

Beachicks — the female of the species — may go in for sweat shirts and pedal pushers. Whose teen-age daughter doesn't?

Beatniks of all sexes may throw wild parties if by chance they can afford it. So? You should have seen the last "square" (beatnik term for nonbeat) party I attended in a supposedly sedate suburb. I doubt if the host has found his way out of the shrubbery yet.

All this comes to mind because of two recent events:

A bearded young man named Bill Walker has run into all manner of difficulty here because he wanted to open a coffee shop. That's right: Coffee. No booze. No marijuana.

First the zoning authorities and then the police declared war on him. A neighbor actually fired four shots at him and his wife.

Then there is the case of a Chicago magazine. The Post Office Department is holding hearings to decide whether it can be sent through the mails.

The editors have been called beatniks by some of their critics.

"Yes, there are four-letter words in it," says one of the editors, a suave young woman who looks as though she never heard about the birds and the bees. "I suppose that's what bugs (beat term for disturbs) the post office, poor little boys.

"But if those words aren't fit to print, what are they doing in the English language? And since they are in the language, why not use them if they say what you mean? I doubt if any child's mind is going to be warped. Children wouldn't read it in the first place."

WHAT ARE these beatniks anyway?

Let the beatchick answer: "They know about, and want more of, love, poetry and language.

"So they try to restore song, laughter and dancing in the streets. They dig (beat term meaning understand or appreciate or enjoy) the pulse of humanity, when they can find it. And they want things to be open — especially your and their sense of joy."

THE BEATNIKS talk a lot and experiment a lot — sometimes at the risk of their health and sanity. They tend to scorn steady jobs and square people.

But they are creating prose and poetry as Chaucer and Dante did in their day — enriching or defiling the language, depending on your point of view.

And minding their own business. Just asking to be left alone.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"I don't know, but if I had to do it over, I would be a nuclear physicist . . .!"

20 YEARS AGO

Army engineers held a public hearing in San Francisco on a proposal to dredge a channel between Bolinas Lagoon and the ocean. It was desired by Bolinas residents for a variety of reasons, including better fishing and pleasure craft facilities and movement of the Coast Guard from the bay to the ocean.

DeLuca and Son of Fairfax, prominent Marin County building firm, was awarded a $168,750 contract by the Navy Department for expansion of the navy yard establishment at Mare Island.

The most pretentious home to be built in Marin County in many months was started in Kent Woodlands, according to an announcement by Sam Heiman, Ross architect, who planned the $22,000 residence. The two-story, 10-room house was for J. S. Waterman, a San Francisco importer.

THE LAW SAYS

Federal Income Tax System Is Voluntary

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dana Latham, the internal revenue commissioner, says our federal income tax system is voluntary, and that we volunteers are usually honest.

Well, Latham's 51,000 assistants, employed to encourage us in our annual tax offerings, have had their first look at the 60,000,000 individual returns we elected to file on or before April 15.

I believe the way they prefer to put it is that this year we were as honest as usual.

IT IS AMAZING though how many errors we made. One claimed a cat as a dependent. Her return was bounced back, of course, for proper proof he was a blood relative.

Another homemaker, who felt moved to contribute $20.64, sent it in the form of a $20 bill and eight trading stamps. She has been allowed to trade the stamps for two quarters, a dime and four pennies.

Fortunately for everybody concerned, including the Federal Bureau of Prisons, which already has an over-population problem, more and more tax volunteers now find it possible to use simplified forms allowing a standard 10 per cent deduction for such items as interest paid and contributions to churches.

HOWEVER IT LOOKS like maybe 20,000,000 of us again this year insisted on using the long form. Although aware we are honest, as the boss says, the tax men tend to look closest at this group of submissions.

And they say this year's offerings appear to have run true to form.

A druggist claimed a "loss" of $1,500. An agent inquired, loss of what? Ice cream, the man said. His nickel scoop broke, and the soda jerk neglected to tell him. Just used the 10 cent scoop all year.

Another sacrifice placed in the mail for the taxman listed unusually high medical costs. This volunteer explained, when asked, that his doctor said not to worry. So he didn't; he drank a fifth of whisky each 24 hours.

The tax men won't have a final verdict on our latest presentations for almost a year. Last year's count is just recently in, though, and here's what it shows:

OF 2,336,000 RETURNS pulled out and subjected to audit, 1,442,000, or 62 per cent, turned up with what the tax men like to call "deficiencies." This means they were short, and by an average of $478.

These taxpayers now have been permitted to press additional sums on the tax collector, totalling $688,500,000.

I see now what Latham meant when he asked Congress recently for additional helpers. Our volunteer tax system is the kind that works best when somebody looks over our shoulder.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

The local gossip was waiting on the stoop when the traveling salesman came home from his winter trip. "While you were away," he cackled, "I saw a tall, dark man kissing your wife." The salesman asked, "Did he wear glasses and white shoes, and did he have a big mustache?" "That is the one," exulted the gossip.

"Forget it," advised the salesman. "That was our milkman. He'll kiss anybody."

George de Witt told a fellow thespian he kept seeing spots in front of his eyes. "Have you seen an oculist yet?" inquired his worried friend. "No yet," admitted de Witt. "Just spots."

"I beg you," beseeched the junior miss' wear buyer to the beautiful new model, "whisper those three little words that will have me walking on air." The model obliged with, "Go hang yourself."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

Novato Presbyterians Facing Tough Questions In Racial Quiz

We are watching with interest to see how the 400 members of the Novato Presbyterian Church will answer the questionaire on racial bias they were sent last week.

It it only regretable that the questions cannot be sent to all county residents.

A look at a few of the queries leveled by the church's committee on social education and action has shaken our confidence that racial bias is confined to those states south of the Mason-Dixon.

Be honest:

Would you welcome Negroes moving into your neighborhood?

Would you be willing to dance with a Negro?

Are you opposed to marriages between Caucasions and persons of obvious Negro ancestry?

That's a sample of what our Presbyterian brethern are up against.

CAN'T HELP BUT admire the ad lib ability of W. J. J. Smith, who as superintendent of the Novato Unified School District is often called to make public utterences.

Novato High School's annual sports award banquet last week was one such occasion.

A few feet from the superintendent's table several male students had succeeded in erecting a magnificent tower of milk cartons at their table. One brave scholar kept piling on cartons as the 200 diners held their breath.

At last, the three-foot-high creation came cascading down on top of its builders.

"The foundation you build in school is made of the things that carry you through life," said Smith. "We hope those that you are building will not be the kind that will collapse as we have just seen this one collapse before us."

There'll be no beating around the bush when it comes to picking out the girl who will be "Queen of Western Weekend" and "Maid of Marin" — all in one package — at Novato's wild west celebation June 19-21.

Judges, after dispensing with an examination of "poise" worth 10 per cent, and "personality," worth another 10 per cent, will get to the heart of the matter.

"Beauty of face and figure" will tell the tale. That's worth 80 per cent to the judges. You can let the dust pile up on your pianos, girls. The talent you need to win can't be rehearsed.

THE NEWLY FORMED Novato Forum which presents public discussions on controversial issues, has been turned down for membership in the Novato Community Club because club directors felt such membership might lead to dissension among members.

Membership as a section of the club would have meant free use of the community clubhouse by the forum for public discussions.

The forum, we hope, will not now disband for lack of a suitable hall to present issues of public interest — a growing need for a growing community.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Ike Has Not Made Public Reasons For Limited Nuclear Ban; He Should

Why does Thomas E. Murray, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, who has special knowledge in this field, view the current trend of negotiations to end nuclear-weapons testing with absolute dismay?

His central fear is that we are at the point of being trapped into an agreement-for-the-sake-of-agreement which will not protect against illicit tests.

In a memorandum to Chairman Clinton P. Anderson of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, for which he is now consultant, Murray says: "The worst thing that can now happen is that Khrushchev will accept the first proposal made by the President in his latest letter" — which is the Macmillan plan for limited inspection without veto.

MURRAY OFFERS a number of reasons for his warning. The heart of his argument concerns illegal underground testing — although the problem of detecting atmospheric tests above thirty miles is unresolved.

I am not suggesting that Eisenhower may not have persuasive reasons why he has accepted the Macmillan formula. I am only saying that he has not made public his reasons for embracing, after first doubting, the Macmillan plan. The situation is certainly muddy. There is need to take a lucid second look at where we are going.

HERE ARE the principal circumstances which give Murray and some other knowledgeable people great anxiety:

1 — The U. S. government, along with the Soviet Union, accepted the verdict of the scientists at Geneva last summer that 180 detection stations around the world are sufficient to protect against illegal underground testing. This was based on the evidence of one single underground experiment. Later underground tests persuaded most Western scientists that their earlier program of detection was inadequate.

2 — Note these two facts: (a) No plan for detecting atmospheric tests over 30 miles high has been devised in view of lack of knowledge; (b) the method for detecting underground tests has been exploded by new scientific developments. Hence President Eisenhower appealed to Premier Khrushchev to join in two further scientific conferences to get fuller facts on both atmospheric and underground explosions.

What tack did Khrushchev take? He said yes on an atmospheric study and no on any further conference on underground testing. In other words, Mr. K. is very satisfied with inadequate facts on underground detection.

3 — NOW COMES the Macmillan formula. We had previously held that there must be no barrier — that is, no single-nation veto — to the authority of the control commission to check out anywhere, anytime, suspicions of an illicit underground test. The Soviets refused, insisted on the veto. Macmillan proposed that there could be an advance agreement on a limited number — not very many — of veto-less, on-site investigations, if the need arose, after which the veto could be applied.

At first Eisenhower raised doubts about this plan, perhaps on the theory that artificial explosions could be used to exhaust the number of veto-less investigations. Mr. K. thought the Macmillan formula was just dandy.

THESE ARE the reasons why the situation is muddy and why Murray and some others are alarmed.

It seems to me there is an imperative need for the President to clarify his position.

There is no need to accept inadequate inspection to remove the primary hazard to health. The danger from radioactive fall-out comes almost wholly from atmospheric, not from underground tests, which the West is willing to ba nanytime the Soviets will agree.

Two Whales Span U. S. In Air-Lift

MARINELAND, Fla. (UPI) — Two live pilot whales arrived safely by plane from California yesterday in what was claimed to be the first transcontinental "whale-lift."

Officials at the Marine Studios here said the large water mammals were out of water about 13 hours, requiring personnel aboard the plane to spray their bodies with water throughout the flight.

Whales are air-breathing mammals but their skin is conditioned to being constantly wet.

After arriving at the airport at nearby St. Augustine in their shallow rubber trays, the half-ton sea monsters were driven here by truck.

They were placed in their new tank-homes and fed a large meal of squid for lunch.

Marine officials here sent to Palos Verdes for the whales because it is difficult to capture them on the Atlantic Coast.

It was hoped the whales, each more than 10 feet long, could be taught to do such tricks for tourists as taking food from visitors hands, blowing horns and waving flags.

The shipment was made in exchange for six porpoises which arrived at Palos Verdes last February. The whales were airlifted aboard a C46 transport.

Drunken Driver Jailed, Fined

A Hayward motorist, caught driving while drunk once every year for four years, must spend five days in Marin County Jail and pay a $400 fine.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Henry Bernard Mathes, 41, yesterday. Mathes was arrested on Highway 101 near Ignacio on March 8. For drunken driving, he drew five days in jail and a $250 fine. Driving with a suspended license cost him another $150.

Mathes had prior convictions in December, 1956, in Alameda, July, 1957, in San Leandro, and June, 1958, in San Leandro.

Retirement Board Elects Middagh

Floyd R. Middagh, chief civil deputy in the sheriff's office, has been elected to the Marin County Retirement Assn. board to succeed Harvey Marsh of the assessor's office.

Middagh joins Supervisor William D. Fusselman and John V. Bacigalupi of the Bank of America on the three-man board, which discusses retirement policies for the Marin County Employees Retirement Assn.

Middagh and Leo A. Vaughan of the treasurer's office ran for the post. County employees cast 247 votes for Middagh and 170 for Vaughan.

Four Win Legion Post Scholarships

Four scholarship winners—two seniors at Sir Francis Drake High School and two seniors at Marin Catholic High School were announced by San Anselmo American Legion Post 179 and its women's auxiliary.

The Drake High School awards, to be presented during June 19 graduation exercises, will go to Barbara Majesky and R. Hale Prather. Marin Catholic winners, Marlene Todt and Conothan Skinner, received theirs last week from Mrs. John Bodeen, Americanism chairman of the Legion Auxiliary.

Legion, Auxiliary To Seat Officers

San Ansemo American Legion Post 179 and its auxiliary will hold joint installation of officers at 8:15 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Cabin, Sonoma avenue and Los Angeles boulevard, San Anselmo.

Officers to be installed for Post 179 include Douglas McMurtry, commander; William Harrington, first vice commander; Patrick Pollock, second vice commander; Jean Lestanguet, finance officer; Raymond Greenberg, chaplain; Walter Berta, sergeant at arms and Bernard Clancy, historian.

Expert Panels Urged In Injury Suits

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A joint legislative committee yesterday urged an impartial panel of medical experts for personal injury trials to avoid confusing judges and juries.

The Joint Legislative Judiciary Committee on Administration of Justice, after a two-year study, called for establishing the panels in populous counties at public expense.

"A stock situation in personal injury suits has come to be a confused judge and jury sitting in baffled silence while opposing doctors for hours, perhaps days, solemnly contradict each other with X-ray films, charts and medical jargon," the committee said in its report.

The lawmakers, headed by Sen. Edwin Regan (D-Weaverville) noted many attorneys oppose such panels on grounds juries would regard court-appointed experts as infallible.

The report is the second made by the committee. Last month it blasted some judges for laziness, drunkenness and refusal to accept unpleasant cases.

In the latest report, the committee said some judges explain decisions so briefly that losing attorneys have little on which to base appeals in non-jury civil suits.

Tiburon Sanitary Bonds Awarded

A $132,881 bond issue of the Tiburon Sanitary District was awarded Monday night to the Beverly Hills firm of Hanauer and Co., which offered to take the issue at an interstate rate of 4½ per cent.

The 14-year bonds are for the Red Hill area sewer assessment district. The only other bidder was the First California Co.

District directors tabled for further study a revision of the district's ordinance covering a garbage contract with the Mill Valley Garbage Co. Ben C. Albritton, a partner in the San Rafael firm of L. P. Cossette and Associates, was hired as the district's engineer.

The sanitary district board set for 8 p.m. Monday in the district office an adjourned meeting for discussion of the 1959-60 budget.

SCHOOL QUESTION

Supervisors Reject Ranch Annexation

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday turned down Richard B. Hay's petition to have his ranch on Chileno Valley road annexed to the Laguna Joint Union School District.

Voting against the turn-down —and in favor of the Hay family because she felt its needs were being ignored—was Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley.

"This is just another reason why we need one countywide school district," she commented.

Hay wanted his ranch annexed to Laguna so that he would not have to seek inter-district agreements from the Tomales Union High School District and Tomales Elementary School District to permit his children to attend schools in Sonoma County.

Hay each year has received approval of the agreement from the county board of education, after being turned down by the Tomales district boards.

Speaking before the supervisors, Hay reasserted his wishes for the change so that his ranch could be in Laguna and thus his children could attend Petaluma High School since the high school district takes in Laguna.

One complication is that his elementary school age children attend Two Rock School (through the inter-district arrangement) and would go on to Kennilworth Junior High School.

It was brought out, however, that if the Hay ranch were part of the Laguna district, that district could be billed for two years the children would be attending Two Rock.

Hay previously had said he would pay the Tomales district for costs involved, and indicated he would do the same for Laguna. However, at a recent meeting of Hay and members of the two school boards, it was stated that Hay could not do this legally.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman asked Hay is he had discussed the possibility of giving the money to the school districts as a gift. Hay said he had not.

The motion to deny was made by Supervisor James Marshall of Tomales, who noted there was no "hardship" involved, that the Laguna board appeared reluctant to consider an inter-district agreement for two years, and that Hay has the right to appeal to the county board of education.

Cab Driver Pleads Guilty To Theft

Mill Valley cab driver Rodney Allen, 23, admitted yesterday he stole a Yellow cab and took off for Bakersfield with his boss' nephew and three youngsters last April 5.

The nephew, Frank Lacey, 21, also pleaded guilty, but to the lesser charge of temporarily taking his uncle's cab without the owner's permission. This is a misdemeanor punishable by a $200 fine, three months jail or both.

Allen pleaded guilty to car theft, which is a felony and carries a maximum penalty of up to five years in prison.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court set July 6 as the time for a probation report and sentencing of the two men.

The stolen cab was owned by Verl H. Hinkle of 10½ Locust avenue, Mill Valley. Allen and Lacey, accompanied by Hinkle's three sons, drove to Tracy where the cab broke down. They stole a car there and headed for Bakersfield, where a highway patrolman caught them just as they ran out of gas.

96 Bottles Vanish From Distributor

Eight cases of sparkling water, containing 96 quart bottles, disappeared from Shasta Distributors at 516 Irwin street in San Rafael during the weekend, owner Vern Howard Silva reported to San Rafael police.

Silva said he had closed his establishment Saturday evening. Monday morning, he noticed the front door of his warehouse partially open, and the lock gone.

Crusade Solicitation To Use New Method

A new pattern for soliciting United Bay Area Crusade funds in residential areas will be initiated in Marin County this year Mrs. E. Gould Ingram of Belvedere, Marin residential chairman, has announced.

Under the new system, member agencies of the Marin United Fund will assume responsibility for covering specific geographic areas, Mrs. Ingram explained. A trial of this method worked very well when the American Red Cross assumed responsibility for collecting funds from Greater San Rafael residents during the past two fund campaigns, she said.

This fall, the Red Cross is staffing the residential division as a whole, and will cover all Marin areas not assumed by other Crusade agencies, Mrs. Ingram said. Agency commitments for coverage are:

Girl Scouts, the Tiburon Peninsula, Belvedere, Marin City, Sausalito; Catholic Social Service and St. Vincent's School for Boys, Greater San Rafael; Catholic Youth Organization, Larkspur; Family Service Agency, Kentfield, Del Mesa and Kent Woodlands; Children's Home Society, Greenbrae and Bon Air; Camp Fire Girls, San Anselmo and Sleepy Hollow; Marin Jewish Community Center, Novato and North Marin; Marin Association for Retarded Children, Ross.

The Sunny Hills organization will cover an area yet to be designated.

Boy Scouts and the YMCA are providing volunteers for the solicitation of business establishments throughout the County.

Mrs. Ingram will meet with area chairmen Monday at Crusade headquarters in San Rafael. At that time she will introduce her newyl named assistant, Mrs. Arthur H. Collbran of Belvedere.

Break-In Reported At Novato School

Burglars broke into the physical education room of Hill School in Novato, the school custodian reported to the sheriff.

Clarence Vogensen said he opened the school Monday and noticed the door split open in the physical education room. Locked cabinets containing balls, gloves, and other equipment had been forced open, but nothing appears to be missing.

ARCHDIOCESE ACCEPTS OFFER OF OLD CHURCH

Thomas Procter, spokesman for the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, announced today that the San Francisco Archdiocese of the Roman Catholic Church has accepted the society's offer for purchase of old St. Hilary's Church and its half-acre site on the hill above Tiburon.

Purchase price was not disclosed, but Procter said the purchase was made possible through an anonymous donation.

Title to the property will pass when title searches and other details are completed, Procter said.

Procter said cooperation of Rev. James J. Forristal, pastor of St. Hilary's Parish, was instrumental in assisting the society to preserve the church as an historical landmark.

Mrs. Robert Bastian, society chairman, said that before the church can be converted to a museum and the land developed into a park, further contributions will be necessary. The foundation requires immediate restoration and other maintenance repairs are required, she said.

Basques Planning Big Festival In Nevada

RENO (UPI) — A little-known people who have been a shaping force in the west's massive sheep industry for more than a century will gather in Reno and neighboring Sparks this weekend for a unique celebration.

They are the Basques, whose ancient language and origins in the Pyrenees Mountains between France and Spain are still a source of mystery to ethnologists.

They came to the American west circuitously via the conquistador route, and when the '49 gold rush brought waves of pioneers to California, they began raising sheep to feed them. Bolstered by immigrations of Basques from the old country, they built the west's sheep industry almost singlehanded. Ironically, however, as little generally is known of them in the west as in their native Europe.

Their reunion, called the Western Basque Festival, will bring thousands of them together for the first time from all parts of the west.

ENVOYS COMING

And, although the Basques have not been an altogether peaceful adjunct either to France or Spain because of their stubborn refusal to be identified with anyone, Ambassadors Jose Maria de Areilza of Spain and Herve Alphand of France are coming from Washington, D.C., in honor of the festival. For Areilza, it will mark his first visit to the west.

Organized by Basques and their descendants in western Nevada, the festival is headed by chairman Peter Echeverria, attorney and state senator from Reno, and secretary Robert Laxalt, author and staff member at the University of Nevada.

OUTDOOR AREA

Most of the festivities will be in a mammoth outside area adjacent to Dick Graves' Nugget Casino in Sparks. Graves, whose wife is Basque, is sponsoring a full afternoon program which will see scores of costumed boys and girls in centuries-old folk dances and songs, Basque strong men competing in rock lifting and barefoot wood-chopping events, a barbecue, sheepdog exhibition, and general la jota dancing.

Also, in a milder variation of old-time western range trouble, there will be a tug-of-war between sheepmen and cattlemen.

Church Youth Plan Show

Junior and Senior High Westminister Fellowships of the First Presbyterian Church in Sausalito will present a talent show Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the John Calvin Fellowship Hall of the church.

Included on the program will be a pantomime by Carl Thomson, creative dancing by Judy Donaldson and Christine Burr, a humorous number by Bart Miller, an oboe solo by Loren Donaldson and a reading by Pam Miller.

The junior high group will present a dance, directed by Sandra Taneyhill, a duet and a vocal solo.

Guest artists will be pianist Don Francisco of San Francisco, who is organist for the church, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith of San Francisco, who will be joined by Loren Donaldson and Mrs. Chalmers Donaldson in a quartet composed by Smith.

Proceeds will provide summer camperships for the youth.

Attends CHP Course

Sgt. James J. Shanahan of 35 Belle avenue, San Rafael, will return home tomorrow from Sacramento where he has been attending a California Highway Patrol 10-day training course. Sergeant Shanahan is CHP field supervisor in the San Rafael area.

15-ROUNDER ON TV

Brown 12-5 Pick In Title Defense

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Champion Joe Brown, slender Negro boxer-puncher, is favored at 12-5 to beat Italian Paolo Rosi, a baldish raw-boned slugger, tonight in their battle of "oldest men" for the world lightweight crown.

They are the oldest pair to fight for the 135-pound title: Brown, 33, and Rosi, 31. But each is still such an effective puncher some "sportsmen" are offering 7-5 that the bout at Uline Arena does not last its scheduled 15 rounds, regardless of the winner.

Promoter Goldie Ahearn expects a near-capacity 7,500 and a gate of more than $50,000, despite two days of steady rain that curtailed somewhat the sale of tickets for this indoor show.

NATIONAL TV

Washington's first title fight in 18 years will be televised nationally by ABC at 7 p.m. (PDT), with a local blackout on a 100-mile radius. The last championship fight here was on May 23, 1941, when Joe Louis won a seventh-round disqualification over big Buddy Baer.

Brown, who now lives at Baton Rouge, La., is making his seventh defense of the title in his 100th professional fight. He hopes within the next year to equal or surpass the eight successful defenses made by the late Benny Leonard who retired undefeated.

CHAMP SLIPPING

However, Joe indicated in his last three performances that he may be slipping. He kept his title by an eyelash after 15 furious rounds with southpaw Kenny Lane. He lost a non-title decision to Johnny Busso, but managed to beat Busso in a title fight, last Feb. 11, over the full 15-round route.

Rosi — formerly of Rieta, Italy—but now a naturalized citizen living in New York—earned tonight's shot by coming through his last nine bouts unbeaten, although held to one draw. His best wins on that string were a decision and a knockout in two bouts with Bobby Scanlon and a decision over Busso. This year he outpointed Flash Elorde and stopped Frankie Ryff (3) on April 10.

31 VICTORIES

Rosi didn't turn professional until he was 23. That accounts for his having only 36 fights. He won 31, lost four and had one draw. He registered 13 knockouts.

Brown scored 32 kayoes while winning 72 of his 99 bouts. He lost 16, drew in nine and had two no-contest affairs. He was stopped three times—by Sandy Saddler, Johnny Bratton and Georgie Araujo.

STATE DISCUS CHAMPION

Ron Snidow (right) of San Rafael High School, holding dish to simulate discus, chats with Coach Bob Lincoln at sports banquet in San Rafael last week. Last Friday Snidow won the California Interscholastic Federation championship by throwing the discus 176 feet, 1 inch in the state finals at Bakersfield. The performance set a new state record. Snidow, an all-Northern California football player (end) and a member of San Rafael's championship grid and basketball teams, graduates this month. He will play in two All-Star football games this summer in Los Angeles (North-South Game) and San Francisco (East-West Game).

2nd All-Star Game 'Set' For L. A. Aug. 3

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The major league club owners have approved the players' request for a second All-Star game this season.

The game, which must receive the blessing of Commissioner Ford Frick to become official, will be played on Monday, August 3, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The players will receive 60 per cent of the gate and radio-TV receipts, with the remainder going to the club owners, who would use the additional cash to aid youth baseball programs such as the Little League and Babe Ruth loop.

The players may possibly use their share of the cash to set up a pension plan for umpires and help former players not currently benefitted by the pension plan. The players share of the first game, to be played in Pittsburgh July 7, goes into their pension fund.

Frick is expected to announce his decision next week after conferring with Presidents Warren Giles of the National League and Joe Cronin of the National.

The Frenans clobbered Santa Clara 23-11 Monday night and 15-3 yesterday. A grand slam homer by Fresno first baseman Dave Biggers capped a seven-run fourth inning yesterday.

GNATS TO YOU, HOYT

Wilhelm, Mossi, Sturdivant Pitching A. L. Topsy-Turvy

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hoyt Wilhelm and Don Mossi, a couple of relievers gone square, and Tom Sturdivant, an expendable world champion, are pitching the American League topsy-turvy.

Wilhelm, the unbeaten right-hander who was waived out of the National League, was upset by a swarm of gnats but won his eighth in a row last night, hoisting Baltimore into second place with a 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

That left the stumbling White Sox in third and the Birds just a half-game shy of first place Cleveland, beaten 3-2 by Washington in 10 innings.

Mossi, the lefty who was washed up when Cleveland peddled him to Detroit last winter, beat New York for the third time this season, ending the Yankees' winning streak at four with a four-hit, 2-0 decision although the Tigers had only one hit for eight innings against three pitchers. It was the first shutout by Detroit's staff, and the seventh suffered by the Yankees.

A's 5, BOSOX 3

Sturdivant, the big right-hander the Yankees traded to Kansas City last week, gained his first victory with 7⅓ innings of four-hit shutout relief that beat Boston 5-3. That pushed the fourth-place A's within 2½ games of the lead and also kept the Yankees, who skidded to seventh, from replacing Boston in the cellar.

In the National League, Milwaukee regained a 2½-game lead over San Francisco as Bob Rush beat the Giants 3-0 with a five-hitter. Pittsburgh held third by beating St. Louis 3-0 behind Harvey Haddix's eight-hit pitching after the Cards had pocketed a 3-1 victory in the completion of a game suspended May 3. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 5-4. Chicago at Philadelphia was rained out.

Wilhelm, 35, who has a nine-game streak in a carry-over from last season, found himself in the middle of the gnats in the first inning at Chicago after giving up a one-out walk. When all else—burning paper, towels and bug spray—failed, the gnats finally were chased by a firecracker bomb ordered exploded by White Sox president Bill Veeck.

BOTTLED BUGS?

Veeck cracked afterward that "since I probably will be accused of having something to do with these bugs, I might as well say now I have had them in a bottle and have been training them for several years for just such an occasion."

The Bugs did upset Wilhelm enough to end his shutout string at 22⅓ innings—the White Sox scored on their only other walk, a hit batter and an infield out after the 16-minute delay—but he came off a winner again with a seven-hitter.

The Orioles came from behind against loser Bob Shaw (4-2) on Billy Klaus' tying, two-run homer in the sixth, then won it in the ninth on consecutive singles by Willie Tasby, Gene Woodling and Gus Triandos.

Rom Samford's homer off loser reliever Bud Podbielan won for Washington. The Nats had taken a 2-1 lead in the sixth on rookie Bob Allison's solo 10th homer off Mudcat Grant. Cleveland tied it again in the eighth on a walk, Woody Held's double and a sacrifice fly by Vic Power, who had homered for the first Tribe run. Peter Ramos (6-5) went all the way for the Nats.

YANKEE KILLER

Mossi (4-2) won his fifth in a row over the Yankees as the Tigers, who finished with three hits, beat Duke Maas (3-3) with single runs in the second and third. Their only hit in the first eight frames came in the second, when Mossi's sacrafice fly made it 1-0 after a walk and Frank Bolling's single. The third-inning run scored on an error, walk and two long flies.

Sturdivant (1-2), who needed Rip Coleman's help when he tired in the ninth, relieved starter Ray Herbert after the Red Sox scored three in the first. The A's took the lead against loser Frank Sullivan (2-4) in a three-run third capped by Hal Smith's two-run double.

Ted Williams had only one hit, a double in the big Boston first, but it was his 2,500th in the majors.

Giants Hold Realtors To Tie In M.V. League

The upset-minded Giants held the undefeated Realtors to an 11-11 tie last night in a Mill Valley National Little League surprise at Mill Valley's Boyle Park. They will play off the stalemate at a later date.

In the M. V. American League the Braves downed the Indians, 12-4.

Basilio Won't Sign Pact With Ray; Wants Fullmer

NEW YORK (AP)—Ray Robinson still is world middleweight champion in New York, but Carmen Basilio is making plans to fight someone else for the title.

The New York State Athletic Commission decision to overlook technicalties and allow Sugar Ray to retain a crown he has not defended since March 25, 1958, was deeply resented by Basilio, the No. 1 challenger.

After the commission hearing, attended by both Robinson and Basilio yesterday, Basilio telegraphed National Boxing Assn. officials expressing his readiness to sign for a title bout with Gene Fullmer as decreed by the NBA. The NBA already had stripped Robinson of the championship.

The commission decision was based on public interest in the title and recognition of a contract between Robinson and Sam Rose of Philadelphia for a Basilio-Robinson fight in that city.

Basilio did not sign the contract, which called for him to receive a minimum of $250,000, or 20 per cent of the proceeds, with Robinson getting 45 per cent.

"I want a chance to dicker about terms," Basilio said. "They're telling me what I got to take."

Robinson, who said "justice has prevailed," accused Basilio of refusing his offer to make more money than he ever made for a fight before so he could fight a man (Fullmer) Robinson had knocked out.

Bob Rush Zeroes S. F. As Champs Increase Lead

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants won't make first place while in Milwaukee.

That issue—a kind of wild dream being nurtured by Giant fans after the San Franciscans copped the opener of their four-game set with the Braves—was shattered last night.

Milwaukee's Bob Rush, who used to blaze them in there with the best of them, but now resorts to plenty of mental exercise while throwing softer pitches, notched himself a neat five-hit shutout. The Braves won, 3-0.

The loss dropped the Giants two and a half games behind the Braves and gave the Milwaukeans a 4-4 record with San Francisco this season. Last year Milwaukee beat the Giants 16 times while losing six.

Jack Sanford (6-5), is Bill Rigney's mound choice to go against the Braves tonight. He will probably be opposed by Carlton Willey (2-1).

MATHEWS HOMERS

Stu Miller was tagged with his first loss of the season last night after winning three games. He was touched for nine hits, including a first inning homer by Eddie Mathews, his 17th of the season.

Frank Torre singled the second Brave run in the fifth inning and Hank Aaron scored the final tally when Andre Rodgers booted one at shortstop.

Willie Kirkland and Daryl Spencer collected two hits apiece for the Giants and Rodgers got the only other blow. They were all singles.

Rush held the Giants in check throughout. Not a Giant reached second base. The big right hander struck out eight. He posted his fourth win of the season.

10 TO 1 SHOT WINNER OF EPSOM DERBY

EPSOM, England (AP)—Sir Humphrey de Trafford's Parthia, a 10-to-1 shot, today won the 180th and richest running of the Epsom Derby.

G. A. Oldham's Fidalgo was second. There was a photo for third between Baron Guy de Rothschild's Shantung and Aly Khan's St. Crespin III, with Shantung getting the decision.

Two American-owned entries, Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's Dan Cupid and Josephine Bay Paul's Arvak failed to get in the money.

An Irish hospitals sweepstakes is based on the outcome of the race.

Parthia won the mile and a half race over a hard-baked turf course by a half-length. Fidalgo was another half-length ahead of Shantung. The running time was 2:36, compared with Mahmound's record of 2:33.8.

CHEVY 7 (COUNT 'EM) 7 BESTS

Independent experts and official figures prove Chevrolet's ahead of its field in seven big ways

BEST BRAKES . . . In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR*, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not: Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. BEST TRADE-IN . . . Check the figures in any official N.A.D.A.† Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." BEST STYLE . . . Popular Science magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling . . ." It's the only low-priced car that's unmistakably modern in every line. BEST ECONOMY . . . No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car. BEST ROOM . . . Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.‡ make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. BEST ENGINE . . . Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As Sports Cars Illustrated puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price." BEST RIDE . . . You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But Motor Trend magazine expresses it this way: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

No wonder more people are buying Chevrolets in 1959 than any other car!

Mutts Vs. Crossbreeds As Pets; Doc Votes For Special 'Hybrid'

Do mutts make the best pets for boys? Or purebred dogs? Some weeks ago I asked you to write, telling me your choice. You voted in favor of crossbreeds. You said pooches of uncertain ancestry made better pets than canine artistocrats.

The majority in favor of mutts was overwhelming. You said they are hardy, friendly, loyal. You praised their even dispositions. But there was a catch to some of the letters. Many of you said that mutts were the only dogs you'd owned. You said you had no basis for comparing purebreds with them.

Those of you who said you had owned both purebreds and mutts were divided, 50-50. Half of you favored crossbred pooches. Half of you favored purebreds. A number of veterinarians wrote. They also were divided, equally.

Me? I vote for a special type of crossbreed. I favor the first generation mixture of two purebred lines. They have an advantage, called "hybrid vigor." They are apt to be healthier, huskier and brighter than either of their immediate ancestors. Ask a biology teacher about hybrid vigor.

Boys need dogs. I hope your son can have one. Pick your pooch carefully. Raise him properly. Then it won't matter too much whether he's a mutt or a purebred. Avoid high strung dogs. Try to get one that is not too quarrelsome. Get one that is healthy, friendly, responsive and intelligent enough to learn. Don't neglect him. Feed him properly. He'll teach your son some important lessons.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My 17-year-old boy owns a hot rod. He belongs to a teenage car club. His group wants to raise money to build a drag strip outside of town. What will it cost them? Where can they go for wise adult leadership?"
—Mrs. M.H.

(A) I've checked with one of the national leaders in hot rod racing. He says a safe drag strip costs from $50,000 up, unless an unused airstrip is available. Probably the boys can find wise leadership in either the police department traffi division or among the teachers in high schools. Be sure they get a good leader.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, June 3, the 154th day of the year, with 211 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The moring star it Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1888 the immortal baseball classic, "Casey at the Bat," by Ernest Thayer, was published for the first time (in the San Francisco Examiner.)

In 1935 the French liner Normandie completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic in four days, 11 hours, 42 seconds. The trip established a new record.

In 1937 the Duke of Windsor—formerly England's King Edward VIII—married Wallis Warfield Simpson of Baltimore, after giving up his throne for her.

In 1940 the allies completed the evacuation of Dunkerque, France, during World War II. The operation began May 28 and brought some 337,000 British, French and Belgian troops safely to British ports.

In 1948 the world's largest telescope was dedicated at Mt. Palomar Observatory in California.

A thought for today: Author Victor Hugo wrote: "Where the telescope ends, the microscope begins. Which of the two has the grand view?"

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, IT'S SCHOOL — This scene may resemble a jazz record jam session. That's what it is, but with a difference. Philip F. Elwood, Albany High School history teacher and Berkeley jazz disc jockey, yesterday afternoon used the records to illustrate a short jazz history survey for seventh and eighth grade students at A. E. Kent School. From the left, around the record player, are Elwood, Betsey Winters, Don Rogers, Arlene Maffie, Tom Gladney and Lisa French. (Independent-Journal photo)

Gate Playhouse Sets 'Visit To Small Planet'

THEA BAMA
In Gate Playhouse lead

When Sausalito's Gate Playhouse presents its next attraction, "Visit to a Small Planet," opening a five-week run June 12, the leading lady and two additional cast members will claim Marin as their home.

Thea Bama, playing the leading femine role, makes her home in Mill Valley while a student at College of Marin. She has danced professionally in New York, tutored nationally with the American Concert Assn., played summer stock in Vermont and New Jersey, and made telvision appearances with Milton Berle and Dave Garroway.

Playing an erudite visitor from outer space in the comedy will be Tom Erhardt of Sausalito, last seen in "Waltz of the Toreadors" by the Sausalito Little Theater.

A major supporting part will be done by Gloria Collison, also of Sausalito.

Written by Gore Vidal, "Visit to a Small Planet" has been described as "a mixture of flying saucers, Washington political fandangoes and Army entanglements in the halls of the Pentagon."

Director wil be Leslie Abbott, who also did "Pajama Game" and "The Boy Friend," opening productions at the Gate Playhouse.

Tickets will be available at the boxoffice on performance nights.

Film Scheduled On Resuscitation

Mouth to mouth breathing, the newest and most effective method of resuscitation, will be demonstrated in an Army research film at the Reed School auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow, according to Mrs. Robert Bastian, executive secretary of the Tiburon Playhouse Guild, sponsor of the showing.

The film will also be shown Friday at 10:55 a.m. and 1:10 p.m. during physical education periods at Reed School. Adults are welcome at these showings, Mrs. Bastian said.

Dr. Joseph Guthrie of Ross will discuss the mouth-to mouth breathing technique which is used for reviving persons in deep coma.

Adventist School To Graduate 2

The Fairfax Seventh-day Adventist Church School will hold graduation exercises for two students at 8 o'clock tonight in the school auditorium at 75 Park road, Fairfax.

The two graduates will be Judy Foster of 1476 Pastel lane, Novato, and Steve Munson of 211 Picnic avenue, San Rafael, announced Mrs. Alice La Griede, principal.

Mrs. La Griede, also, will be leaving the Fairfax church school. She has decided to retire after many years of teaching in Arizona, Washington and California. Her home is in Angwin, Napa County.

Play To Have Special Lighting

Special lighting for the "ghostly sequences" in the production of "A Ghost of a Chance" is being readied this week at the Tiburon Playhouse by the Cove Players' production staff, according to president William J. Carter.

The play, billed as a "comedy of hex and sex," will open June 11 with succeeding performances scheduled for June 12, 13, 18, 19 and 20.

The lighting effects are an essential part of the comedy-fantasy which revolves around an ancient English haunted castle, according to author-director Dan Totheroh.

Tickets for the six performances are now on sale at Leonard Lynn's on Tiburon's Main street, the Caprice restaurant in Tiburon and the J. M. Radio-TV in Bel Aire.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Donald Robinson at 741 Tiburon boulevard. Curtain is at 8:30 each night.

PANEL TO AIR MAKING PUNKS' NAMES PUBLIC

Should the names of juvenile felons be made public, like those of adult felons?

This question will be discussed on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Participants wil be Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Police Chief Donald T. Wood of San Anselmo, Chief County Probation Officer Walter Busher and Juvenile Officer George Alberigi of the Sausalito Police Department.

Kitty Oppenheimer will moderate the program which will be rebroadcast from a recording Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Liquor Bill Signed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed into law a bill exempting liquor licensees holding permits as of Sept. 15, 1959, from the ban within one and one-half miles of Stanford University in Palo Alto.

Kent School Pupils Learn Jazz History

A thumbnail sketch of the history of jazz wound up yesterday afternoon for seventh and eighth grade students at A. E. Kent School in Kentfield.

Part of Kentfield district's "enrichment" of its regular course of study, the special jazz history session was arranged by Robert Shore, Kentfield consultant.

The man who outlined jazz history and accompanied his remarks with recordings was Philip F. Elwood, an Albany High School history teacher and Berkeley FM radio disc jockey with a reputation for outstanding jazz programming.

Elwood gave two one-hour presentations. The second was yesterday afternoon. He traced jazz from its "backgrounds" in spirituals and piano ragtime through the swing era to modern experiments in sound.

The State Fair of Texas at Dallas is the largest annual exposition in Texas in terms of attendance.

Extra Period Set At Novato High

Novato High School students are being offered a chance to register for an additional period of study next fall.

An early morning (7:40 o'clock) period will offer optional classes in Russian, science, arts and crafts, typing, mechanical drawing, chorus, band and workshop.

The classes will begin a full period before regular classes begin and are worth full credit, said Principal Robert McKeay. They are open to all high school students.

Suddenly, Life Has Become So Simple

By AMBER EUSTUS

It would be very easy to take a big freezer compartment for granted. After years of deprivation, we are still in that prayerful state where we say a little blessing on the machinery —and, indeed, all civilization— as we reach for the portion of already-cooked rice or a sandwich for today's lunch.

Ah, the luxury of buying with quantity no object. And the delight of being able to defer a savory serving of stew which, epicurean as it was, becomes merely a leftover the next day. A week later, the same dish is a remembered delicacy—and a precious time-saver.

Already, we are experimenting with shortcuts to relieve a crammed schedule. It is very simple one night a week to get dinner and be ready to leave the house within an hour. But scrambled eggs one night a week is sufficient, and hamburger has a way of spoiling before you know it. Likewise the kitty's liver.

Naturally, the freezer compartment is no perennial horn of plenty. It yields only as it is stocked. And stocking, too, has limits—and limitations.

The trick is to shop with both the freezer's capacity and your own needs in mind. Chickens frozen hard as a rock are scarcely a boon, since they will cook to the consistency of leather unless thawed quite slowly. Very well, then, the weekend special on split fryers is perfect for Thursday, when there is time to tend a broiler. Put them in the freezer at once, remove to a corner of the refrigerator Tuesday evening.

There is, however, no reason why you can't broil two or three at the same time. It takes much less forethought to warm a ready-cooked bird. Nor is there any reason why you can't stew a fryer. In the old days, the stewing chickens were much cheaper (and tougher), but they were the old-fashioned, flavorful reds. The youngsters were likely to be somewhat wanting in flavor.

Today, the situation is reversed. The fryers are raised for flavor. The stewing birds are usually retired layers — generally white leghorns.

So long as the broiler or stew pot is going (and when chickens are cheap, there is nothing cheaper), cook up more than one. Cube some of the meat in broth for chicken a la king or curry, pack some of it for chicken salad, and chop some fine for sandwich filling.

Latest discovery: cube breasts of chicken (broiled, braised or boiled), toss with finely minced parsley and chives and anoint with sour cream dressing. Pack into a firm roll and wrap in foil.

Simply slice off a section, put in a plastic container on a bed of chopped celery or greens, and all will be chill and crisp come noon. A very neat dodge for the calorie counter who carries lunches.

Of course, a small plastic container of water frozen in advance will keep any lunch chill until noon.

A roast or tongue bought on special and roasted should be frozen forthwith. Warning: slice it first if you plan on using it by degrees for quick reheating or sandwiches. It takes a power saw to cut through the frozen block.

The freezer comes in very handy for pet food, particularly if your animal is set on fresh horsemeat, liver, kidneys and the like. Keep half of the week's supply at refrigerator temperature, freeze the other half until mid-week.

If you forget to thaw it until needed, simply warm in a gentle (!) oven. There may be a few protests from the pet department at the delay, but the critter will be happier with the fresh meat. Cats are extremely particular.

Certain commodities are much easier to handle if frozen first. Brains, for instance, are so easy to dice in a block and they thaw quickly in the pan.

These are a few of the offbeat uses for that blessing of our mechanized world. It would be a waste of paper to exclaim over the benefits of a roster of fresh-frozen vegetables and a selection of juices. Incidentally, no need to mix a whole pitcherful of orange juice at once. You can spoon out the frozen concentrate for each glassful.

Two essential aids to full freezer enjoyment are plastic and foil. Without proper wrapping, the food will very shortly dry out.

If you don't think you are extremely dependent on refrigeration, just pull the plug on the box some time, and stock it with old fashioned ice from one of those roadside kiosks. Just see how long things keep!

Real Hollandaise For Artichokes

A real, genuine butter-and-egg Hollandaise Sauce to do honors to the artichoke (or what have you).

ARTICHOKES WITH HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

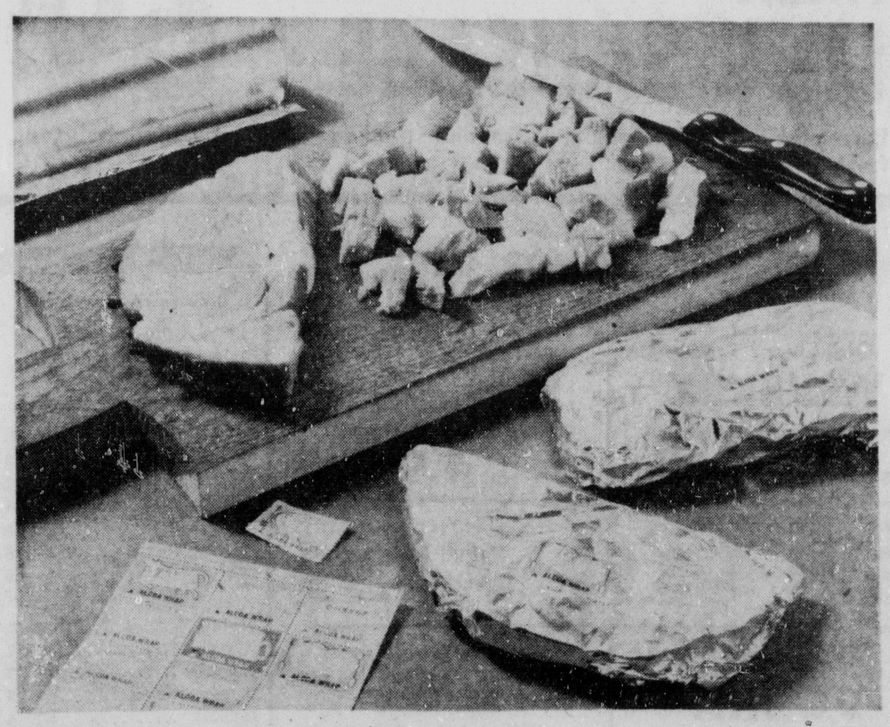
Ingredients: 1 egg yolk, ¼ cup (4 tablespoons) butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 large artichokes (cooked and drained).

Method: Put the egg yolk in a small deep heat-resistant glass mixing bowl. Have butter cut in four pieces and add. Fill a small iron skillet half full with water; bring water to a boil; turn heat low so water is just below simmering point. Do no allow water to boil or even simmer.

Put the bowl with the egg yolk and butter in it in the skillet; stir with a small French whisk until egg yolk and butter are combined and mixture is about as thick as mayonnaise.

Remove from water at once. Whisk in lemon juice. Turn into 2 small containers and serve with hot drained artichokes. (Small Oriental - type teacups—without handles—are nice for individual portions of Hollandaise Sauce.)

Makes 2 servings.



FORESIGHT — When you "buy big," keep the freezer in mind. And when loading the freezer, keep ultimate use in mind. A few slices off a whole ham make dinner another day. Cube some for superb Sunday omelet.

A Freezer Comes To The Aid Of Party Who Packs Lunches

If you have lunches to pack for your family, the freezer compartment of your refrigerator can be your greatest work saver.

The trick is to prepare quantities of luncheon foods in advance—then wrap them in aluminum foil and freeze until needed. The list of freezable food items includes sandwiches, cake, pie, and cookies. Such foods can be taken directly from the freezer for luncheon packaging. They will thaw out fresh and edible.

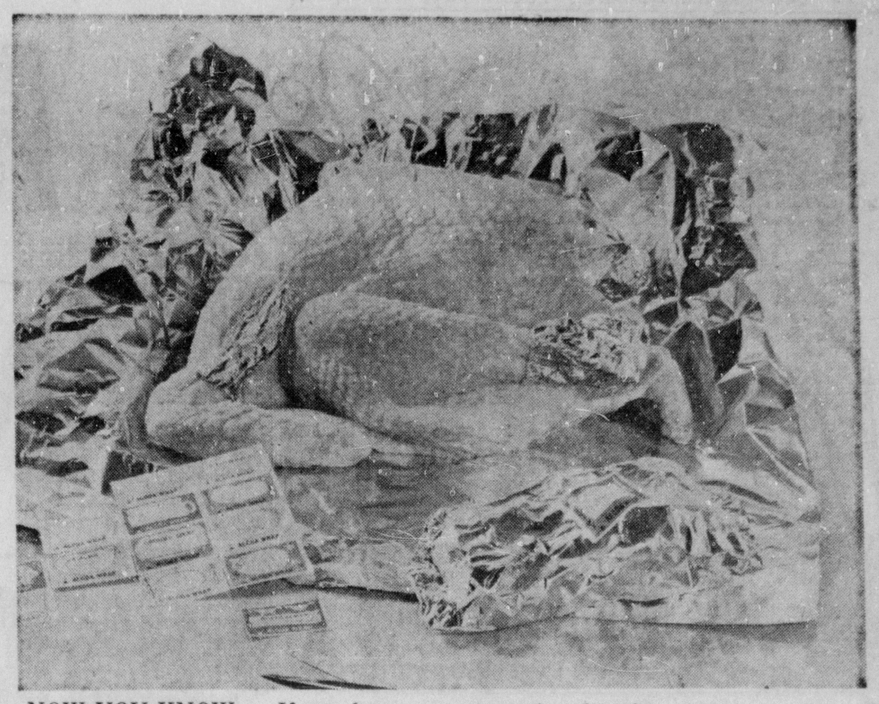
One time-saving technique involves storing cake. Your favorite cake recipe, or a ready-mix cake, can be baked and sliced; and each slice wrapped in aluminum foil. These unit-packaged slices are then frozen for doling out as needed for lunches. Small packets of oven-fresh cookies, or slices of pie, also can be kept fresh in this fashion.

LABELS, PLEASE

With aluminum foil, certified by university tests as the ideal wrapping material, it is important to identify the contents of each package. This is easily accomplished with new gummed marking labels, now available in packages of Alcoa Wrap aluminum foil. The labels use a specially developed adhesive, designed to hold fast in sub-zero temperatures.

As refrigerator freezer compartments continue to grow in size, and home freezing units gain in popularity, proper freezing technique is becoming important to everyone. Actually, food freezing techniques are relatively simple, but some hard and fast rules must be followed.

LUNCHBOX READY — Cake stays oven-fresh and frosting moist if frozen in advance. If the icing is gooey, freeze before wrapping. Label each piece, so you know what you're getting from the freezer.



NOW YOU KNOW — If you have cursed those little nobs and bones which poke holes in your careful wrapping, here's your answer. Prewrap them in foil to save the outer wrapping. Label or weight and date.

YOUR FREEZER ABC's

Ever Remove Frozen Roast To Find It Shrunken In Size?

Did you ever remove a cut of meat from your freezer, only to find it dehydrated and shrunken in size?

If so, it means you haven't learned some of the ABC's of freezing foods. The importance of undertanding freezer technique is daily becoming more necessary as refrigerator-freezer compartments grow in size. A freezer chest, properly used, can be a boon to every housewife or a disappointment if not used properly.

A vital first step is proper wrapping of meats. The average freezer chest probably is used more for meat than any other foodstuff. Yet, few people pay attention to the fact that frozen meat can deteriorate rapidly, if not correctly wrapped in aluminum foil.

Meats should be properly marked, too. Otherwise, a housewife, after opening a foil package, cannot re-seal securely enough to prevent damaging air from contacting the meat. The marking job today has been made easier than ever before with gummed marking labels, now enclosed in packages of household aluminum foil.

When wrapping meats, use these steps to insure maximum protection:

Freezer or heavy duty foil in either 12 or 18-inch widths is best for freezing. However, double thicknesses of regular household foil also may be used.

1. Place food in center of sheet of foil. If sheet is not large enough, fold two lengths together, using a double fold.

2. When freezing hamburgers, or other meats for storage in more than one layer, place a piece of foil between each layer.

3. Place small folded pieces of foil over sharp corners of bones, if necessary. Bring the two torn edges together above food; fold, then fold again (drug store wrap), pressing foil down close to food. Fold ends over and over, pressing close to food.

If you'd like a handy booklet, which outlines all the important points in freezing foods properly, write to Food Editor, Independent-Journal, P. O. Box 330, San Rafael.

Chocolate Raisin Drop Cookies

Ingredients: 1¼ cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate (melted), ⅓ cup milk, 1½ cups seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained), ½ cup chopped walnuts.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla; beat in egg thoroughly. Blend in chocolate. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and milk until smooth. Stir in raisins and nuts. Drop generous teaspoonfuls onto buttered baking sheet, a couple of inches apart, bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until baked through. Cool on wire rack. Store in tightly covered container. Makes about 6 dozen cookies.

Lace the Ribs on a Spit; Lace With a Fiery Sauce

Barbecued ribs on a spit give your outdoor cookery an unmatched flavor.

Lace ribs, accordion style, on the spit. Let them rotate over slow coals one hour or until the meat is well done (no pink snipped between bones). The last 15 minutes, toss damp hickory on the coals and basting the meat well with:

REVVED-UP RIB SAUCE

1 cup extra-hot catsup
½ cup water
½ cup molasses
¼ cup vinegar
3 tablespoons Worcestershire
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
2 cloves garlic, minced

Mix ingredients well and let stand to mellow at least a few hours.

Salad Andaluz

A salad idea from Spain: combine thinly-sliced oranges and thinly-sliced onion, marinate in a dressing of 3 tablespoons Spanish olive oil, 1 tablespoon wine vinegar, a pinch of cumin or curry powder and salt to taste. Serve on lettuce.

Scarlet Cooler

Peas—To Can Or Freeze 'Em? (Plus Strawberry-Rhubarb Jam)

Use peas in porridge hot, peas in porridge cold, but DON'T use them nine days old! In other words, whether they are to be canned or frozen, use peas when they are young, green throughout and garden fresh. If you choose to freeze peas, they must be blanched (scalded) and then chilled and drained before being placed in an airtight container. If, as do the majority of homemakers, you prefer to can them, you may use either the hot or the raw pack method. The raw pack saves a little time, but the hot pack usually utilizes the jar space to a better advantage. Processing is the same for both methods. Some recipes for canning peas call for 1 teaspoon each salt and sugar to the quart, and some for salt only. There is no reason other than flavor, for adding either salt or sugar. It is most important to examine jars, adjust caps and test seal according to the manufacturers' instructions.

TO CAN PEAS

HOT PACK: Shell, sore, rinse and drain peas. Cover with hot water and boil 2 or 3 minutes. Pour hot, into hot jars leaving about 1 inch head space. Add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart and boiling water, if needed, to cover peas. Process both pints and quarts 40 minutes at 10 pounds steam pressure. If peas are extra large, process 10 minutes longer.

Raw Pack: Shell, sort, rinse and drain peas. Pour peas into hot jars leaving about 1 inch head space. Add 1 teaspoon salt to quart and fill jars to within ½ inch of top with boiling water. "Knife out" air bubbles. process both pints and quarts 40 minutes at 10 pounds steam pressure.

TO FREEZE PEAS

Wash, shell, sort, rinse, drain and scald peas (not more than 2 quarts at a time) 2 or 3 minutes in boiling water. Then put them into ice cold water long enough to chill. Drain peas and pour them into tapered jars. Screw cap tight and place in coldest part of freezer.

STRAWBERRY-RHUBARB JAM

This jam is easy to make. The color is lovely. The flavor delightful. This is what goes into the jam:

- 2 cups thinly sliced rhubarb
- 2 cups sliced or chopped strawberries
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 2½ ounce box powdered pectin
- 5½ cups sugar
- Red food color

And this is how to mix, cook and can:

Put measured fruit, salt, lemon juice and pectin in large (4 to 6 quart) saucepan. Stir mixture until it reaches a fast boil, then add sugar. Stir well and add a few drops of color—jam may fade in a short time unless color is added. Bring mixture to fast boil—you can't stop a fast boil by stirring. Let boil exactly 1 minute.

Remove pan from heat, skim foam from jam and quickly pour boiling hot jam to within ¼ inch of top of half pint tapered jar. Place home canning lid on jar, screw band tight and invert jar. When all jars are filled and sealed, stand them upright to cool. Check jars after they have cooled for about 30 minutes. If the fruit has risen to top, gently shake jar to mix fruit and syrup. After jars have stood about 12 hours, remove bands and test the seal.

Note: Sometimes, this jam turns out to be a "slow setter." If in a hurry for it, better use ⅓ cup orange juice and ⅔ cup water instead of the full cup of orange juice.

STRAWBERRY PRESERVES

Try this one if you are out for a blue ribbon. But to win, you must start with firm-ripe, medium sized, fine textured berries.

- 2 quarts prepared berries
- 6½ cups sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons lemon juice

You will need a large kettle of boiling water, so put water on to boil before preparing berries. (You have to wash, drain, hull (cap) and measure them. Each quart of berries should be full but not heaped—the cups of sugar should be level measure.) Put berries in colander or square of cheesecloth and dunk into the boiling water for exactly 2 minutes—be sure every berry is under water. Drain berries and put them and 4 cups of sugar, salt and lemon juice in a saucepan.

Gently mix sugar and berries. Bring to boil and boil 3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Add the other 2½ cups of sugar and boil 9 minutes. Shake pan to prevent berries sticking. Turn preserves into shallow glass or enamelware pan and let stand in cool place 18 to 24 hours—shake pan every now and then.

Pack the preserves into tapared half pint or pint jars. Put lid on jar, screw band tight and process at simmering (almost but not quite boiling) for 20 minutes.

P.S. There is no law against adding a drop or two of red food color to strawberry preserves. It will help them to look younger when they reach middle-age. No point in bothering about it if preserves won't last that long around your house.

WHO BRINGS THE BACON?

"Bringing home the bacon" is an old cliche. To date, Independent-Journal carriers are not considered providers of this sort of substance, but things are changing.

A prominent manufacturer of above-mentioned symbolic product—Morrell by name—puts the paper boy in just such a function by offering a coupon worth 15 cents toward the purchase of a package of you-know-what brand.

Your interest in this offer will no doubt to compounded by the additional offer of three more coupons. All you have to do is send the from panel of the carton of bacon (which you bought for 15 cents under regular price) to the company, which will send you three more coupons worth a total of 45 cents.

In this roundabout way, your I-J carrier brings a free pound of bacon.

WELCOME HOME — Your favorite barbecued meat balls, greenbeans with almonds and broiled peaches greet the weary vacationers. Each portion is wrapped with foil and waiting to be popped into the oven. P.S.—No pans for mother to wash. Good idea any time of year.

NEW ANSWERS — Nothing ordinary about this picnic, even though it takes off from some old favorite. There's a dash of spice in the salad, which combines potato, lima beans and frankfurters. Rolls have special filling. Three-decker squares are filled with cream cheese and jelly.

Pack Gourmet Kind Of Picnic (The Budget Will Never Know)

Warm weather calls for still more picnics, and the question of what to take may need some new answers by now.

For economy—and good eating—try this menu: frankfurter rolls with a savory fish-'n-egg salad filling, three-decker cream cheese and jelly sandwich squares, a salad combining lima beans, potatoes and frankfurters—and, of course, a welcome supply of bottled carbonated beverages. It's a hearty, nutritious combination, yet the cost is low.

FISH-'N-EGG ROLLS
(6-8 sandwiches)

- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 eggs, hard cooked
- ½ cup canned mackerel, drained
- ¼ cup minced green pepper
- ½ cup chopped celery
- 6-8 frankfurter rolls

SALAD GREENS

Blend mayonnaise, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice; stir in mashed hard cooked egg yolks and minced egg whites; add mackerel, green pepper and celery. Line frankfurter rolls with salad greens and fill with mixture. (Makes about 1½ cups filling). Chill filled rolls; then wrap individually for carrying.

MAINDISH PICNIC SALAD
(serves 6-8)

- 6 medium size potatoes
- 5 frankfurters
- 1 box frozen lima beans
- ⅔ cup diced celery
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ⅛ teaspoon thyme
- ⅛ teaspoon marjoram
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pepper, dash
- ⅓ cup cola carbonated beverage
- Salad greens

Cook potatoes in jackets; cool, peel and dice. Parboil frankfurters; cool and slice. Cook lima beans according to directions on package; cool. Combine potatoes, frankfurters, lima beans, celery and onion. Blend into mayonnaise the vinegar, spices and cola, and fold into salad mixture.

Chill well before packing in refrigerator storage box for easy carrying and serving. Makes 2 quarts salad.

Chinese Twist A Chinese Twist

Ingredients: 1 small compact green cabbage (1⅛ pounds), 3 to 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup water, ½ to 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 to 2 teaspoons soy sauce, salt, pepper.

Method: Use outer very green leaves of cabbage. Wash and dry cabbage, cut in half. Cut with a knife into shreds several inches long and ¼ to ½ inch wide. There should be about 7 cups.

Melt butter in 12-inch skillet; add shredded cabbage; toss cabbage well to coat with melted butter; cook several minutes over low heat. Sprinkle cabbage with water; cover tightly.

Cook as quickly as possible without scorching until cabbage is just tender-crisp — 5 to 8 minutes. Season with sugar and soy sauce, mixing well. Makes 6 servings.

Marin Unit Of Junior League Hostesses Play Day Monday

The Marin Unit of the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc., played hostess Monday to members of the league from San Francisco, San Mateo and Palo Alto for a Play Day.

The spacious gardens of the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker provided the background for members, usually engrossed in volunteer activities, to enjoy a relaxing day complete with luncheon, swimming and bridge.

Seen checking in the guests were Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and Mrs. Clarence Amontte Jr., both sporting fancy sun hats, indicative of the spirit of the day. Mrs. Pomeroy telling of her plans to take her two boys on a trip to New York and Washington in the middle of June. Mrs. John Gardiner Jr. joining the group, to tell of her plans for a vacation in La Jolla.

Greeting the guests were Mrs. David Plant, chairman of the annual Play Day, and Mrs. Richard Hartshorne, chairman of the Marin Unit. Mrs. Plant had returned the night before from a trip with her husband, Dave, to New Orleans. Mrs. Hartshorne, wearing a fancy butterfly trimmed hat, was equally excited over the recent purchase of a new house in San Anselmo, and the forthcoming trip of her son, Dickie, to accompany his grandfather, Judge Richard Hartshorne of New Jersey, to his 50th reunion at Princeton.

SUMMER PLANS

Mesdames Walter Busse, Donald Barbour, George Cunningham Jr., and Robert Danielson were hearing the enviable plans of Mrs. Richard Erskine who leaves shortly, with her three children, to meet her husband, Dick, in Rome, where they will make headquarters for the coming year. Also completing the group as a guest of Mrs. G. Stanleigh Arnold, was Miss Suzanne Saunders, niece of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, of Ross, who is a transfer from Mexico City. Suzanne told of her recent camping trip in the Carmel Valley and her plans to join the Career Group in San Francisco.

Another group, absorbed in a bridge game — Mesdames Brace Hayden, Harry Johnson, John Menzies and Raymond Hornby. Still another foursome, Mesdames Eugene Kern Jr., J. R. B. Ellis, William Milliken and Frank Barsocchini, who donned a flowered hat to match her print bathing suit.

Summer plans were also the topic of conversation for a Belvedere group. Mrs. Paul Ramey and Mrs. William Johnstone plan a trip to Carmel. Mrs. Christopher Rivers Jr. told Mrs. Tim Harris of her week's trip to the Dardenelles, in Sonora Pass. Mrs. Robert Gros, recent enthusiastic Lagoon dweller, told that both she and her husband, Bob, plan taking sailing lessons over the summer.

Mrs. Harold Rooks intrigued Mrs. Alfred P. Otto Jr. and Mrs. Lawrence Symmes Jr. with her plans of a proposed trip to Seattle with her children, to visit her family; to be followed by a three-week stay on Guemes Island, part of the San Juan group, for sun and salmon fishing.

FROM CITY

Over from San Francisco were Mrs. Carl Livingson Jr., League president, Mrs. Hayden Shooey and Mrs. Harry Likas (Ann Jessup). Mrs. Richard Newell amused this group with animated tales of her family's recent tour of Disneyland. Mrs. Victor Burner Jr. also compared notes on her recent trip south.

Also seen were Mesdames William Niccolls and William Bricca who were discussing future tennis dates.

All members returned home late in the afternoon having had a marvelous day for catching up on bridge, hearing summer plans of friends, and adding "relieving of sunburn" to the next day's agenda.

The Marin Chapter of Dominican College Alumnae Assn. will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Pennafort Hall. Members are urged to attend the final meeting before vacation. Project reports will be made.

B'nai B'rith Luncheon Set Tomorrow

A humorous review will highlight the next regular luncheon meeting of the Marin County chapter of B'nai B'rith Women tomorrow at the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael, at 12 noon.

Under the direction of Miss Sydney Blumenfeld, the program will gently satirize possible forthcoming programs of the B'nai B'rith chapter.

Participating in the program will be the Mesdames Art Abrahams, Jack Berliner, Morris Bode, Sam Goldbaum, Fred Fleischmann, Fred Horn, Philip Landa, Cecil Ormond, Jack Shane, Walter Strauss and Morris Thau.

The luncheon committee of the day, headed by Mrs. Max Schapiro, includes the Mesdames Harry Harris, J. Herscowitz and W. Landesman.

Pohlis Return From Trip To The Orient

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pohli returned to Mill Valley Saturday from a trip to the Orient, where they visited their younger son, Lt. R. R. Pohli, USN, his wife, Jean, and son, Bobbie, at Sasebo, Japan.

The Pohlis left April 5 on the President Wilson for a tour which took them to Honolulu, Yokohama, Manila and Hong Kong before they flew to Tokyo and Sasebo. Lt. Pohli is stationed there as commander of the minesweeper "Vireo."

They then flew to Tokyo again and had been in the hotel only half an hour when Cmdr. Roy A. Ibach, USN (Ret.) and Mrs. Ibach of Mill Valley called and joined them for dinner that evening. The Ibachs are also on a tour of the Orient and are expected home soon.

On the return trip the Pohlis stopped again at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu while they visisted Mrs. Pohli's sister, Mrs. K. H. Blackshear.

When they returned to Mill Valley, they were welcomed home Saturday evening at a dinner in their home attended by their son, Capt. Emil Pohli Jr., U.S. Air Force (Ret.) and his wife and daughter, Anne of Oakland, and Mrs. Maybelle Seltzer of Mill Valley.

'House Beautiful' Party Editor To Speak At Center, June 10

The art of giving parties that are both different and exciting will be explained by Virginia Stanton, party editor of "House Beautiful" magazine, at 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 10, at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Mrs. Stanton approaches party giving with two precepts in mind: that a party should be exotic and informal, and that the hostess herself should be well enough prepared so that she can relax and enjoy herself.

In her demonstration, which she calls "Entertaining with a Flair," Mrs. Stanton chooses different themes, such as a national dish or a kind of food. A menu featuring bouillabaisse for instance, would be coordinated with unusual accessories carrying out the sea food motif: flowers might be arranged in a shell, place mats would have a maritime background, and even the dishes would be suggestive of the sea.

Mrs. Stanton's menus stress gourmet food that can be prepared ahead for ease of service.

The wife of nationally famous architect Robert Stanton of Carmel Valley, the "House Beautiful" editor has recently been touring the Far East, and is expected to enliven her discussion with new ideas picked up during her travels.

The Northgate Group, which has Mrs. John Buresh of San Rafael as coordinator for the event, and the Decorations Guild, with Mrs. Victor Guilder of San Anselmo, are jointly co-sponsoring the demonstration to benefit the Center's building fund.

PARTY EDITOR of "House Beautiful" magazine, Virginia Stanton, will be the speaker at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, June 10 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Sponsors of the talk are the Northgate Group and the Decorations Guild.

Assisting with arrangements for Mrs. Stanton's appearance, her first in Marin in a number of years, are Mesdames Robert Tuckey, Kentfield, and Guilder, table decorations; L. D. Gaisford, Greenbare, tickets; Martin Gordon, Mill Valley, telephone; John Gaidano, San Anselmo, tea; Marion Ludlow, San Rafael; and Victor Larsen, San Anselmo, Teasel Room workshop chairman.

Scene of the affair will be the charming Northgate outdoor area at the Center and a tea will follow Mrs. Stanton's demonstration. Pouring at the tea table will be Mrs. Peter Schubert, Greenbrae, and Mrs. H. E. Picard, Kentfield.

The public is cordially invited to attend the demonstration, and tickets are available either from the Center, a committee member, or may be purchased at the door.

Leader Entertains Happy Blue Birds

Mrs. Laurence M. Scott concluded her second year as leader of the Happy Blue Birds of Sleepy Hollow with a barbecue-swimming party recently at her home, 870 Butterfield road. Mrs. Scott organized the group and continuously directed its activities. Her assistant this term was Mrs. Robert S. Herman.

The swimming party, which also celebrated completion of the Scott's pool, preceded a dinner barbecued by the girls.

Members of the group, all third graders at Sleepy Hollow school, are Kristin Anderson, Barbara Ackerman, Jill Asher, Beverly Baker, Debbie Forrest, Judi Gurall, Vicki Herman, Martha Hetzner, Bridget Holland, Holly Mensing, Carolyn Molica, Donna Dee Politi, Ann Scott and Anne Sperling.

Mary Lyn Nelson Will Be Counselor Trainee

Yolansdale P-TA 'Family Night' Planned Friday

Fairfax Deer Park will set the scene for the Yolansdale PTA's annual "Family Night" picnic on Friday at 6 p.m. All families, plus pre-school registrants, are invited with each family bringing their own food. Coffee will be furnished by the school. Chairman of the event is president, Mrs. Joe DeMaestri, and her executive board.

The picnic will replace the regular May meeting usually held on the fourth Thursday of the month.

The following chairmen for the 1959-60 year were appointed by the president: Mesdames John Channell, membership; William Wilson, health and welfare; James Orr, publicity; William Trewartha, magazines; and Robert Davis, newsette editor.

The Art Of Travel Is Discussed At Outdoor Art Club Guest Day

"How to be Lovable Though Rich and Vulgar" was the entertaining review presented by Dr. Graham Wilson of the two-and-one-half billion dollar tourist industry created by the American Tourist, as the program for the final guest day of the Outdoor Art Club.

A professor of English at San Jose State College, Dr. Wilson has traveled extensively and returned recently from nine months of research in Italy, France and England.

How to be "Lovable" he described as an art of eliminating some common mistakes made by the 2,000,000 Americans who roam the world. According to Dr. Wilson the average traveler finds himself in a state of "cultural shock" when familiar cues for behavior are missing and language difficulties occur.

BEING CHEATED

The results, he said, are excessive fear of being cheated, robbed and embarrassed; exaggerated concern over minor skin ailments; and constant praise of self, accompanied by criticism of others.

As for the language difficulties, learning even a dozen or so common phrases in the languages of the countries to be visisted will ease the traveler's path, the speaker suggested.

In defense of the traveling American, Dr. Wilson pointed out that Americans are victims of the tendency of foreigners to see them according to what they expect or have been told, and that thinking of one's own culture as the best is true of many nationalities.

Travel, Dr. Wilson concluded, is an experience involving people and cultures much more than geography and monuments.

Presiding at the business meeting in place of president Mrs. Frank Duhme Jr., who is in Florida, was vice president Mrs. Wayne Bingham. She announced that the garden section had received an award from the California Garden Clubs. Mrs. Rodney B. Hartman, president elect, gave her report on the recent convention of the Golden Gate District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the final meeting of the club on June 11, officers will be installed, and there will be a fashion show following the 12:30 p.m. luncheon. Mrs. Mills Calahan will be general chairman. Reservations should be made with Mrs. William Yockey or Mrs. Gerald Nowell.

Guests and members were greeted by Mesdames John Shortridge, William H. Bentley and Harry Smith, and tea tables were hostessed by Mesdames William Pleasants, John Sullivan, Albert Von Der Werth and Elvira Becker.

Mrs. Charles Bassett, tea chairman, was assisted by Mesdames M. A. Leonis, Joseph Taylor, Samuel Seifert, Pieter Van Dalen, John Hellman and J. C. Osborn.

Presbyterian Church's Women Have Business Meet, Program

Louise Reichardt (1778-1825) the composer's Hoffnung or "When the Roses Bloom" might well have been the theme of the Women's Society of the San Rafael Presbyterian Church for the May meeting.

However, for the publicity chairman, Gertrude Stein's "A Rose is a rose . . . is a rose . . ." seemed equally apropos as the meeting was an unusually lengthy one—much business to transact and quite a program as well.

Roses were everywhere—in garlands with ivy on the long tables, placed in white pottery bowls as a centerpiece for each table, and in a long plaque over the piano. Corsages of roses were additional favors for the honored guests.

Farewells were said to the church secretary, Mrs. Thomas W. McNeil, who resigned as of June 30 to go to St. Andrew's in Scotland where her husband has been awarded a scholarship to work for his Doctor's degree. An new secretary may be named by the Session June 8.

MAY GROUP SERVES

Mrs. John Bagshaw and Mrs. Kenneth Walkmeister supervised the serving of a salad luncheon with orange and banana nut bread and a hot beverage. On their committee were Mesdames H. H. Cleaves, S. H. Diehl, Fred Cebalo, A. H. Chiaroni, James Cowie, Herbert Hickman, T. J. Kelly, Kendall (Evelyn) Mabie, Lulu Maranello, Ralph Oliver, A. E. Straub, Violet Turner and W. W. Howe.

A letter of regret was read from Mrs. Ray Shaver whose husband has been seriously ill and she, too, confined at her home at 211 D St.

A most interesting letter was read from Miss Chu-Hsiang Kao, guest artist at the April Society meeting. Miss Kao, Seminary student from Japan U. will teach organ in Formosa following a courtesy course at Princeton made possible by Seminary students. She is scheduled to give an organ recital soon. Miss Kao sang Oriental folk songs at the recent Women's Society meeting to the piano accompaniment of John Thomas. She attended school at Doshisha in Kyoto, Japan. At the Seminary she was known as "Susanne."

A letter of appreciation was read for support of the International Christian University in Tokyo, Japan. This project was explained at the April meeting.

TALK ON POTRERO

Guest speaker was Mrs. Oliver McLean, who has served as president of the board of directors of Potrero Hills Neighborhood House in San Francisco, since 1950. This house is made possible by the Presbyterian Churches of Marin in cooperation with the Olivet Church working closely with the Presbytery.

It is highly regarded in San Francisco, one of the few necessary Protestant working agencies. Mrs. McLean followed Mrs. Julie Frazier and Mrs. O. C. Hansen as president.

Potrero has a working staff of full time social workers augmented by part time help from San Francisco State College. Volunteer aid is needed.

Mrs. S. D. Archibald, president of the San Rafael Women's Society, is chairman of the Kindergarten Committee at Potrero, and is Religious Education chairman.

All nationalities are served at the center, which dates back to 1921.

June 15 marks the start of the Christian Education Summer Classes at Potrero to be followed by Day Camps. All nationalities and creeds will be served.

On September 5 and 6, an Estonian celebration will feature West Coast Days.

Potrero sponsors many projects and clubs. Patrick Henry Debs, Dakota Misses, Girls' Basketball, Blue Birds, A-H Club, Junior Debs, 3 C Club, Everett Owls, Stars, Royal Molets, besides a Drop-In Club for all who care to drop in between 3 and 4 on Fridays.

Special guests with Mrs. McLean, all members of the Calvary Presbyterian Church in San Francisco, were Mesdames W. S. Hanna, Robert E. Ellis, V. C. Coolidge and H. D. Stephens. Mrs. Hanna is related to Mrs. Raymond Thayer.

MRS. KIMBALL PIANIST

A delightful musical interlude was provided by Mrs. Cloyd Kimball, outstanding pianist. With forceful technique Mrs. Kimball played from memory a varied trio of selections. She opened with Debussy's "The Sunken Cathedral" adapted from the folk lore of Brittany. "Fur Follete," Phillipe's "Fireflies," was a brilliant number. As an encore, Mrs. Kimball played a whimiscal selection from the Children's Suite which represented a Swiss music box.

REPORTS, COMING EVENTS

Announcements were made as follows: Meeting in Petaluma May 25, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Officers and Executives Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Rowena Dunn, director of education, urged attendance. BAZAAR WORKSHOP

Sewing circles are held in the church sewing room the fourth Thursday of each month from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Attendants are asked to bring sandwiches, hot drinks will be served. (Last year this group realized $400 for the Fall Bazaar, Mrs. James Haynes reported.) Materials are requested as donations at the June meeting.

HONORS FOR CANOLES'

A reception honoring Dr. and Mrs. John Jefferson Canoles, retired, will be held June 7, including "Testimonials" following the 11 o'clock services. The list of speakers includes church dignitaries. Women's Society will serve punch and cookies.

The elders and officers of the church are in charge of arrangements.

Good wishes for the future years of the Canoles' will be expressed. Welcome news is the report that the beloved couple, who served the church for 31 years, will retire in Marin County. A new home is be readied in Novato with the church friends contributing generously.

June 7 reception marks the actual 31st anniversary of Dr. Canoles in the pulpit. June also is the birthday month of Mrs. Canoles and the wedding anniversary of the beloved couple who were married in 1917.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. Charles Olson was introduced and congratulated at the May meeting upon the occasion of her 60th wedding anniversary May 10. (Mrs. Olson was most attractive in the beautiful blue ensemble with white orchids she had worn at a family observance earlier at Kent Woodlands). Asked to what she attributed her happy marital state she exclaimed "work." The Olsons are the parents of four, their daughter, Mrs. Williams Patching living nearby on Tamal Vista Drive in San Rafael.

Mrs. Detrick Vossbrink, house mother was missed due an injured hip incurred at a home accident.

Mrs. Fedora Ross has been obliged to return to the Kaiser Hospital in Vallejo for treatment.

The Archibald gardens are especially beautiful this time of year so it is expected the luncheon will be served al fresco.

Press reports of united church meeting in Indianapolis were watched with great intrest by the congregation and friends of the Marin County Presbyterian Churches.

Dr. Theodore Alexander Gill, 38, was elected to serve as president of the San Francisco Theological Seminary. Dr. Gill has a long list of accomplishments.

Editor, author and eminent theologian he is a native of Minnesota. He received his bachelor of theology degree from Princeton and took graduate work at Union Seminary in New York and at the University of Basle, Switzerland. Dorcas Holds Successful Bazaar-Lunch

The Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Congregational Community Church had a successful bazaar and luncheon recently.

The tables for the bazaar were set up in the social hall of the church. The sewing booth was well filled and brought in a substantial amount of money. Mrs. C. A. Benson, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Charles B. Brooks. Mrs. Louis R. Dallara had charge of the greeting cards. Mrs. Albert Terkelson, assisted by Mrs. Thomas M. Murphy, sold plants. Mrs. L. B. Curtis, assisted by Mrs. C. C. Miller, had four tables filled with white elephants which sold rapidly. The Women's Fellowship members sold home baked foods. Selling at that table were Mesdames Raymond Dahl, William H. Spargur, Linton Pratt and J. C. Uhte.

The luncheon was served starting at 12 M. Mrs. A. P. Kilpatrick sold the tickets. The many kinds of food had been donated by members of the Society. The kitchen committee had plenty to do, setting and decorating the tables, preparing the hot beverages, and serving about 90 luncheon guests. Mrs. W. J. Bennis, chairman of the committee, was assisted by Mesdames A. F. Adams, Clarence Bergstrom, Austin Boulter, Robert S. Baurrell, C. F. Campbell, Julius Delluchi, G. W. Action Needed To Make Marin Safe For All

Marin citizens have been aroused by two types of youthful activities which have become a danger to our residents.

One is use of the public street and highways as race tracks.

The other is hooliganism, unprovoked, unnecessary attacks on people or property.

In other Bay Area communities, Main does not have a good reputation. Deserved or not, this county has become known as a place where hooligangs roam looking for a party to crash or a teenager to smash.

We who live here know that the reputation is undeserved. Yet we have had pointed out to us by recent events that the stories about Marin were not cut from whole cloth.

It is important that we in the county take a careful look at the situation and decide what action, if any, needs to be taken.

A speeding youth rockets along a Greenbrae street, loses control of his car and crashes into a parked vehicle. It might just as easily have been a child or a mother and baby. But it was a parked car.

Investigating officers tell spectators that the real trouble is with the courts, that they aren't tough enough, that youthful offenders should "have the book thrown at them."

A Marin teen-ager has his jaw broken by one of a gang of youths, apparently without provocation.

The attack brings out reports of other, previous attacks. The district attorney says some youths and parents are so fearful of retaliation, they won't sign complaints against the offenders.

Both of these are serious situations. In both, the law enforcement agencies imply they can not do their jobs because someone else isn't doing his.

Such implications concern us greatly. Efficient law enforcement is a basic requirement for a peaceful community. Going with it, of course, must be citizen cooperation and judicial understanding of the basic goals of the police. We think these things can be achieved, but certainly not by buck-passing or recriminations.

"Throwing the book" at some particular individual won't stop others from reckless speeding.

What will stop them is if they know that speeding means arrest, and arrest means a certain punishment, one that increases in severity as the number of citations builds up.

What will stop hooligangs is the knowledge that after they strike, the law will not let up until they have been apprehended. And when they land before the judge, they will face a stern justice, based on their own irresponsible acts.

Such a situation can be brought about in Marin County. We are growing and now face policing problems which have not involved us before.

We need a concentrated and cooperative effort by the city police departments, the county sheriff's office, the state highway patrol, and the district attorney's office to enforce our laws.

We need an understanding of the over-all problem and a determination on the part of all to help stamp out these growing evils.

And we need the cooperation of all in the apprehension of the guilty ones and in giving backing to our peace officers and courts when they take their firm stand.

Then, again, will we be known as Marvelous Marin.

A.E.C. Would Do Anything To Test

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the Independent-Journal of May 27, I noted an article by columnist Roscoe Drummond commenting on the Geneva conference which is now in session seeking a ban on nuclear bomb testing. Drummond suggests that perhaps the president's concessions have gone too far.

Drummond says, "The United States is at a dangerous point in the negotiations to end tests."

It seems to me that Drummond has become one of the atomic energy, military, big business, cohorts and as such is doing everything possible to sabotage the President's efforts to stop bomb tests.

Drummond uses the old argument that we are likely to be drawn into an agreement to stop tests without a dependable method of inspection. This is a fallacy. Such men as Dr. Hans Bethe, the President's advisor on scientific matters, and a highly regarded scientist, has made the point to numerous Senate and House Committees (and this is a matter of record) that testing can be monitored and that we can find out whether the Russians have tested a bomb, not only on the surface of the earth, but in the stratosphere and below ground. His statements are agreed upon by nearly every authority in the world with the exception of those hired by the A.E.C.

Drummond goes on to use A.E.C. propaganda to bring into question the verdict of the scientists who set up the monitoring system. He mentions the underground tests last year in Nevada, and says that these tests proved the fallibility of the methods of detection which had previously been accepted. The claims made by the A.E.C. in regard to these tests were later proven false, and to be just another of this organizations fabrications.

It should be clear to any thinking person that the A.E.C. motives for continued testing which have really no connection with national defense. The U. S. has developed enough bombs to enable it to wipe humanity off the face of the earth. The U. S. has bombs ranging from the size of a hand grenade on up to those large enough to wipe out New York or any other major city. This country has tested more bombs by twice than the Russians and spokesmen for the army have stated that should testing be stopped right now, we would have an advantage over the Russians since we have tested more diverse types than they have.

The reason for the A.E.C.'s desires for continued testing then must lie elsewhere and it's not hard to locate. Testing is a big business! Millions of dollars go to many manufacturing organizations and these concerns don't want it to stop. More millions go to A.E.C. personnel and these people don't want it stopped. They are willing to do anything to maintain this situation, and buying columnists is one of their least expensive methods.

A Defense Of Beatniks: They Just Want To Be Left Alone

By ED CREAGH
For Hal Boyle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Why do people keep beating up on beatniks?

They're harmless — don't hurt anybody except occasionally each other.

They write, paint, publish, talk and don't care whether anybody looks or listens. Or if they do they won't admit it.

Male beatniks may wear beards. So did George Bernard Shaw, and so does Santa Claus.

Beachicks — the female of the species — may go in for sweat shirts and pedal pushers. Whose teen-age daughter doesn't?

Beatniks of all sexes may throw wild parties if by chance they can afford it. So? You should have seen the last "square" (beatnik term for nonbeat) party I attended in a supposedly sedate suburb. I doubt if the host has found his way out of the shrubbery yet.

All this comes to mind because of two recent events:

A bearded young man named Bill Walker has run into all manner of difficulty here because he wanted to open a coffee shop. That's right: Coffee. No booze. No marijuana.

First the zoning authorities and then the police declared war on him. A neighbor actually fired four shots at him and his wife.

Then there is the case of a Chicago magazine. The Post Office Department is holding hearings to decide whether it can be sent through the mails.

The editors have been called beatniks by some of their critics.

"Yes, there are four-letter words in it," says one of the editors, a suave young woman who looks as though she never heard about the birds and the bees. "I suppose that's what bugs (beat term for disturbs) the post office, poor little boys.

"But if those words aren't fit to print, what are they doing in the English language? And since they are in the language, why not use them if they say what you mean? I doubt if any child's mind is going to be warped. Children wouldn't read it in the first place."

WHAT ARE these beatniks anyway?

Let the beatchick answer: "They know about, and want more of, love, poetry and language.

"So they try to restore song, laughter and dancing in the streets. They dig (beat term meaning understand or appreciate or enjoy) the pulse of humanity, when they can find it. And they want things to be open — especially your and their sense of joy."

THE BEATNIKS talk a lot and experiment a lot — sometimes at the risk of their health and sanity. They tend to scorn steady jobs and square people.

But they are creating prose and poetry as Chaucer and Dante did in their day — enriching or defiling the language, depending on your point of view.

And minding their own business. Just asking to be left alone.

20 YEARS AGO

Army engineers held a public hearing in San Francisco on a proposal to dredge a channel between Bolinas Lagoon and the ocean. It was desired by Bolinas residents for a variety of reasons, including better fishing and pleasure craft facilities and movement of the Coast Guard from the bay to the ocean.

DeLuca and Son of Fairfax, prominent Marin County building firm, was awarded a $163,750 contract by the Navy Department for expansion of the navy yard establishment at Mare Island.

The most pretentious home to be built in Marin County in many months was started in Kent Woodlands, according to an announcement by Sam Heiman, Ross architect, who planned the $22,000 residence. The two-story, 10-room house was for J. S. Waterman, a San Francisco importer.

THE LAW SAYS

Federal Income Tax System Is Voluntary

By FRANK ELEAZER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dana Latham, the internal revenue commissioner, says our federal income tax system is voluntary, and that we volunteers are usually honest.

Well, Latham's 51,000 assistants, employed to encourage us in our annual tax offerings, have had their first look at the 60,000,000 individual returns we elected to file on or before April 15.

I believe the way they prefer to put it is that this year we were as honest as usual.

IT IS AMAZING though how many errors we made. One claimed a cat as a dependent. Her return was bounced back, of course, for proper proof he was a blood relative.

Another homemaker, who felt moved to contribute $20.64, sent it in the form of a $20 bill and eight trading stamps. She has been allowed to trade the stamps for two quarters, a dime and four pennies.

Fortunately for everybody concerned, including the Federal Bureau of Prisons, which already has an over-population problem, more and more tax volunteers now find it possible to use simplified forms allowing a standard 10 per cent deduction for such items as interest paid and contributions to churches.

HOWEVER IT LOOKS like maybe 20,000,000 of us again this year insisted on using the long form. Although aware we are honest, as the boss says, the tax men tend to look closest at this group of submissions.

And they say this year's offerings appear to have run true to form.

A druggist claimed a "loss" of $1,500. An agent inquired, loss of what? Ice cream, the man said. His nickel scoop broke, and the soda jerk neglected to tell him. Just used the 10 cent scoop all year.

Another sacrifice placed in the mail for the taxman listed unusually high medical costs. This volunteer explained, when asked, that his doctor said not to worry. So he didn't; he drank a fifth of whisky each 24 hours.

The tax men won't have a final verdict on our latest presentations for almost a year. Last year's count is just recently in, though, and here's what it shows:

OF 2,336,000 RETURNS pulled out and subjected to audit, 1,442,000, or 62 per cent, turned up with what the tax men like to call "deficiencies." This means they were short, and by an average of $478.

These taxpayers now have been permitted to press additional sums on the tax collector, totalling $688,500,000.

I see now what Latham meant when he asked Congress recently for additional helpers. Our volunteer tax system is the kind that works best when somebody looks over our shoulder.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

The local gossip was waiting on the stoop when the traveling salesman came home from his winter trip. "While you were away," he cackled, "I saw a tall, dark man kissing your wife." The salesman asked, "Did he wear glasses and white shoes, and did he have a big mustache?" "That is the one," exulted the gossip.

"Forget it," advised the salesman. "That was our milkman. He'll kiss anybody."

George de Witt told a fellow thespian he kept seeing spots in front of his eyes. "Have you seen an oculist yet?" inquired his worried friend. "No yet," admitted de Witt. "Just spots."

"I beg you," beseeched the junior miss' wear buyer to the beautiful new model, "whisper those three little words that will have me walking on air." The model obliged with, "Go hang yourself."

Novato Presbyterians Facing Tough Questions In Racial Quiz

We are watching with interest to see how the 400 members of the Novato Presbyterian Church will answer the questionaire on racial bias they were sent last week.

It it only regretable that the questions cannot be sent to all county residents.

A look at a few of the queries leveled by the church's committee on social education and action has shaken our confidence that racial bias is confined to those states south of the Mason-Dixon.

Be honest:

Would you welcome Negroes moving into your neighborhood?

Would you be willing to dance with a Negro?

Are you opposed to marriages between Caucasions and persons of obvious Negro ancestry?

That's a sample of what our Presbyterian brethern are up against.

CAN'T HELP BUT admire the ad lib ability of W. J. J. Smith, who as superintendent of the Novato Unified School District is often called to make public utterences.

Novato High School's annual sports award banquet last week was one such occasion.

A few feet from the superintendent's table several male students had succeeded in erecting a magnificent tower of milk cartons at their table. One brave scholar kept piling on cartons as the 200 diners held their breath.

At last, the three-foot-high creation came cascading down on top of its builders.

"The foundation you build in school is made of the things that carry you through life," said Smith. "We hope those that you are building will not be the kind that will collapse as we have just seen this one collapse before us."

There'll be no beating around the bush when it comes to picking out the girl who will be "Queen of Western Weekend" and "Maid of Marin" — all in one package — at Novato's wild west celebation June 19-21.

Judges, after dispensing with an examination of "poise" worth 10 per cent, and "personality," worth another 10 per cent, will get to the heart of the matter.

"Beauty of face and figure" will tell the tale. That's worth 80 per cent to the judges. You can let the dust pile up on your pianos, girls. The talent you need to win can't be rehearsed.

THE NEWLY FORMED Novato Forum which presents public discussions on controversial issues, has been turned down for membership in the Novato Community Club because club directors felt such membership might lead to dissension among members.

Membership as a section of the club would have meant free use of the community clubhouse by the forum for public discussions.

The forum, we hope, will not now disband for lack of a suitable hall to present issues of public interest — a growing need for a growing community.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Ike Has Not Made Public Reasons For Limited Nuclear Ban; He Should

Why does Thomas E. Murray, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, who has special knowledge in this field, view the current trend of negotiations to end nuclear-weapons testing with absolute dismay?

His central fear is that we are at the point of being trapped into an agreement-for-the-sake-of-agreement which will not protect against illicit tests.

In a memorandum to Chairman Clinton P. Anderson of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, for which he is now consultant, Murray says: "The worst thing that can now happen is that Khrushchev will accept the first proposal made by the President in his latest letter" — which is the Macmillan plan for limited inspection without veto.

MURRAY OFFERS a number of reasons for his warning. The heart of his argument concerns illegal underground testing — although the problem of detecting atmospheric tests above thirty miles is unresolved.

I am not suggesting that Eisenhower may not have persuasive reasons why he has accepted the Macmillan formula. I am only saying that he has not made public his reasons for embracing, after first doubting, the Macmillan plan. The situation is certainly muddy. There is need to take a lucid second look at where we are going.

HERE ARE the principal circumstances which give Murray and some other knowledgeable people great anxiety:

1 — The U. S. government, along with the Soviet Union, accepted the verdict of the scientists at Geneva last summer that 180 detection stations around the world are sufficient to protect against illegal underground testing. This was based on the evidence of one single underground experiment. Later underground tests persuaded most Western scientists that their earlier program of detection was inadequate.

2 — Note these two facts: (a) No plan for detecting atmospheric tests over 30 miles high has been devised in view of lack of knowledge; (b) the method for detecting underground tests has been exploded by new scientific developments. Hence President Eisenhower appealed to Premier Khrushchev to join in two further scientific conferences to get fuller facts on both atmospheric and underground explosions.

What tack did Khrushchev take? He said yes on an atmospheric study and no on any further conference on underground testing. In other words, Mr. K. is very satisfied with inadequate facts on underground detection.

3 — NOW COMES the Macmillan formula. We had previously held that there must be no barrier — that is, no single-nation veto — to the authority of the control commission to check out anywhere, anytime, suspicions of an illicit underground test. The Soviets refused, insisted on the veto. Macmillan proposed that there could be an advance agreement on a limited number — not very many — of veto-less, on-site investigations, if the need arose, after which the veto could be applied.

At first Eisenhower raised doubts about this plan, perhaps on the theory that artificial explosions could be used to exhaust the number of veto-less investigations. Mr. K. thought the Macmillan formula was just dandy.

THESE ARE the reasons why the situation is muddy and why Murray and some others are alarmed.

It seems to me there is an imperative need for the President to clarify his position.

There is no need to accept inadequate inspection to remove the primary hazard to health. The danger from radioactive fall-out comes almost wholly from atmospheric, not from underground tests, which the West is willing to ba nanytime the Soviets will agree.

Two Whales Span U. S. In Air-Lift

MARINELAND, Fla. (UPI) — Two live pilot whales arrived safely by plane from California yesterday in what was claimed to be the first transcontinental "whale-lift."

Officials at the Marine Studios here said the large water mammals were out of water about 13 hours, requiring personnel aboard the plane to spray their bodies with water throughout the flight.

Whales are air-breathing mammals but their skin is conditioned to being constantly wet.

After arriving at the airport at nearby St. Augustine in their shallow rubber trays, the half-ton sea monsters were driven here by truck.

They were placed in their new tank-homes and fed a large meal of squid for lunch.

Marine officials here sent to Palos Verdes for the whales because it is difficult to capture them on the Atlantic Coast.

It was hoped the whales, each more than 10 feet long, could be taught to do such tricks for tourists as taking food from visitors hands, blowing horns and waving flags.

The shipment was made in exchange for six porpoises which arrived at Palos Verdes last February. The whales were airlifted aboard a C46 transport.

Drunken Driver Jailed, Fined

A Hayward motorist, caught driving while drunk once every year for four years, must spend five days in Marin County Jail and pay a $400 fine.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Henry Bernard Mathes, 41, yesterday. Mathes was arrested on Highway 101 near Ignacio on March 8. For drunken driving, he drew five days in jail and a $250 fine. Driving with a suspended license cost him another $150.

Mathes had prior convictions in December, 1956, in Alameda, July, 1957, in San Leandro, and June, 1958, in San Leandro.

Retirement Board Elects Middagh

Floyd R. Middagh, chief civil deputy in the sheriff's office, has been elected to the Marin County Retirement Assn. board to succeed Harvey Marsh of the assessor's office.

Middagh joins Supervisor William D. Fusselman and John V. Bacigalupi of the Bank of America on the three-man board, which discusses retirement policies for the Marin County Employees Retirement Assn.

Middagh and Leo A. Vaughan of the treasurer's office ran for the post. County employees cast 247 votes for Middagh and 170 for Vaughan.

Four Win Legion Post Scholarships

Four scholarship winners—two seniors at Sir Francis Drake High School and two seniors at Marin Catholic High School were announced by San Anselmo American Legion Post 179 and its women's auxiliary.

The Drake High School awards, to be presented during June 19 graduation exercises, will go to Barbara Majesky and R. Hale Prather. Marin Catholic winners, Marlene Todt and Conothan Skinner, received theirs last week from Mrs. John Bodeen, Americanism chairman of the Legion Auxiliary.

Legion, Auxiliary To Seat Officers

San Ansemo American Legion Post 179 and its auxiliary will hold joint installation of officers at 8:15 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Cabin, Sonoma avenue and Los Angeles boulevard, San Anselmo.

Officers to be installed for Post 179 include Douglas McMurtry, commander; William Harrington, first vice commander; Patrick Pollock, second vice commander; Jean Lestanguet, finance officer; Raymond Greenberg, chaplain; Walter Berta, sergeant at arms and Bernard Clancy, historian.

Expert Panels Urged In Injury Suits

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A joint legislative committee yesterday urged an impartial panel of medical experts for personal injury trials to avoid confusing judges and juries.

The Joint Legislative Judiciary Committee on Administration of Justice, after a two-year study, called for establishing the panels in populous counties at public expense.

"A stock situation in personal injury suits has come to be a confused judge and jury sitting in baffled silence while opposing doctors for hours, perhaps days, solemnly contradict each other with X-ray films, charts and medical jargon," the committee said in its report.

The lawmakers, headed by Sen. Edwin Regan (D-Weaverville) noted many attorneys oppose such panels on grounds juries would regard court-appointed experts as infallible.

The report is the second made by the committee. Last month it blasted some judges for laziness, drunkenness and refusal to accept unpleasant cases.

In the latest report, the committee said some judges explain decisions so briefly that losing attorneys have little on which to base appeals in non-jury civil suits.

Tiburon Sanitary Bonds Awarded

A $132,881 bond issue of the Tiburon Sanitary District was awarded Monday night to the Beverly Hills firm of Hanauer and Co., which offered to take the issue at an interstate rate of 4½ per cent.

The 14-year bonds are for the Red Hill area sewer assessment district. The only other bidder was the First California Co.

District directors tabled for further study a revision of the district's ordinance covering a garbage contract with the Mill Valley Garbage Co. Ben C. Albritton, a partner in the San Rafael firm of L. P. Cossette and Associates, was hired as the district's engineer.

The sanitary district board set for 8 p.m. Monday in the district office an adjourned meeting for discussion of the 1959-60 budget.

SCHOOL QUESTION

Supervisors Reject Ranch Annexation

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday turned down Richard B. Hay's petition to have his ranch on Chileno Valley road annexed to the Laguna Joint Union School District.

Voting against the turn-down —and in favor of the Hay family because she felt its needs were being ignored—was Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley.

"This is just another reason why we need one countywide school district," she commented.

Hay wanted his ranch annexed to Laguna so that he would not have to seek inter-district agreements from the Tomales Union High School District and Tomales Elementary School District to permit his children to attend schools in Sonoma County.

Hay each year has received approval of the agreement from the county board of education, after being turned down by the Tomales district boards.

Speaking before the supervisors, Hay reasserted his wishes for the change so that his ranch could be in Laguna and thus his children could attend Petaluma High School since the high school district takes in Laguna.

One complication is that his elementary school age children attend Two Rock School (through the inter-district arrangement) and would go on to Kennilworth Junior High School.

It was brought out, however, that if the Hay ranch were part of the Laguna district, that district could be billed for two years the children would be attending Two Rock.

Hay previously had said he would pay the Tomales district for costs involved, and indicated he would do the same for Laguna. However, at a recent meeting of Hay and members of the two school boards, it was stated that Hay could not do this legally.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman asked Hay is he had discussed the possibility of giving the money to the school districts as a gift. Hay said he had not.

The motion to deny was made by Supervisor James Marshall of Tomales, who noted there was no "hardship" involved, that the Laguna board appeared reluctant to consider an inter-district agreement for two years, and that Hay has the right to appeal to the county board of education.

Cab Driver Pleads Guilty To Theft

Mill Valley cab driver Rodney Allen, 23, admitted yesterday he stole a Yellow cab and took off for Bakersfield with his boss' nephew and three youngsters last April 5.

The nephew, Frank Lacey, 21, also pleaded guilty, but to the lesser charge of temporarily taking his uncle's cab without the owner's permission. This is a misdemeanor punishable by a $200 fine, three months jail or both.

Allen pleaded guilty to car theft, which is a felony and carries a maximum penalty of up to five years in prison.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court set July 6 as the time for a probation report and sentencing of the two men.

The stolen cab was owned by Verl H. Hinkle of 10½ Locust avenue, Mill Valley. Allen and Lacey, accompanied by Hinkle's three sons, drove to Tracy where the cab broke down. They stole a car there and headed for Bakersfield, where a highway patrolman caught them just as they ran out of gas.

96 Bottles Vanish From Distributor

Eight cases of sparkling water, containing 96 quart bottles, disappeared from Shasta Distributors at 516 Irwin street in San Rafael during the weekend, owner Vern Howard Silva reported to San Rafael police.

Silva said he had closed his establishment Saturday evening. Monday morning, he noticed the front door of his warehouse partially open, and the lock gone.

Crusade Solicitation To Use New Method

A new pattern for soliciting United Bay Area Crusade funds in residential areas will be initiated in Marin County this year Mrs. E. Gould Ingram of Belvedere, Marin residential chairman, has announced.

Under the new system, member agencies of the Marin United Fund will assume responsibility for covering specific geographic areas, Mrs. Ingram explained. A trial of this method worked very well when the American Red Cross assumed responsibility for collecting funds from Greater San Rafael residents during the past two fund campaigns, she said.

This fall, the Red Cross is staffing the residential division as a whole, and will cover all Marin areas not assumed by other Crusade agencies, Mrs. Ingram said. Agency commitments for coverage are:

Girl Scouts, the Tiburon Peninsula, Belvedere, Marin City, Sausalito; Catholic Social Service and St. Vincent's School for Boys, Greater San Rafael; Catholic Youth Organization, Larkspur; Family Service Agency, Kentfield, Del Mesa and Kent Woodlands; Children's Home Society, Greenbrae and Bon Air; Camp Fire Girls, San Anselmo and Sleepy Hollow; Marin Jewish Community Center, Novato and North Marin; Marin Association for Retarded Children, Ross.

The Sunny Hills organization will cover an area yet to be designated.

Boy Scouts and the YMCA are providing volunteers for the solicitation of business establishments throughout the County.

Mrs. Ingram will meet with area chairmen Monday at Crusade headquarters in San Rafael. At that time she will introduce her newyl named assistant, Mrs. Arthur H. Collbran of Belvedere.

Break-In Reported At Novato School

Burglars broke into the physical education room of Hill School in Novato, the school custodian reported to the sheriff.

Clarence Vogensen said he opened the school Monday and noticed the door split open in the physical education room. Locked cabinets containing balls, gloves, and other equipment had been forced open, but nothing appears to be missing.

ARCHDIOCESE ACCEPTS OFFER OF OLD CHURCH

Thomas Procter, spokesman for the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, announced today that the San Francisco Archdiocese of the Roman Catholic Church has accepted the society's offer for purchase of old St. Hilary's Church and its half-acre site on the hill above Tiburon.

Purchase price was not disclosed, but Procter said the purchase was made possible through an anonymous donation.

Title to the property will pass when title searches and other details are completed, Procter said.

Procter said cooperation of Rev. James J. Forristal, pastor of St. Hilary's Parish, was instrumental in assisting the society to preserve the church as an historical landmark.

Mrs. Robert Bastian, society chairman, said that before the church can be converted to a museum and the land developed into a park, further contributions will be necessary. The foundation requires immediate restoration and other maintenance repairs are required, she said.

Basques Planning Big Festival In Nevada

RENO (UPI) — A little-known people who have been a shaping force in the west's massive sheep industry for more than a century will gather in Reno and neighboring Sparks this weekend for a unique celebration.

They are the Basques, whose ancient language and origins in the Pyrenees Mountains between France and Spain are still a source of mystery to ethnologists.

They came to the American west circuitously via the conquistador route, and when the '49 gold rush brought waves of pioneers to California, they began raising sheep to feed them. Bolstered by immigrations of Basques from the old country, they built the west's sheep industry almost singlehanded. Ironically, however, as little generally is known of them in the west as in their native Europe.

Their reunion, called the Western Basque Festival, will bring thousands of them together for the first time from all parts of the west.

ENVOYS COMING

And, although the Basques have not been an altogether peaceful adjunct either to France or Spain because of their stubborn refusal to be identified with anyone, Ambassadors Jose Maria de Areilza of Spain and Herve Alphand of France are coming from Washington, D.C., in honor of the festival. For Areilza, it will mark his first visit to the west.

Organized by Basques and their descendants in western Nevada, the festival is headed by chairman Peter Echeverria, attorney and state senator from Reno, and secretary Robert Laxalt, author and staff member at the University of Nevada.

OUTDOOR AREA

Most of the festivities will be in a mammoth outside area adjacent to Dick Graves' Nugget Casino in Sparks. Graves, whose wife is Basque, is sponsoring a full afternoon program which will see scores of costumed boys and girls in centuries-old folk dances and songs, Basque strong men competing in rock lifting and barefoot wood-chopping events, a barbecue, sheepdog exhibition, and general la jota dancing.

Also, in a milder variation of old-time western range trouble, there will be a tug-of-war between sheepmen and cattlemen.

Church Youth Plan Show

Junior and Senior High Westminister Fellowships of the First Presbyterian Church in Sausalito will present a talent show Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the John Calvin Fellowship Hall of the church.

Included on the program will be a pantomime by Carl Thomson, creative dancing by Judy Donaldson and Christine Burr, a humorous number by Bart Miller, an oboe solo by Loren Donaldson and a reading by Pam Miller.

The junior high group will present a dance, directed by Sandra Taneyhill, a duet and a vocal solo.

Guest artists will be pianist Don Francisco of San Francisco, who is organist for the church, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith of San Francisco, who will be joined by Loren Donaldson and Mrs. Chalmers Donaldson in a quartet composed by Smith.

Proceeds will provide summer camperships for the youth.

Attends CHP Course

Sgt. James J. Shanahan of 35 Belle avenue, San Rafael, will return home tomorrow from Sacramento where he has been attending a California Highway Patrol 10-day training course. Sergeant Shanahan is CHP field supervisor in the San Rafael area.
